Comments

From old letters in the files of the Minnesota Historical Society dating back to 1815, it appears that Aitkin was spelled Aitken by members of his own family at that time. This is in spite of the fact that when the founders of Aitkin County wanted to settle the question of how the name should be spelled, they wrote to Roger Aitkin in 1898. The son of the old trader wrote back that Aitkin was the way William Aitkin and he had always spelled it. (Project Office County History files; Palmquist ms, 69)

Sandy Lake Lac au Sable Lac du Sable	Highway Dept. List. Upham,17,18: Sandy Lake. So named on Nicollet's map, 1843. Lac au Sable, or Lac du Sable, were the early French names, translated by both French and English from the Ojibway name, recorded by Gilfillan and Verwyst as Ga-mitawangagumag sagaiigun, the-place-of-bare-sand lake. Northwest Co. post established on w.shore 1794; visited by David Thompson 1798 and by Pike 1806; but before the time of Aitkin's taking charge there in 1831, the old post had been abandoned for a new site at the mouth of the outlet of Sandy Lake, on the narrow point between the outlet and the Mississippi River. 	C.U.Greer, 2/24/41; information from Tom Thompson, McGregor: Blueberry Crossing. 3 miles w of McGregor station on the N.P. at a point where Blueberry Trail crossed the tracks, the r.r.company installed a crossing and a very small siding. Passengers and freight were unloaded and taken on at this site until the erection of Ude station 3/4 of a mile to the west, when the site was abandoned as a train stop. Received its name from Blueberry Trail. For a number of years before 1894 the Indians maintained a small permanent building close to the r.r. which served as a summer camp for the berry pickers. Camp known to the settlers as Blueberry Camp. The trail received its name from the camp.

Unmeandered on the original government survey plat. Originally a small lake separated from Sandy Lake by a narrow strip of land, the construction of the Libby Dam, in Sandy River, in 1891, raised the water level in Sandy Lake so ast permanently connect the two bodies together. This originall small lake was known as Mud Lake, and, after 1900, as Brown's Lake, for Thomas Edward Brown, settler on the Point. At present it is all known as Brown's Bay.

C.U.Greer, information from J. E. Murphy, 6-24-41: Cutaway Lake. Named by the earliest lumbermen, before 1881, for the Cutaway Dam that was annually placed in the West Savanna River at a point where it flows out of the lake. It was the practice of the lumbermen when lumbering near the source of these many small streams, to place artificial dams at strategic points in these streams, thus raising the water level sufficiently to enable them to drive their logs down stream. These dams, or many of them, were known as "cutaway dams," because the dam was released by chopping with an axe, and the logs carried downstream on the crest of the stored-up water thus released.

C.U.Greer, report, May 27, 1941; information from J. E. Murphy, McGregor: Davis Lake. Named for a pioneer lumberman who operated a lumber camp near the lake before 1881. The lake was known by this name as early as 1881. Since 1881 the n extremity of Davis Lake was considered as being at that relatively narrow constriction of Sandy River in the center of the nw 1/4 of the ne 1/4 of sec.15. The portion of Sandy River in sec.10 has never been known as part of Davis Lake. A number of years ago that wide part of Sandy River in sec.15, together with the wide portion in sec.14, as a whole was considered Davis Lake. In recent years the wide part in the se 1/4 of sec.14 has become known as Steamboat Lake (q.v.). Gaz.Meandered Lakes calls what is now known as Steamboat, Davis Lake. C.U.Greer, interview with Elner T. Strom, McGregor: The maps show this lake as extending into sec.10. However, only that portion of this body of water lying south of a narrow constriction of the shore on the s line of the nw 1/4 of the ne 1/4, sec. 15, is considered Davis Lake. That portion north of this point is considered flowage of Sandy River. (3/11/41)

Poverty Flats	C.U.Greer, 2/25,41; information from Ole T. Jevne, Aitkin: The Flats. A law flat area of fertile farm land in the se part of the twp, upon which grew a heavy growth of tamarack and hardwood timber. The name Poverty Flats was first applied to the area by Charles L. Turner in 1900 when a settler from this flat area jokingly dubbed Turner's farm near Turner Lake "Hard-scrabble Hills", and Turner replied that he would rather live in Hard scrabble Hills than in Poverty Flats. The Flats was substituted for Poverty Flats as being more descriptive of the area which is the most fertile in the twp. About six square miles.

