The defendant appeared in open Court on this 8th day of March,
A. D. 1908, and with his attorney, W. C. Odell, when the following proceedings were had:

By Mr. Odell: Your Honor, with reference to this little boy the Court may enter a plea of guilty to the indictment, unless the County Attorney is willing to accept a plea of guilty to petit larceny.

By the County Attorney: Of course the charge is grand larceny in the second degree.

By Mr. Odell: Of course the value of the property taken under this indictment was only $3.50, and what raised the offence above petit larceny is that it was taken from a store in the day time, and I should suppose it would be just as well to allow the boy to plead guilty to petit larceny, which is of considerably less grave character than the crime charged.

By Mr. Craven: Of course I understand the results will be the same to a boy of his age.

By Mr. Odell: Of course it wouldn't make any difference save on the record; the record confronting the boy in after years is not of quite so serious a nature.

By the County Attorney: Well, I believe that that is the best way.

By Mr. Odell: Well, the record then will show that the boy, with the consent of the County Attorney enters a plea at this time to the crime of petit larceny as charged in the indictment.

By Mr. Craven: I would by all means oppose sending up this boy to a penal institution such as Stillwater or St. Cloud, but as for what is best for the boy himself I do not know.

By the Court: Where does he stay, Mr. Craven?

By Mr. Craven: I think he is with his mother out here on 80 acres of land.

By the Court: Step up here, Oscar. During my experience while acting in this capacity I never have been so deeply touched as with the picture you present before me. I have listened with a great deal of interest to the remarks of your counsel which have been made in your ~~half~~ and it is in every syllable true and correct. You have reached an age which is the most important, probably, in your history, and whatever acts you do now will probably shape your way thru this world. I have been informed that you have a natural tendency to steal, take property which does not belong to you. Do you know that that is wrong?

A. Yes, sir.

By the Court: Now, my boy, I am just going to give you six months within which to demonstrate to this Court and the people of the community where you live that you are able to live a good, upright, honest life, and if ever this offence is repeated or any other offence contrary to the laws of this State, you need not expect any leniency from this Court, I assure you. Neither the lawyers nor the Court nor the citizens have any disposition to punish you, but they simply want the interests of society protected, which is the duty of every person who intends to lead an upright, honest life.

Now, under the circumstances, Oscar, if you promise to be good, I shall defer sentence until the next term of Court in September, but if, at that time, I hear that you have been guilty of any little offence or crime, I shall be quite severe with you. I shall expect you to report next September at the first day of the term, ^{be} to exonerated of the offence or be sentenced to one of the penal institutions. You promise to be good in the meantime?

A. Yes, sir.

By the Court: Go home and work and lead an honest, upright life, go to Church and go to school, and keep your mind upon acts which have a tendency to the betterment of your people and better your condition in life. Have some object in view, have the object that you are going to be a good, upright citizen and going to be recognized as a good, upright, honest man, a hard worker.

Under such circumstances now, I shall defer the sentence until the first day of the next General Term of Court at Chaska, here, which I think, is the last Monday in September. You will remember, now, and be here at that time.

You understand this matter is not disposed of yet, and you can be sentenced at the next General Term of Court, and you shall unless I am fully satisfied that you have corrected your evil ways. I shall instruct the citizens of your community to watch your conduct. Go home, now.

Oscar Lundberg, ^{gren} Defendant.

The defendant in the above entitled action was on this 6th day of March, A. D. 1907, arraigned on an indictment charging him with the commission of the crime of grand larceny in the second degree, and being duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Court:

Q. How old are you, Oscar? A. 15.

Q. And you live out here on a farm with your mother? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Your father is dead? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have no money or means with which to procure counsel to defend you in this case? A. No, sir.

Q. And, so far as you know, your mother has not; your mother has no money with which to get an attorney to defend you in this case, so far as you know? A. No, sir.

Q. You work on the farm, do you, with your mother? A. Yes, sir.

By the Court: Make an order, Mr. Clerk, appointing W. C. Odell to defend this defendant. Now, you are under no bond, and you will be required to give a bond for $200 for your appearance here in Court, in default of which you will be remanded to the custody of the sheriff; and you are entitled to twenty four hours in which to plead to the indictment. Mr. Odell will have the right to visit you while you are in the custody of the sheriff. You will remain in the custody of the sheriff until the bond is executed.

