Deceased.

• • • • •

C. D. Edwards, as and for his statement and claim against the above named estate of Minnie Sahler, deceased, states and alleges:

I.

That on the 5th day of September, 1907, the said ~~W~~ Minnie Sahler, deceased, Emil Sahler and Christian Sahler, made, executed and delivered to the said claimant C. D. Edwards, their joint and several promissory note in writing, dated upon that day, wherein and whereby, for value received, they did promise to pay to the order of the said C.D. Edwards, three months after date the sum of Four Hundred Ninety Three and 95/100 Dollars ($493.95), with interest thereon from the date thereof at the rate of eight per cent per annum until fully paid.

II.

That said note was lost after the maturity thereof, and cannot now be found; and that at the time it was lost it had not been indorsed, sold, transferred, or delivered for consideration, to any other person by this claimant, but was at that time and always has been and still is the property of this claimant, and he has never in any manner disposed of his interest therein, or any part of his interest therein, and is still the owner thereof.

III.

That though duly and often demanded no part of said note has ever been paid; and that there is now due and unpaid thereon as principal and interest the sum of $713.93.

Wherefore, claimant asks judgment against the above named estate, and the allowance of this his claim against said estate, in the sum of $713.93.