C.U.Greer, information from Alfred Sather, McGregor, 3-11-41: Glacier Lake. So named by R. H. Cairns, resort owner on the lake, "who is trying to change the name of 'Turtle Lake' to 'Glacier Lake' for business reasons. This lake was never known as 'Turner Lake.' It must be a missprint."

C.U.Greer, information from Mrs. R. H. Cairns, 6-24-41: Glacier Lake. So named by R. H. Cairns, resort owner (Klondike Lodge) on the east side of the lake since 1925. Cairns thought the name more appropriately described the scenic beauty of this lake; a view of the lake from a point near Klondike Lodge, which is elevated about 80 feet above the surface of the lake, is reminiscent of the glacial lakes of the Klondike region of n.w. Canada.

C.U.Greer (2/25/41; information from Clara Dysland and Ole T. Jevne, both rural route, Aitkin): Formerly known as Ude, for a German hunter and trapper named Uhde, who settled on the neighboring lake several years before the erection of the station. The h was dropped from the name by the r.r. co. in naming the station. A flag stop on the N. P. 4 miles w of McGregor and 6 miles e of Kimberly. A p.o. was establishe about 1904, and the name was changed upon recommendation of the P.O. dept because of confusion with similar names in the state. A list of new names was proposed by the postmaster and from the list Lansford was selected by the P. O. dept. Upon petition of the settlers about 1916 the name of the r.r.station was changed from Ude to Lansford to conform to the name of the p.o. The p.o. was discontinued about 1928. After abandoning the site of Portage Crossing, 1 mile w, the site which later became Ude station was known as Portage. Name Portage dis carded because of duplication in other parts of the state.

Lake Dodge

Comments

C.U.Greer report, Jan.2,1941: A small lake ne of Rice Lake. It was charted by J. V. Brower in 1897 and named by him Bromley Lake, for Edward A. Bromley. The name Bromley is unknown in the entire community. Local people call it Mandy, or Mandey, for an Indian woman who married Elmer Antell, a pioneer logger in this locality. This name dates back to before 1896. (Information from Grover Worzburger).

Swan River Station	St. Paul Pioneer and Democrat, Nov.26, 1857, p.6, col.6 (Annals): Norwood. Mentions construction of wagon road from the head of Minnesota Point to Norwood, situated on the Upper Mississippi at the mouth of Swan River, and about three hundred miles north of St. Paul. The road is completed for thirty miles and within a short distance of the St. Louis river. The remainder of the road, according to agreement, will be opened this winter by the settlers and lumbermen in and around Norwood. [Walker in his Village Laws (1927) places Norwood in Itasca County. The mouth of the Swan River, however, is just south of the Itasca county line, thus placing Norwood in Aitkin County.] St. Paul Pioneer and Democrat, Dec.10, 1857 (Annals): Reprint from the Superior Chronicle of Nov.17, 1857. "It is with great pleasure we chronicle . . . the first shipment by the lakes, of supplies for the lumbermen at Norwood, on the Upper Mississippi." Comments

Upham,15: Poquodenaw Mountain. A prominent hill of morainic drift, the culminating point of a very knolly and broken tract of the same moraine extending into the adjoining sections, to which locality, and especially to its highest part, the Ojibways applied the name Pikwadina (or Piquadinaw), "it is hilly." Hence came the common name "Poquodenaw Mountain," used by the lumbermen and given to this hill on the map of Aitkin County in the Minnesota Geological Survey.

Winchell, Geol.Survey, 4:25: Poquodenaw Mountain. A vertical range of less than 400 feet. Estimated 1525 feet above sea level. P.32: Poquodenaw Hill. About 250 feet above the lakes and rivers near its base.

