

Civilian Conservation Corps Camp 712, Grand Marais

Copyright Notice:

This material may be protected by copyright law (U.S. Code, Title 17). Researchers are liable for any infringement. For more information, visit www.mnhs.org/copyright.

ALBUM
35

Civilian Conservation Corps
Camp 712, Grand Marais
1940

Album 35

Donor: Richard Loida
W. St. Paul 1965

Army & Forestry Personnel
 Gunflint Camp Jan 1940

Back Row Left to Right.

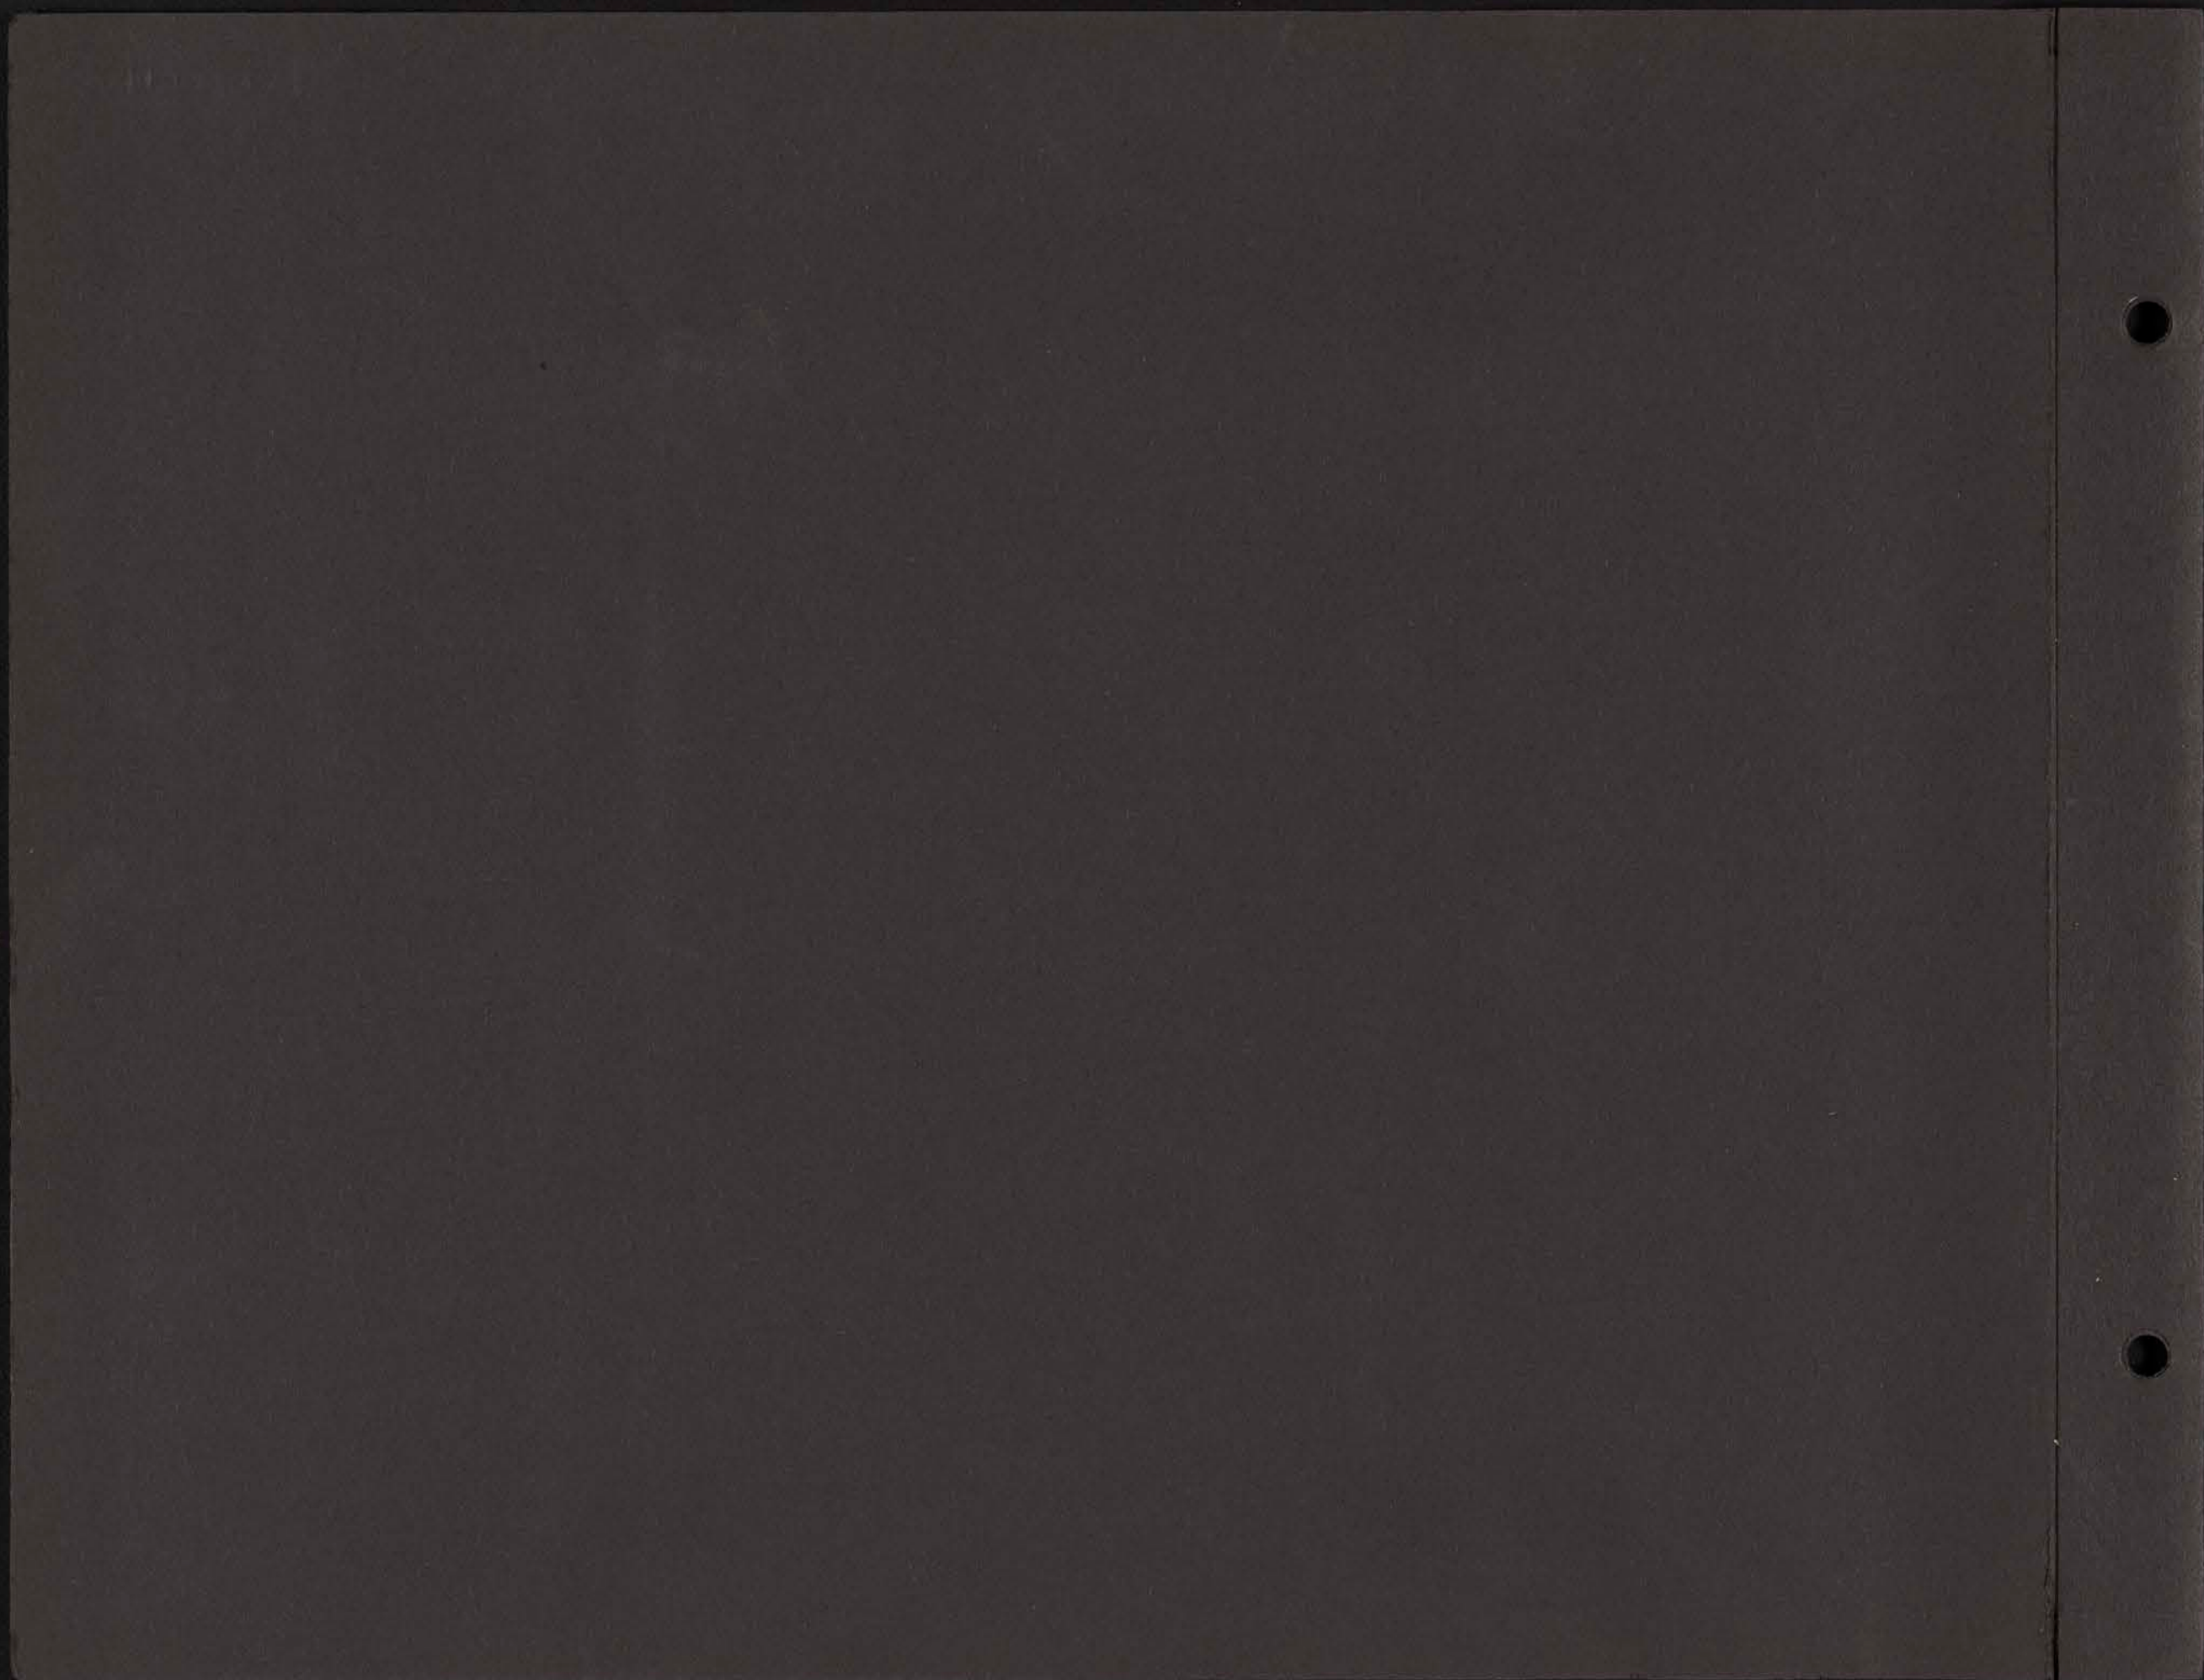

Dr. Kempel, Lt. Souley,

Choirman Casperson, Trufje Strand

Ray Johnson

Captain Springer Supt. Reiko

Robbie Robinson

A Long Island
lake storm in which everyone
got very wet including myself. This picture was taken right
the storm
Taken June 1st 1940

Stormy Waters

Gary Saulen, Abe Abrahamson and myself after getting very wet on Long Island Lake

Art Moien on George Lake
Karl Lake Portage 6-2-40

Sunset on Paplar Lake
8-20-39

Paul Taktin portaging our canoe from Choakee Lake to Town Lake Old portage was right where he's holding the canoe

Breaking camp on Long Island Lake 6-5-40

Pull up your feet fellow and look your best.
you're going to have your picture taken

Nice looking little chap. And his first one of the little Marvels a person sees along the canoe routes.