John Haaskens being first duly sworn says that he is the defendant in the above entitled action; that he has fully and fairly stated the case and the facts in the case to his counsel, W. C. Odell an Attorney of this Court residing in the City of Chaska in said County and State, and is informed by his said counsel, after such statement so made as aforesaid, and verily believes that he has a good and substantial defense to said action upon the merits. That affiant is further informed by his said counsel, after such statement so made as aforesaid, that certain persons with whom affiant had a transaction respecting the property of which he is charged by the indictment in this case with larceny are necessary and material witnesses for this affiant upon the trial of said action and that affiant cannot safely proceed to the trial of said action without the presence and testimony of said persons; that affiant is unable to give to his said counsel the names of the persons with whom he had such transactions or to inform his said counsel as to the identity of such persons in order to enable his said counsel to procure their attendance at the trial of this case; that at the time of said transaction the same was had at Midway in the County of Hennepin and affiant believes that the persons with whom such transaction was had were the members of the firm of Barrett & Zimmerman or persons in the employ of said firm and that the attendance of such persons can be procured if the trial of this action be continued until the next general term of this court.

Further affiant saith not except that he makes this affidavit in good faith

W. C. That affiant was not retained in this case until since the bringing in of the indictment and never had an opportunity of talking with said defendant in relation to said case until the morning of this day; that affiant is now and will be for several days engaged in the trial of civil jury cases and for that reason it would be impossible for him to go to Midway and ascertain as to the identity of the persons whom said defendant will need as witnesses upon the trial of this case and procure their attendance at the present term of court and affiant says that he believes a continuance of this case to be necessary to the ends of justice.

Further affiant saith not except he makes this affidavit in good faith and for the purpose of procuring a continuance of the trial of said action to enable defendant to properly prepare for such trial.

In the matter of the Petition of Leonard Grates, to detach certain lands from the city of Chaska, Carver Co. Minnesota.

The above entitled matter came on for hearing before the court at the Court Room in the Court House, in the city of Chaska, in said county, on the 28th. day of September 1908, upon the Petition and proof of service thereof, and the proof of the publication ~~thereof~~ of the notice and petition as provided by Chap. 221 of the Laws of 1907, of the state of Minnesota, The Petitioner appeared in person and by his attorney H.J. Peck, there being no appearance on the part of the city of Chaska, or otherwise, and after hearing the proof on the part of the petitioner, I find the following facts;

First- That the city of Chaska is a municipal corporation, containing less than ten thousand inhabitants, organized under Chap. 20 of the Special Laws of 1891, in the county of Carver Minnesota,

Second- That the Petitioner Leonard Grates, is the owner and for twenty years has been the owner of the following described land in said city and county, to wit: The south east quarter of the south west quarter of Section five, also, commencing at the quarter section post between sections five and eight, running thence northerly on the center line of section five, about sixty five rods to the land of Andrew Riedele, thence east about three rods to the west line of the Chaska and Waconia road thence along the west line of said road, south easterly to land of George Titel, about sixty rods, thence westerly along his land about seven rods, thence south easterly about 22 rods to the section line, between section 5 and 8, thence along said section line west about 45 rods more or less to place of beginning, situate in the south east quarter of section 5, and containing 12 acres of land more or less, all of aforesaid described land being in Township 113 north of Range 23 west, and containing 52 acres of land, and during all of said time in the possession thereof.

Third- That said premises are agricultural lands and have never been platted and are and always have been used for agricultural purposes and are only suitable for that purpose. That they are located nearly one mile from the business portion of said city, in a ravine and upon a high hill, and has no community of interest with said city government.

Fourth- That said premises has no adaptability to city purposes, and receives none of the benefits of city government.

Conclusions of law.

As conclusions of law I find that the said petitioner is entitled to have said premises detached from said city and attached to and become a part of the township of Chaska, and it is so ordered. Let judgment be entered accordingly.