Upham,17,18: Sandy Lake. So named on Nicollet's map, 1843. Lac au Sable, or Lac du Sable, were the early French names, translated by both French and English from the Ojibway name, recorded by Gilfillan and Verwyst as Ga-mitawangagumag sagaiigun, the-place-of-bare-sand lake. North West Co. post established on w. shore 1794; visited by David Thompson 1798 and by Pike 1806; but before the time of Aitkin's taking charge there in 1831, the old post had been abandoned for a new site at the mouth of the outlet of Sandy Lake, on the narrow point between the outlet and the Mississippi River.

Cross's Point	C.U.Greer, information from John J. O'Dea, May 14, 1941: Sheshebe Point. A natural point or peninsula extending into Lake Minnewawa in a northwesterly direction from sec.27 on the east end of the lake, dividing the lake into two parts. So named by a firm of lake shore real estate promoters known as "Tingdales" when they platted the point about 1914. It was known as Cross's Point from 1910 to 1915 by local settlers, for an eastern banker who purchased the point in 1910 and retained it until it was sold to Tingdale Brothers, who platted it into lots and blocks as Sheshebe Point.

So named by the early settlers because steamboats navigated to this point from the Mississippi via Sandy Lake and Sandy River before 1890, hauling supplies for the construction of the N.P.rr and lumber camps. The recent settlers in the region say the name originated from the fact that a steam dredge which was used in recent years to dredge Sandy River eastward to Grayling was abandoned in the lake about 1927-28.

C.U.Greer (source of information unknown): The lake was named Muck's Lake for an old Pillager Indian, Muckandwaywananee, commonly known as Old Muck. He attempted to drain this lake with a view to getting all the fish out of the lake. The attempt was only partially successful and he succeeded in only lowering the lake level. This was before 1891. After this attempt the lake was known as Muck's Lake and is still referred to by old timers by this name, although the common name today is Tiesen Lake.

Name Origin & Remarks: So named by the R.R. officials in 1910 in honor of two of the land owners of the village site ARTH-ur and C1-YDE Hutchins. This was a densly wooded region through which the Soo Line penetrated in 1910 followed by platting the village site and establishing of the postoffice here which eliminated the inland postoffice of Millward. Great quantities of wood productswere shipped by rail from this point, peak production was probably from 1915 to 1921, after 1932 shipping suffered a steady decline due partly to the improved roads over which much of the timber products found there way to Cloquet and other points via truck.

Greer: Re your report of June 21, 1941 on Island Bay in Davis Bay of Sandy Lake.

IT READS:

ISLAND BAY - bay. A natural bay northeast side of the south end of Davis Bay on Sandy Lake. Site: sec. 19, 20, T 49, R 23, Shamrock twp. . . . . We can not reconcile these section numbers with map. Roughly in location you give the map appaars to show two indentations on this shore line, both in section 17. Please xxxxxxx give correct site or xxxxxxx explain what appears to be a discrepancy to us.

Name Origin & Remarks: So named for the exceedingly heavy growth of White Pine trees on the site.

Prior to the const. of the "Soo Line" this site was known as Headquarters Camp of James E. McGrath (lumberman). A large lumber camp and steam powered saw mill operated here for many years. In 1910 the Soo Line constructed a spur line from Solana to the mill and the postoffice was then established.

Description & Name Origin County was organized June 30, 1871, was named for William Alexander Aitkin, a fur trader with the Ojibway Indians. He was born in Scotland in 1785; came from Edinburg to America in his boyhood; and about the year 1802 came to the Noethwest, being in the service of a trader named John Drew. Aitkin married into an influential Indian family; was soon a trader in his own account; and rapidly advanced until in 1831 he took charge of the Fond du Lac department of the American Fur Company, under John Jacob Astor, with headquarters at Sandy Lake in this county, adjoining the east side of the Mississippi river. He died Sept. 16, 1851, and is buried on the east bank of the Mississippi, opposite to the mouth of Swan river, in Morrison county where he had a trading post during his last nine years, after 1842. The name of Aitkin county was at first erroneously spelled Aiken with which it is identical in pronunciation, and it was changed to its present spelling in 1872 by an act of the legislature.