A mother & father-seagull's shutter precariously over their youngsters as we approached.

Wild life & Civilization
met
On Cross Lake several miles in by canoe routes from the nearest road.

This is a scene near the spot where the famous Cherokee fire started in trapping such scenes as above.

Small waterway which parallels the passage between Cross and Rib Lakes

Nice Brook trout fishing spots. If you can take it. Especially if the brush slaps your face a few times and the vermin gets thick

U.S. Highway No 61
where it crosses the Temperance River.

Southwestern entrance into CCC Co 712.

Out of the foothills, and here were the Temperance enters into Lake Superior

*Saveable Temperance River
Scenes*

*Some of the many very beautiful scenes
on the Temperance
River. This River
crosses Highway 61
The latter which leads to Port Arthur, Ont.
Canada*

Spike Suenieder as he looked when he took the time to dress in his C.A.

Ed Severi and his chum. Mike Shivers
Boys

Yes friends his name was and is Jack Armstrong

May 16th & 1 foot of snow

Dr Rempel & the front of Bassack's two

Ray Johnson the key tractor mechanic

Spide Lienenieder
on Morgan Lake

Art Mauer on George Lake Postage

M. Vogt's examining the outlet on a Beaver Dam.

St. Saulen trying fishing on Chesapeake Lake

Another Temiscan
River Scene

Paul Fahren & St. Soulen getting ready for a night's fishing on Cheval Lake

Old Glory waving freely over the office of the U.S. Army C.C. Co 712

Nick Stacks & Carl Chamberlain with Nick CCC "Dolly"

Alvin Miller on the abandoned railroad tracks

Ken "Tiger" Nelson heading the crew on the tracks

U.S. Forest Service Tower
Lima Mountain. Highest point in Minn.

1.

1. Capt. Springer and Paul Becker with their bevy of dogs

2. Lt. Saulen with his dog which passed away a few weeks latter

2.

1.

1. Spike Sienieder in the Forest Service Carpenter Shop.

2. Aux two Black boys in camp alias bridge players alias monopoly players alias hellraisers Bessette and Pessault and swell friends also 2.

1.

