A. L. McCauley being first duly sworn deposes and says that she is the Plaintiff in the foregoing entitled action.

That on the ^{fourth} ~~fifth~~ day of March A.D. 1913 ^{and ever since that day} she was the owner of and entitled to the possession of the following described property, to wit: one cow, one calf, twenty four chickens and one extension dining table.

That on ^{or about} the day aforesaid the above named Defendant Bernard Walter - wrongfully took said property from the possession of said Plaintiff and now wrongfully and illegally detains the same.

That the said Plaintiff is entitled to the immediate possession of said property.

That the said Plaintiff has demanded said property from the said Defendant.

That the value of the said property is the sum of fifty six dollars.

That the said property was not taken ^{from the Plaintiff} by any process legally and properly issued against her.

And that the same is exempt from seizure upon any process.

State of Minnesota
Dist Court 8th Dist } Cass County.
Peter Campbell }
- vs. } Complaint
S. S. Clarke }

The Plaintiff for complaint in the above entitled action states and shows to this Court:

That heretofore to wit: on or about the 16th day of October 1872, in the City of Minneapolis, Minnesota, on the offer of said defendant and at his special instance and request, the said Plaintiff did purchase of said defendant one two horse double wagon, for and at the agreed and stipulated price of fifty dollars which sum said Plaintiff paid said defendant for said wagon.

Plaintiff further says that at the time of said sale and purchase and before the completion thereof, the said defendant stated represented and warranted that he was the owner of said wagon, that said Plaintiff believed and relied upon said statements representations and warranty, and in conser-
- ation thereof purchased and paid for said wagon as aforesaid, that at the time of such sale said defendant was not the owner of said property (wagon) but the same was the property of one George Haensel of the County of Wright Minnesota

That afterwards the said George Harnegal commenced an action in a Justice Court in the County of Larver Minnesota before one R. H. McLehland a Justice of the Peace in and for said County for the recovery of the possession of said mays, and the said Justice then and there had jurisdiction of the person and the subject matter of said action. That this Plaintiff gave said defendant due notice of the commencement of said action and requested him to appear and defend the same. That the said defendant neglected and refused to appear and defend said action. That afterwards in the due course of law such proceedings were had therein in said Justice Court and in the District Court of said Larver County that on the 8th day of April 1873. the said George Harnegal recovered a judgment against this Plaintiff for the possession of said mays together with ^{and disbursements} eighty four dollars, and fifty cents costs ($84.50) in said District Court.

That before the commencement of this action this Plaintiff did demand of said defendant the repayment of the purchase price of said mays together with the costs and disbursements recovered by said judgment