Swedish settler and farmer. A pioneer settler at Grayling in 1895. Operated a general merchandise store at the site throughout the lumbering period. Son-in-law to Frank B. Clark, first settler in Clark township.

He was a pioneer settler at Grayling, Minn. He came to Mc Gregor in 1895, settled on the south side of the track, four miles east of Mc Gregor Station, at a point where the N.P. R.R. crosses the Sandy River.After a petition for a post-office at this point by the hand full of settlers here was granted and the name Grayling adopted and the first Postmaster was John L Borg, a brother to S.A. Borg. The P.O. operated untill 1929, at which time it was discontinued. In 1895, Sam A. Borg built and operated the first General Store at Grayling, lumbering operations were at their height and this little siding where the trains used to stop to allow the lumbermen to get off and continue their way via canoe up Sandy River to the camps, became a thriving lumbering town. S.A. Borg did a healthy business. First school was taught in his home - 3 months- in 1895. When school district #36 was formed and a new school was built, Mr. Borg was elected School Clerk for two years, which office he held for that period. When the lumbering business waned, Grayling again became just a flag stop and the P.O. was discontinued as well as Borg's store.

DOUGLAS, MRS. EDWARD L. AITKIN COUNTY
Tamarack, Minnesota.

Edward L Douglas was born in Canada in 1850. He came to the United States in 1867 and engaged in the lumber business at Rockford, Minnesota. He came to Aitkin in 1876 and engaged in the lumber and hotel business. In 1878 he returned to Rockford, and married Miss Ellen Sook: returned to Aitkin with his bride and their honeymoon was spent on the steamboat Po-keg-u-ma in a trip up the Mississippi to Pokeguma Falls. In the summer of 1881 , Mr. Douglas, in company with Mr. G.W. Knox formed 'The Aitkin Lumber Co.' The first saw-mill erected at Aitkin was erected by this Company according to an article in the Aitkin Age dated 12-29-1883. Mrs. Douglas, who at the present time is living at Tamarack, Minnesota, is eighty years of age, a semi-invalid. Her knowledge as to the date of organization, extent of the business of the Sand River Lumber Co. and other details is very limited. She states that her husband came to Tamarack in the spring of 1899, that previously he had engaged extensively in the lumber business in the region of the Sandy River, extending from Tamarack to Mc Gregor and points north. In 1899 he had a large number of logs at Tamarack at the time he came here He erected a saw-mill there and moved his headquarters to Tamarack to carry on his lumbering operations from that point. Shortly thereafter hte Sandy River Lumber Co. was incorporated. Mr. Douglas held controlling interest and transacted all the business of the company. Mr Bonness, according to Mrs. Douglas memory provided the financial backing of the enterprise. Prior to his coming to Tamarack he had bought thousands of acres of timber land on both sides of the Sandy River. He held 125 shares of the Lumber Co. stock with a par value of $100.00 per share. Mr. Bonness 124 shares. E.L. Douglas died in 1922. Was appointed P.M. of Tamarack June 21, 1902 and held the post for 15 years. rose 7-1-41

HALTONEN, Mr. Jacob, AITKIN COUNTY
East Lake, Minnesota.
Rural route.

Mr. Haltonen is the man who suggested the name of Rice River for the present township of that name, which was accepted by the township organizers, because Rice River meandered over the township.

Also gave information on old military road ' Lake Road '.
He was born in Vaha Kyrö, Finland in the year 1867, emigrated to the U.S. in 1886. Mrs. Haltonen, born Miss Ida S. Anderson in Kannus, Finland in 1875, emmigrated to the U.S. in fall of 1885.Married Haltonen in Newburg, Michigan on July 16, 1889. Mr. Haltonen, after a previous location at Hibbing, cmae to Moose Lake, and penetrated westward to section 28 Township 46N. Range 23W., via the Lake Road, arriving on sec. 28, on March 5th, 1895. Filed a homestead claim immediately and started aonstruction of a log cabin. After the completion of the cabin Mrs. Haltonen arrived over the same route. on April 2, 1895.Mr. Haltonen states that when he came he drove a team of horses as far as 'Dixons', there was forced to abandon the team and substitute an ox and a cart. No settler had previously penetrated as far west as sec. 28 and for a number of miles the road had grown over with second growth timber and much cutting and clearing was necessary to get through. The Twp. was unorganized and without a name. At time of organization he suggested the name Rice River, which name was adopted.At time of his arrival he states that there were quite a rank number of Indian houses at the Indian village at Rice Lake. Mr. Haltonen states that he never heard of there being a marble quarry anywhere in the country, but states that there was or is, five or six years ago, a quarry operating about four miles west of Dad's Corner, which he thinks produced Granite for tombstones.