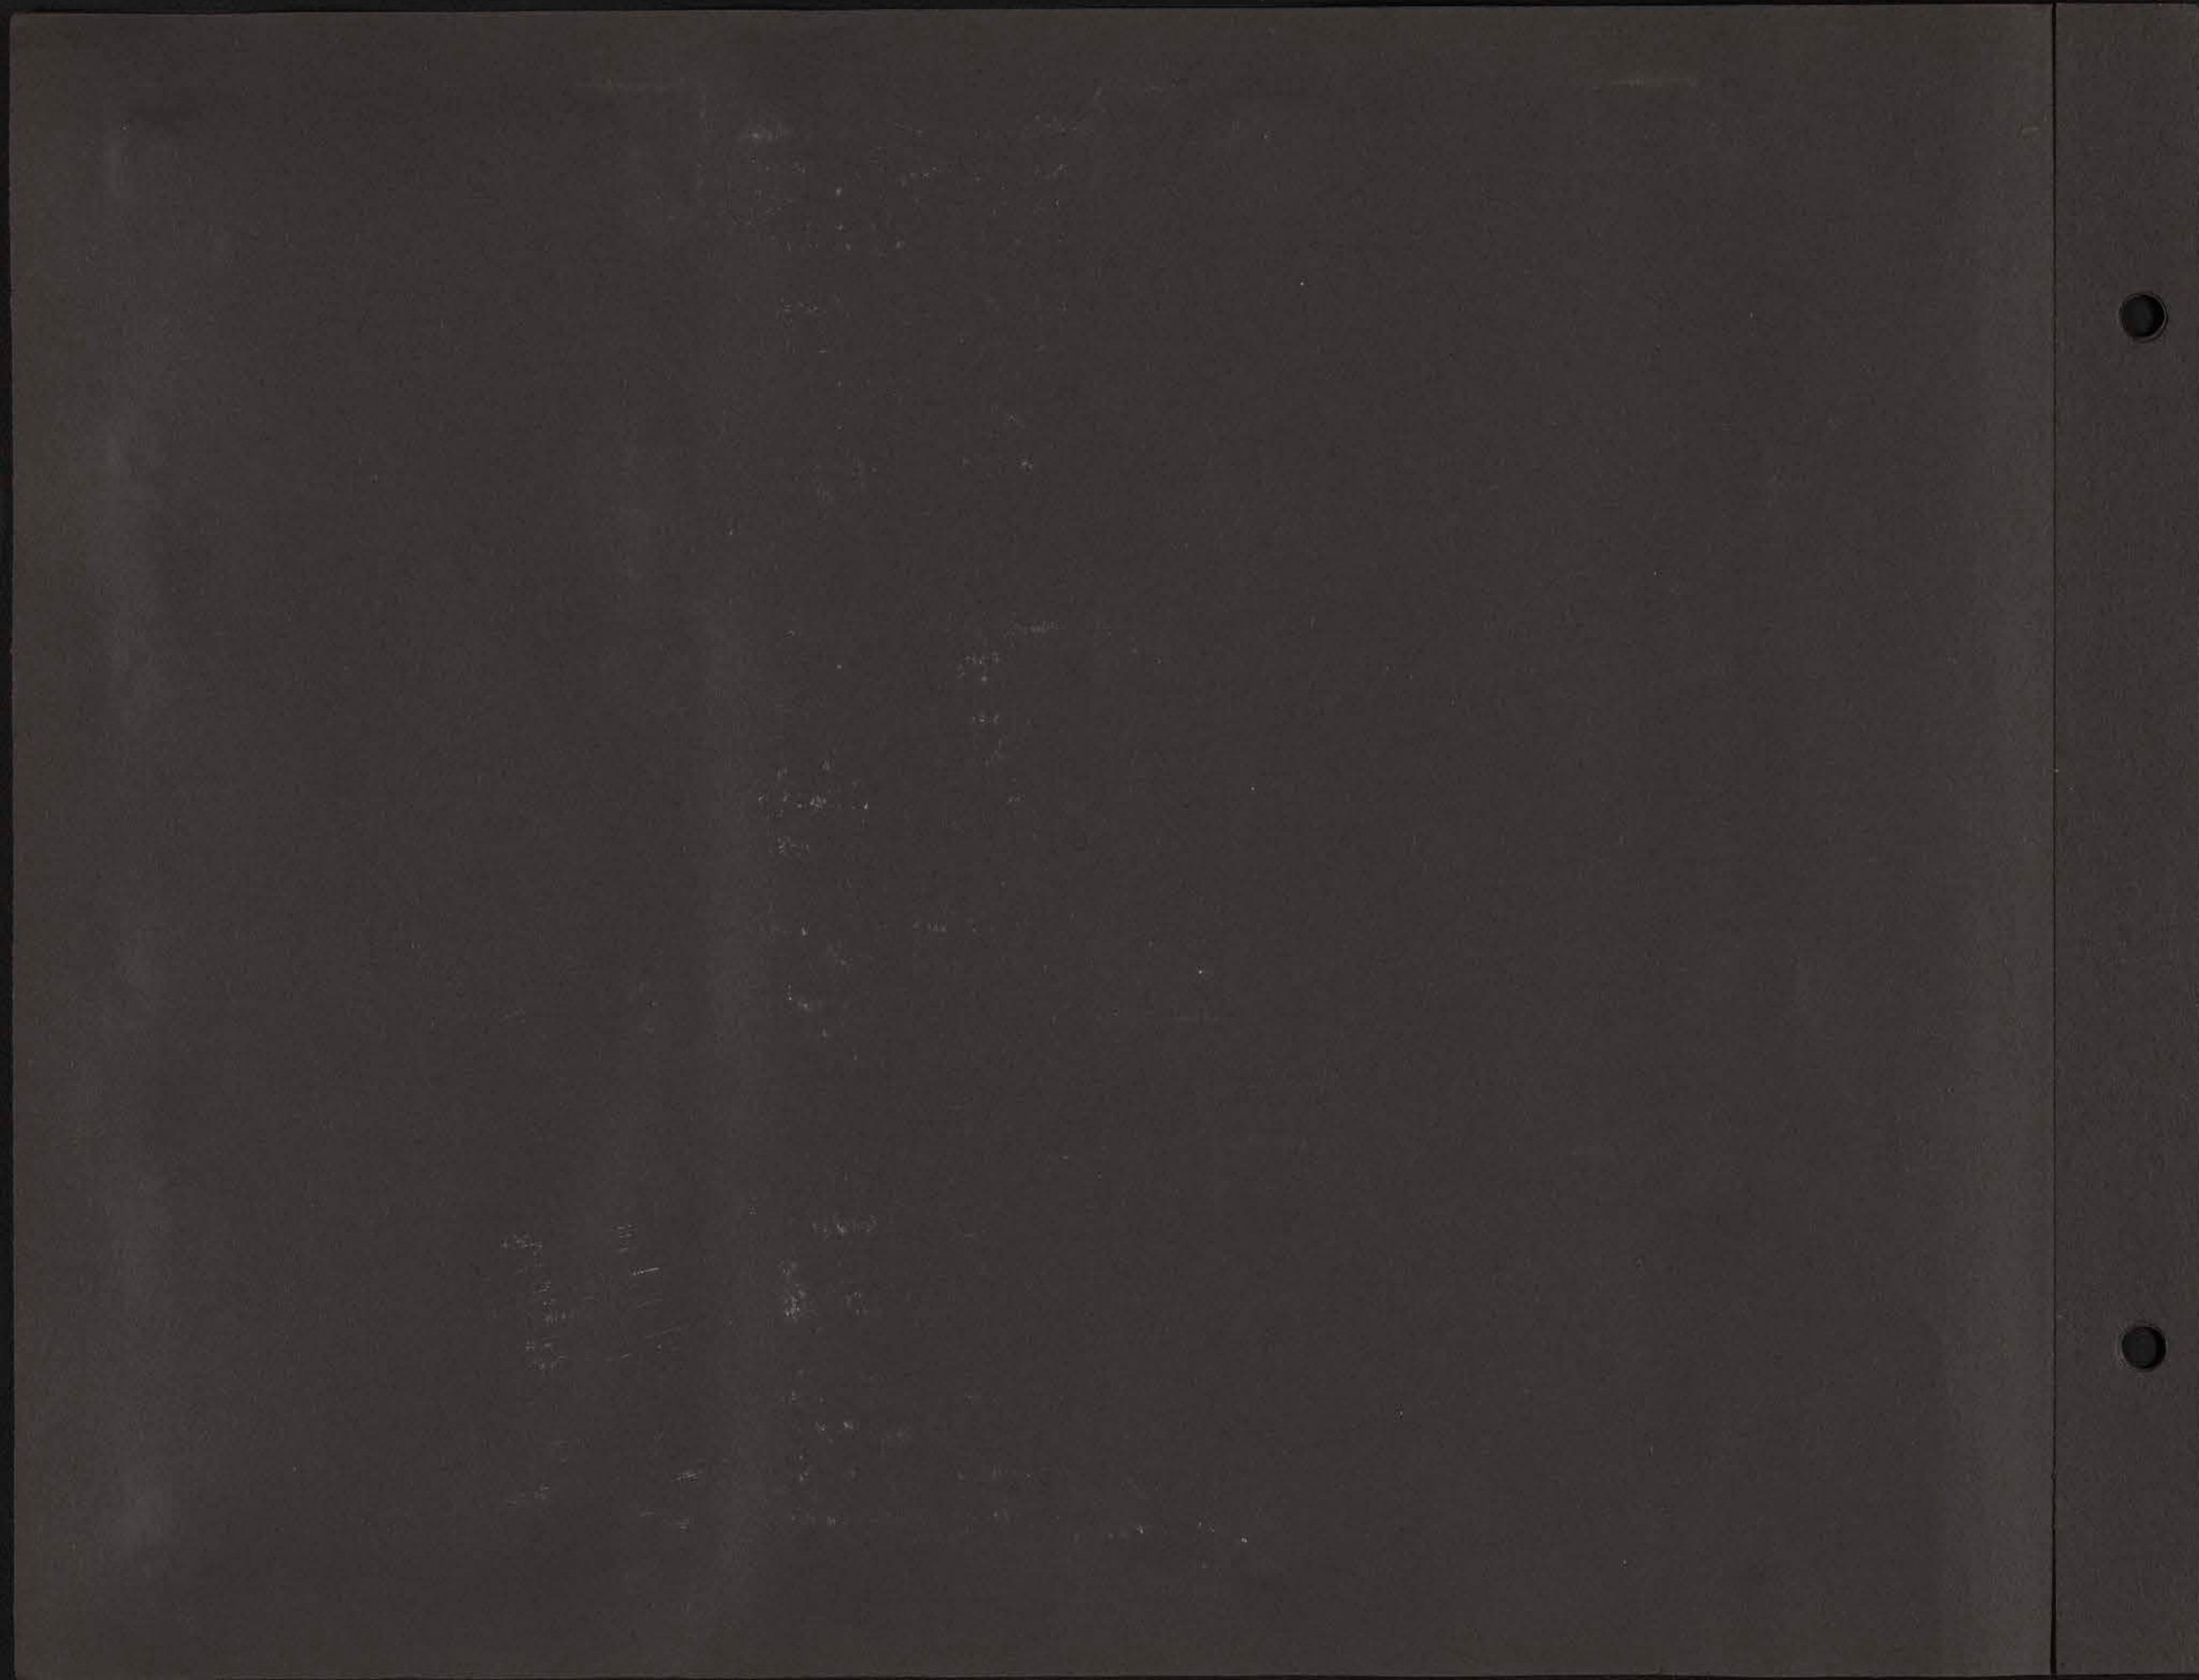

1. Virgil and Herman the two pet cats of Barracks Two Joe Smith is outside of the window apparently looking for cast of cigarette butts similar

2. Another scene on in Gods Country on the Thompsons River

2.

1 The end of Lake Survey Crew and the final stage of the trip June 40 2 A few of the boys and a forest service stock
truck on a nice
tree planting job

A job that the boys cheerfully looked to such as Partially broken
backs twisted joints a hot blistering sun
and all the vermin & bugs
in the states

1 A nice looking chain gang
on the ghost railroad CC 712
2 Nick Stacks
on a rush order with his Susie

THE JOURNAL OF
THE ROYAL ANTHROPOLOGICAL INSTITUTE

VOL. 10
PART 1
1900

CONTENTS

THE JOURNAL OF
THE
ROYAL ANTHROPOLOGICAL INSTITUTE

VOL. 10
PART 1
1900

CONTENTS

