-----O-----

George Gomoll appeared in Court and requested that he be permitted to enter a plea of guilty to the charge of larceny in the first degree as charged against him in the information filed by the County Attorney of Carver county, Minnesota. He was duly sworn and examined as to his ability and qualifications to procure counsel to aid him in his defence, and, it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the said defendant was without money and means with which to procure counsel, it is therefore ordered that W. C. Odell, Esq., be, and he hereby is, appointed attorney for the said defendant.

The defendant and his attorney now retired for consultation ~~and~~ ^{and} ~~will~~ ^{will} court; when the following proceedings were had:

By the Court:

Q Your true name is what?

A George Gomoll.

Q What? A George Gomoll.

Q And you are nineteen years of age?

A Yes, sir.

Q You were born in the State of Minnesota?

A Yes, sir.

Q At Lakeville?

A Yes, sir.

Q Where your parents now reside?

A Yes, sir.

Q You are not a married man, to be sure, you are not old enough?

A No, sir.

Q Now, have you any trade or occupation?

A No, sir.

Q You haven't; what has been your occupation since you left home?

A Been threshing.

Q Working out?

A Yes, sir.

Q Have you ever been convicted of any crime before?

A Yes, sir.

Q Where?

A In North Dakota.

Q What was that crime?

A I stole a watch.

Q Stole a watch?

A Yes, sir.

Q What punishment was inflicted upon you?

A I was sent to the Reform School until I was twenty one years of age.

Q Did you run away from the Reform School?

A No, sir.

Q Did they let you out?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long were you in the Reform School?

A Two years.

Q You started out pretty early in life to commit crime; did you ever commit any crime before that, been convicted of any?

A I don't know.

Q Well, you have no trade or occupation, as I understand it?

A No, sir.

Q Except laborer, common laborer?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you work on a farm, any?

A Yes, sir.

Q When did you leave home, how old were you when you left home?

A Sixteen years old.

Q Did your father chase you away from home?

A No, sir.

Q You left of your own volition?

A Yes, sir.

Q Why did you leave your father's home, have you any reason?

A No, sir.

Q Did you have any companions out in Dakota?

A No.

Q Or anybody with you up here at Cologne where you committed this crime?

A No, sir.

Q You did that all alone?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long were you living at Cologne before you broke into this--

By Mr. Odell: This was a dwelling house, Your Honor.

Q Anybody living in that dwelling house?

By Mr. Odell: Mr. Molnau's dwelling house out in Chanhassen, a farm house.

Q Was anybody at home when you went in?

A No, sir.

Q You knew they were gone?

A Yes, sir.

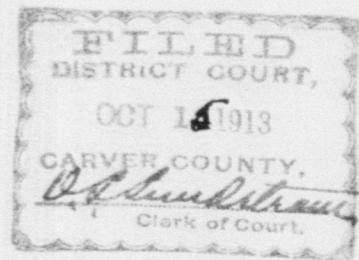

Q Well, you have committed a serious offence, Mr. Gomoll, and I don't know but what it is fortunate for you that you have been apprehended at this time, because if you were permitted, with your disposition, to roam around this country, you might commit crime of a more serious nature, and there is absolutely no sympathy for you or for anybody else that will go and commit such crimes. Of course it is always a said thing for the Court to be called upon to pass sentence upon a boy of such tender years, but it must be done for the protection of society, of people's property and lives, and it is to be hoped that the punishment imposed upon you will serve as a warning to others so that they may be deterred from committing like offences. Have you anything to say now why sentence should not be pronounced upon you? Have you anything to say, Mr. Odell?

By Mr. Odell: I have nothing to say, Your Honor.

By the Court: Well, now, I don't know whether the Reformatory is a proper place for this boy on account of his having been convicted before; it seems to be his natural disposition to steal. I don't think I will take any chances on you.

It is adjudged and determined that George Gomoll is guilty of the crime of grand larceny in the first degree, as preferred against him in the information filed against him by the County Attorney of Carver county, and to which offence he has entered a plea of guilty, ~~it is~~ and as a punishment for such offence the said George Gomoll be committed to and confined in the State's prison at Stillwater, Minnesota, at hard labor, for a period of time to be determined by the Board of Parole, not exceeding, however, the maximum penalty prescribed by the Statute for the commission of such offence. He is now remanded to the custody of the sheriff, who will execute the sentence so imposed upon him.