A number of metal and stone relics were found by him and given to a representative of the State Historical Society for safe keeping.
The Haltonens were never blessed with any children.

HANSEN, Mr. L.H. AITKIN COUNTY

INGERSOLL, MR. WILLIAM P. AITKIN COUNTY

Mr. Ingersoll first visited the Sandy Lake Region in 1903 at the time the Govt. was meandering the lake (Sandy Lake) and establishing the flowage lines. In subsequent years Mr. Ingersoll made frequent trips to hunt, fish and work in the logging camps. In the summer of 1921 he first met Mr. Irving H. Hart, who at the time of their first meeting was camped on Mr. Ingersoll's property unknown to Mr. Ingersoll. Upon investigating the intruder with a view of dislodgment, Mr. Hart's winning smile and and pleasing personality struck up a friendship which has grown with the years, and has resulted in the discovery of the site of the 1794 Trading Post on Brown's Point and the discovery of the old Savanna Portage Trail.

In August 1926, Professor Hart and Mr. Ingersoll definitely located and partially excavated the site of the Old Trading Post, established in 1794 by the Northwest [illegible] Company. An archaeological discovery of great importance to the northwest. They discovered rotting remnants of the old wilderness stockade of 133 years ago. At the present no permanent marker marks the location of this famous old Post.

Jevne, Ole T. AITKIN COUNTY
Aitkin, Minn.
Flemming route

Born in Dane County, Wisconsin in 1872. His parents were Norwegian emigrants who came from Norway "quite a few years before" he was born and settled in Wisconsin. In the Spring of 1891, his father Ole O. Jevne came to Aitkin county, Minn. and filed a homestead claim on the SW¼ of the NE¼ of sec. 30, T48 N., R.24 W. (Jevne Twp). In Oct. 1891 he accompanied his father, step-mother and two brothers, Henry and Peter, and one sister, Hilda M., to the new homestead from a previous location at Portland, N.Dak. Penetrating the region was by way of the Nor. Pac. Ry. to Portage Crossing, near Portage lake, thence overland via a tote camp road to the Ole Mausten logging camp located on the present Chas. L. Turner farm in sec. 32, thence via this same tote road to the homestead site. No other roads existed in the township outside of a few tote roads. Two other settlers preceeded them by a short time. Those being two brothers, Alfred and Enoch Johnson, also homesteading in sec. 30. No other settlers were in the township to his knowledge at that time. Kimberly was the closest town and was reached via a circuitous route over the hills to the southwest. Davis, Round, Steamboat, Rock, Town Line and Portage lakes were already known by their respective names in 1891.
Ole T. Jevne has had almost continuous residence in the township since 1891; was elected first Town Clerk and since has held numerous similar offices. Possesses a fairly good education, having attended a teachers college for one year in North Dakota. Memory fair to good.

LOZWAY, Mrs. Mary AITKIN COUNTY
Duluth, Minnesota.
12 - N. 26th. Ave. No.