THE JOURNAL OF
THE
ROYAL ANTHROPOLOGICAL INSTITUTE

VOL. 10
PART 1
1900

CONTENTS

1. Spike Lienenfeld's place at Buffalo Minn.

2. Abandoned homestead north of G. Madsen's note the old split rail fence

1. Paul Rusedahl & Joe Smith in ice 712 kitchen as 1st and 2nd cooks Paul Rusedahl is one of the fellows who gave his life with the Marines in Pearl Harbor Dec 7 1941

2. Forest Service Liberation Crew

1. A. Andersson and his silver singing guitar.

2. Lieut. Soulen, Abrahamson and myself after the storm on Long Island Lake. Abrahamson and myself pulled over in a canoe. Lost my fishing tackle in 60 feet of water. map and log torn Cost $350.00

Just a Vernick water falls along the abandoned railroad. northern Minn.

Hank, Kiddy, Kass
M Vagts & Miss
removing ties on ghost railroad

Myself and Vagts
pet cat of Barracks II

Either you women dont look or else you're getting shocked its only Co 112 out on a swimming party Date - anytime in summer Place - North Blue River

Need any education
School house of CCC Company 712 and movie house

Forest Service work call Don't really an Oscar Lindskog standing in his summer clothes cause snow. It's cold as hell outside

Need Recuperation
Well this is it. Co
Hospital. Surgery
Oh yes anything else headaches hangovers gold-brickers see Dr Remple

Barracks Seven's masters leader Jack Armstrong in left seat with shirt open

E. Maki caught in a spiritual and studio's pail. Wonder what devil ment his thinking up

Ha Ha Caught all you things of Bar. 7 off guard including you Armstrong.

Just a few of the boys working a little extra duty. What have you fellows been up to?

