Emma ~~Vera~~ being first duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 19th day of September 1907, I was living at home with my parents, Minnie Sahler and Emil Sahler in Woodville Township, Waseca County and State of Minnesota.

That on or about the 19th day of September 1907, at the request of and instructions from my father Emil Sahler, I signed my mother's name Minnie Sahler to two certain promissory notes to C. D. Edwards of Albert Lea, Minnesota one for Five Hundred and Eighty Eight and no/100 ($588.00) Dollars and the other for Four Hundred and Ninety Three and 95/100 ($493.95) Dollars.

That the name of Minnie Sahler to these two notes in question is a forgery and was signed by me as per the instructions of my father unbeknown to my mother, Minnie Sahler and not as per her instructions and advise.

STATE OF MINNESOTA
COUNTY OF WASECA

IN PROBATE COURT

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF MINNIE SAHLER, DECEASED.

Now comes E. W. Mann, a judgment creditor of Emil Sahler, husband of said deceased, and appearing in the above entitled matter pursuant to the notice of hearing given therein, hereby objects to the allowance to probate of the instrument propounded as and for the last will and testament of said Minnie Sahler, late of Woodville township, in the County of Waseca and State of Minnesota, and contests the same and alleges as grounds for his objections and contest:

1. That the said instrument was not duly executed by the said Minnie Sahler as her last will and testament in the manner provided by law.
2. That said instrument was not signed at the end thereof by the said Minnie Sahler, deceased,
3. That the said instrument was not signed at the end thereof by any person in the presence of said Minnie Sahler, deceased.
4. That the said instrument was not attested and subscribed in the presence of said Minnie Sahler, deceased, by two Competent witnesses.
5. That at the time of the execution of said instrument, the said Minnie Sahler, deceased, was not of sound mind.
6. That at the time of the execution of said instrument, said Minnie Sahler, deceased, had not sufficient mental capacity to make a will.
7. That the execution of said instrument was procured by undue influence exercised over and upon the said Minnie Sahler, deceased, by the beneficiaries named in said instrument and the devisees and legatees and each of them therein named.
8. That the said Emil W. Mann, as and for a further ground and cause for contest of said will alleges and shows to the Court,

(1). That all of the real estate in said will mentioned and described and which it is sought to convey thereby belongs to and is the property of Emil Sahler and that prior to the death of said Minnie Sahler, deceased, and during the year 1905, the said Emil Sahler then and up till the time of her death, the husband of said Minnie Sahler conveyed without any consideration by means, conveyances, the premises described and real property mentioned in said will to the said Minnie Sahler for the purpose of and with intent to defeat the creditors of said Emil Sahler and in fraud of the rights of such creditors, and that said conveyances were procured from said Emil Sahler, husband as aforesaid, with such intent by means of undue influence exercised over him by the said Minnie Sahler and others benefited thereby and that in truth and in fact the said Minnie Sahler is not the owner of the property mentioned in said will and thereby sought to be conveyed, but in fact, the trustee thereof for the benefit of the creditors of said Emil Sahler, and has no title to said real estate or right to convey the same.

(b). That prior to the 6th day of March, 1906, the said Emil Sahler was indebted to this contestant and objector in the sum of twelve hundred sixty-three and 70/100 dollars ($1263.70) and that all said indebtedness was incurred prior to said conveyance to said Minnie Sahler and that thereafter and on the 5th day of February, 1910, a judgment in the sum of fourteen hundred twenty and 90/100 dollars ($1420.90) was duly rendered in the District Court in and for the County of Waseca and State of Minnesota, and thereafter an execution issued out of said Court upon the first day of June, 1910, to the sheriff of said Waseca County in June, such as is usually issued out of said District Court in money judgment entered therein and that said sheriff has returned said execution into Court wholly unsatisfied and said judgment and indebtedness to this contestant and objector E. W. Mann remains wholly unpaid and unsatisfied.

WHEREFORE, and by reason hereof, the undersigned objects to the allowance of said instrument as the last will and testament of said Minnie Sawyer, deceased, and contests the same on the foregoing grounds.