Henry Lozway, a Frenchman, born in New York State, came to Mc Gregor Station in either 1889 or 1890. Mc Gregor was at this date comprised of one small depot, situated on the south side of the Northern Pacific R.R., one frame building situated a short distance to the west of the depot and used as a section house. No other buildings existed; Mc Gregor was but a siding on theNorthern Pacific. Henry Lozway shipped in a quantity of lumber by freight and built a frame store building close to the depot, he operated this small store untill Mr. Frank Spicola arrived in 1891and bought out his interest.
NOTE: Mrs. Pasquale Memmola states that she is positive that Frank Spicola did not buy this 'Indian trading store' although he may have purchased the small stock of goods owned by Henry Lozway.
After selling out his 'Indian Trading Store' went west and did not return to Mc Gregor untill after his brother Daniel E. Lozway secured a homestead claim and settled in Mc Gregor in 1893. Henry Lozway died March 24, 1905, and was buried in Mc Gregor cemetery. Daniel Lozway was born March 10, 1860, married Miss Mary Hart, daughter of Pionaer settlers of Nebraska City, Nebraska. He moved his family to Mc Gregor in the summer of 1893, obtained a homestead, built a small store, secured the Post-mastership and operated in competition with Frank Spicola for a few years, died Feb. 23, 1903, buried in Aitkin, Minn. Mrs. Mary Lozway, widow of Daniel, at the present time is making her home with her son Frank, in Duluth, Minn.

MEMMOLA, MRS. PASQUALE, AITKIN COUNTY
Mc Gregor, Minnesota.

Pasqualina Christello, born of Italian parents in Italy on April 5, 1873. At the age of eighteen years she left her parents in Italy and emmigrated to the United States, arriving in Duluth, Minnesota in October, 1891. Shortly after her arrival she met Mr. Pasquale Memmola, an Italian immigrant, fell in love and married him on Jan. 25, 1892, the wedding ceremony taking place in the French church in Duluth. Immediately after the wedding she came to Mc Gregor Station and moved into the small log cabin previously prepared for her by Mr. Memmola on their 120 acre Govt. homestead claim. This was the first pioneer home in Mc Gregor; the other buildings being only the railroad station and the section house, the one exception being a small frame building standing on the north side of the railroad Right of Way adjacent to their homestead claim. This was the store built by Henry Lozway in 1889 or 1890. Mrs. Memmola states that 'our best friend' Mr. Frank Spicola and his family came here at the same time as they did, and moved into the frame store building. Mr. Memmola organized the first school district at the time the first store bldg. of Frank Spicola was vacated. The store was along side of the Memmola cabin. This building served as a school for a number of years.

Mr. Pasquale Memmola was born in Italy May 24, 1856, died in Mc Gregor Dec. 15, 1932 buried in Mc Gregor Cemetery. They had seven children. Four boys and three girls. Two boys and two girls still survive. Pasquale Memmola came to Mc Gregor Station August 1891, accompanied by Henry and Daniel Lozway, seeking a location. He filed on the $E\frac{1}{2}$ of the $SW\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 30 plus the $SE\frac{1}{4}$ of the $NW\frac{1}{4}$, sec. 30, containing 120 acres in all. He returned in Nov. 1891 and erected a log cabin on the homestead, assisted by F. Spicola. Mrs. Memmola's two brothers murdered the Benny Meanett's in cold blood

RANDA, MR. MATT — AITKIN COUNTY

Rice River Twp.

He states that he was born of Finnish parents, in Finland, on Oct. 25, 1863. At the age of 18 he emmigrated to the U,S. and came to the town of Montreal, Michigan. NOTE: 'Montreal' is a phonetic spelling, Mr. Randa did not know how the name was spelled; his daughter-in-law , who acted as interpreter, said she thought it was spelled the same as Montreal, in Canada. While at Montreal, Mich. he married Miss Josephine Field, a Finnish Immigrant. In the fall of 1893 Mr. Rand with his wife and small baby, together with his wife's brother, Mr. John Field, came by railroad to the town of Moose Lake, in search for a location. There they loaded all their possessions aboard an ox-drawn two wheeled cart and pushed westward over the old 'Military Trail', in those days commonly known as the Lake Road. After many days of heart-breaking work they came to sec. 12, in Twp. 46N.(Rice River Twp) an un-organized township. Filed a homestead claim on the $W\frac{1}{2}$ of the $SW\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 12, while Mr. John Field filed a similar claim on a tract adjoining on the west. Mr. Randa is positive that he and Field were the only settlers for many miles around, however he states that there were some settlers on the old trail, closer to Moose Lake. Mc Gregor was settled and after the first year they used to trade with 'Speegles', which was the closest store. Born to the union with his first wife were five children, William, John, Jack and Joe (4 ???) all living in the neighborhood. His first wife died about 1899. On Jan. 5, 1902, he married his second wife, Miss Susanna Nissila, to this union was born five boys: Walter, Eino, Lauri, Alfred and Charles, and two girls: Tyyne (Mrs. Joel Hemmila) and Ina (Mrs. Edward Soyring) all living at the present time in the neighborhood.

Receives his mail at East Lake, Minn. Route 1, box 66.

SPICOLA, Mr. Anthony
East Lake, Minnespta.

AITKIN COUNTY

Italian merchant and post master. Son of Frank Spicola, pioneer merchant at Mc Gregor, Minn. Continuous residence in the region since 1891.

FROM GREER LETTER TO OFFICE OF 1-9-41:

Francisco (Frank) Spicola(father of Anthony) was born of Sicilian parents in Sicily in 1851, he married (date unknown) Katalina Ferlita. Two children were born to them - Anthony (Tony) and a girl Angeline (Mrs. C.A. Maddy) Mr. Spicola emmigrated to the U.S. in 1887, worked in different sections of the country at odd jobs for a number of years. In 1891 he reached the site of Mc Gregor Station along with Pasquale Memmola, purchased the Henry Lozway store and engaged in the general merchandise business for a number of years. Mrs. Spicola died at Mc Gregor in 1923, and Mr. Spicola followed her in death in 1925. Burried in the Mc Gregor cemetery. Mr.'Frank' Spicola always took an active part in civic affairs, was the first village treasurer, which post he held for a number of years. A shrewd business man, a devoted Catholic, and a devoted father."Speegles" store at Mc Gregor became known far and wide.

Anthony (Tony) Spicola came to Mc Gregor with his parents in 1891 and remembers all the many hardships and privations undergone by the early settlers, although he was but seven years of age. Among other settlers arriving in Md Gregor at the time his father came, he (Tony) although only seven years of age at the time remembers the following: Raffle DiGregory, SalvadoreTrifilett, Mike Jordan, 'The Jeannett's' and others. Tony was among the first pupils attending Mc Gregor's school. He walked the three miles to Grayling along the tracks to the school.

Report of 4-15-41

He clearly remembers the Indian scare, of 1898, and states that his father and a numbe number of other pioneers barricaded themselves in his father's store and set up all night, pouring lead bullets, in preperation for the impending attack. Aside from working in his fathers store, he was his fathers sole bookkeeper and secretary, he also did all of the book work in connection with his father's duties as village treasurer. In the 90's he remembers of buying hundreds of pounds of butter from the settlers at 8¢ per pound, in trade. Anthony Spicola maintains a wild rice finishing plant in connection with his store at East Lake, Minn., and is considered one of the big Wild Rice buyers in this region. He commenced buying Wild Rice from the Indians in 1912, for choice grades he paid as high as 12¢ per pound at that time.In 1934 he constructed a rice finishing plant at East Lake and began purchasing unfinished rice.

Description & Name Origin So called in 1820 by Schoolcraft, and on Nicollet's map, 1843. The Savanna Rivers, West and East, retain these names as given by early French voyageurs; but this word, nearly equivalent to prairie, was originally of American origin. It was a Carib word, and was introduced into European languages by Spanish writers near the middle of the 16th century.

Description & Name Origin

A prominent hill of morainic drift, the culminating point of a very knolly and broken tract of the same moraine extending into the adjoining sections, to which locality, and especially to its highest part, the Ojibways applied the name Pikwadina (or Piquadinaw), "it is hilly." Hence came the common name "Poquodenaw mountain," used by the lumbermen and given to this hill on the map of Aitkin County in the Minnesota Geological Survey

Name Origin & Remarks: Named for the long narrow lakes, often shaped like a horseshoe or ox-bow, which lie in abandoned parts of the old channels of the Mississippi, occurring frequently in this and other townships. For these lakes of the alluvial land adjoining the river the name "logans" has been in common use in Aitkin county during the fifty years or more since the region was first invaded by lumbermen.