Canyon Walls
on the Temperance River. northern Minn.

Say Nick whose bed are you hauling away now or are you going in for the mail and see Mary Lou or Florence Anderson.

Capt. Springer's dog Pinky Grand old dog also

Going to the Temperance River Ness what you'll have to go there.

Looking southward toward camp. Gotta nice snowfall?

A nice little playmate a giant Black bear Taken
by Frenchy Bessette
at the abandoned site 7 miles south of 712

Looking down from the fire tower toward S.M.

Stepling Hotel in Grand Marais

Nice load of pulp
wood in the bay.

Harbor entrance into Grand Masais

Old Glory
As it waved and always will wave over C.C. Co. 762

U.S. Coast Guard Station
Harbor Entrance
Grand Masais Maine

Abandoned ski slide. Built by CC Co. in 1934 on North Boulder
River.

Lumberman's paradise and a native of God's country
The pine & birch trees

The pine and rock studied shores of Cliff Lake

A narrow strip of virgin Pine left
By Claquet Logging Co.

1. 2. 3.
A few scenes of camp
after a very rugged snow storm. Which blew in from the hills of Canada.

Paul Becker when he served as senior leader enjoying the warm climatic winds which followed the storm. It took lots of shoveling and threatening to clean camp then.

One of the camp's caterpillars which got stuck after the great storm.

Keep shoveling boys or you'll be wading hell and breakfast trying to get and wash your face thru this snow.

Abandoned
Guard Station
on Big Sandstone
Lake

George Barnes on the Shores of Quin
Lake

The view of Canada
taken from the Cliffs
of Rose Lake

Barnes unloading the canoe on Middle Cone Lake postage

Typical scene
of abandoned
trappers shack
This is Bishop's
Cabin on Muel Bay.

Coming in for a landing. I hope Barnes on Winchell
Lake

Chuck and boys hope it doesn't burn then Scott - Winchell Lake

Come join me on my perch - sounds like Scott
all right.

The burn that surrounds South Lake. Kind of Batal whatever match can do.

Bob Scott. And this is where Canada & US
met.

George Barnes taken posing as usual near the border on Rose Lake

Bob Scott and his Conroy as they looked when they went into town & M. of course E.H.

Doc's landing
on Poplar Lake and all set to shave off.

Out for an hour's canoeing on the north Bowls.

Puncan to West-Beaskee Lake
a long postage to bay's

These log steps 87 of them were placed here in the late 1800. So they say - Stairway Postage Box
Lake

1. Scene taken of South Lake from a hilltop
2. Bishop's cabin or Clark's Cabin on North Lake
3. George, Fred, Barnes in the bow of the canoe paddling for real enjoyment

3. on North Lake.
4. Fred Barnes on the porch of Sweethearts Cabin which is located on North Lake & a very delightful place it is C.F.

Picture of the camp workshop before it was remodeled into a movie house
and the workshop
moved into a separate unit building

Northern Light Falls
and one of the best trout streams for brook trout.

Bob Scott on a fallen pine tree
near Rose Lake

Northern Light Falls
with me as poor scenery in the back ground fishing for brook trout.

Chaplen Robinson Protestant minister and senior leader Paul Becker in front of the Army Japs

My Dad Paul Mieimie
after a day of work in abandoned Seagull Camp 43 miles northwest of 712

Ken Nelson Paul Mieimie Hugh Mullen and
the Army Canvay
enroute to Seagull Camp for some dismantling work.

1870

1871

1872

1873

1874

1875

1876

1877

1878

1879

1880

1881

1. Scene of the rocky shore line
of the north shore
of Lake Superior.
The water is mighty cold any time of the summer for bathing or swimming.

2. Bob Shelton
a Askanan fellow enjoying the cold and fragrant breeze
of the North Shore.

4. Ed "Charlie" Moran

Frenchy Bissett Ed Wynne and myself near Tencksbog out hunting during Vesigil Hoagland a sunny Oct. day
Ray Johnson during partridge
Ed Sevi season
waiting patiently for work call to begin singing Ho Hum another day on Pine Mountain during road work

1. Scene of the few hundred cord of wood
2. Scene of many a good meal and bag the company mess hall before the camp was rebuilt

4

2.

4 Corrad Hasstad playing at carpentry again as usual.

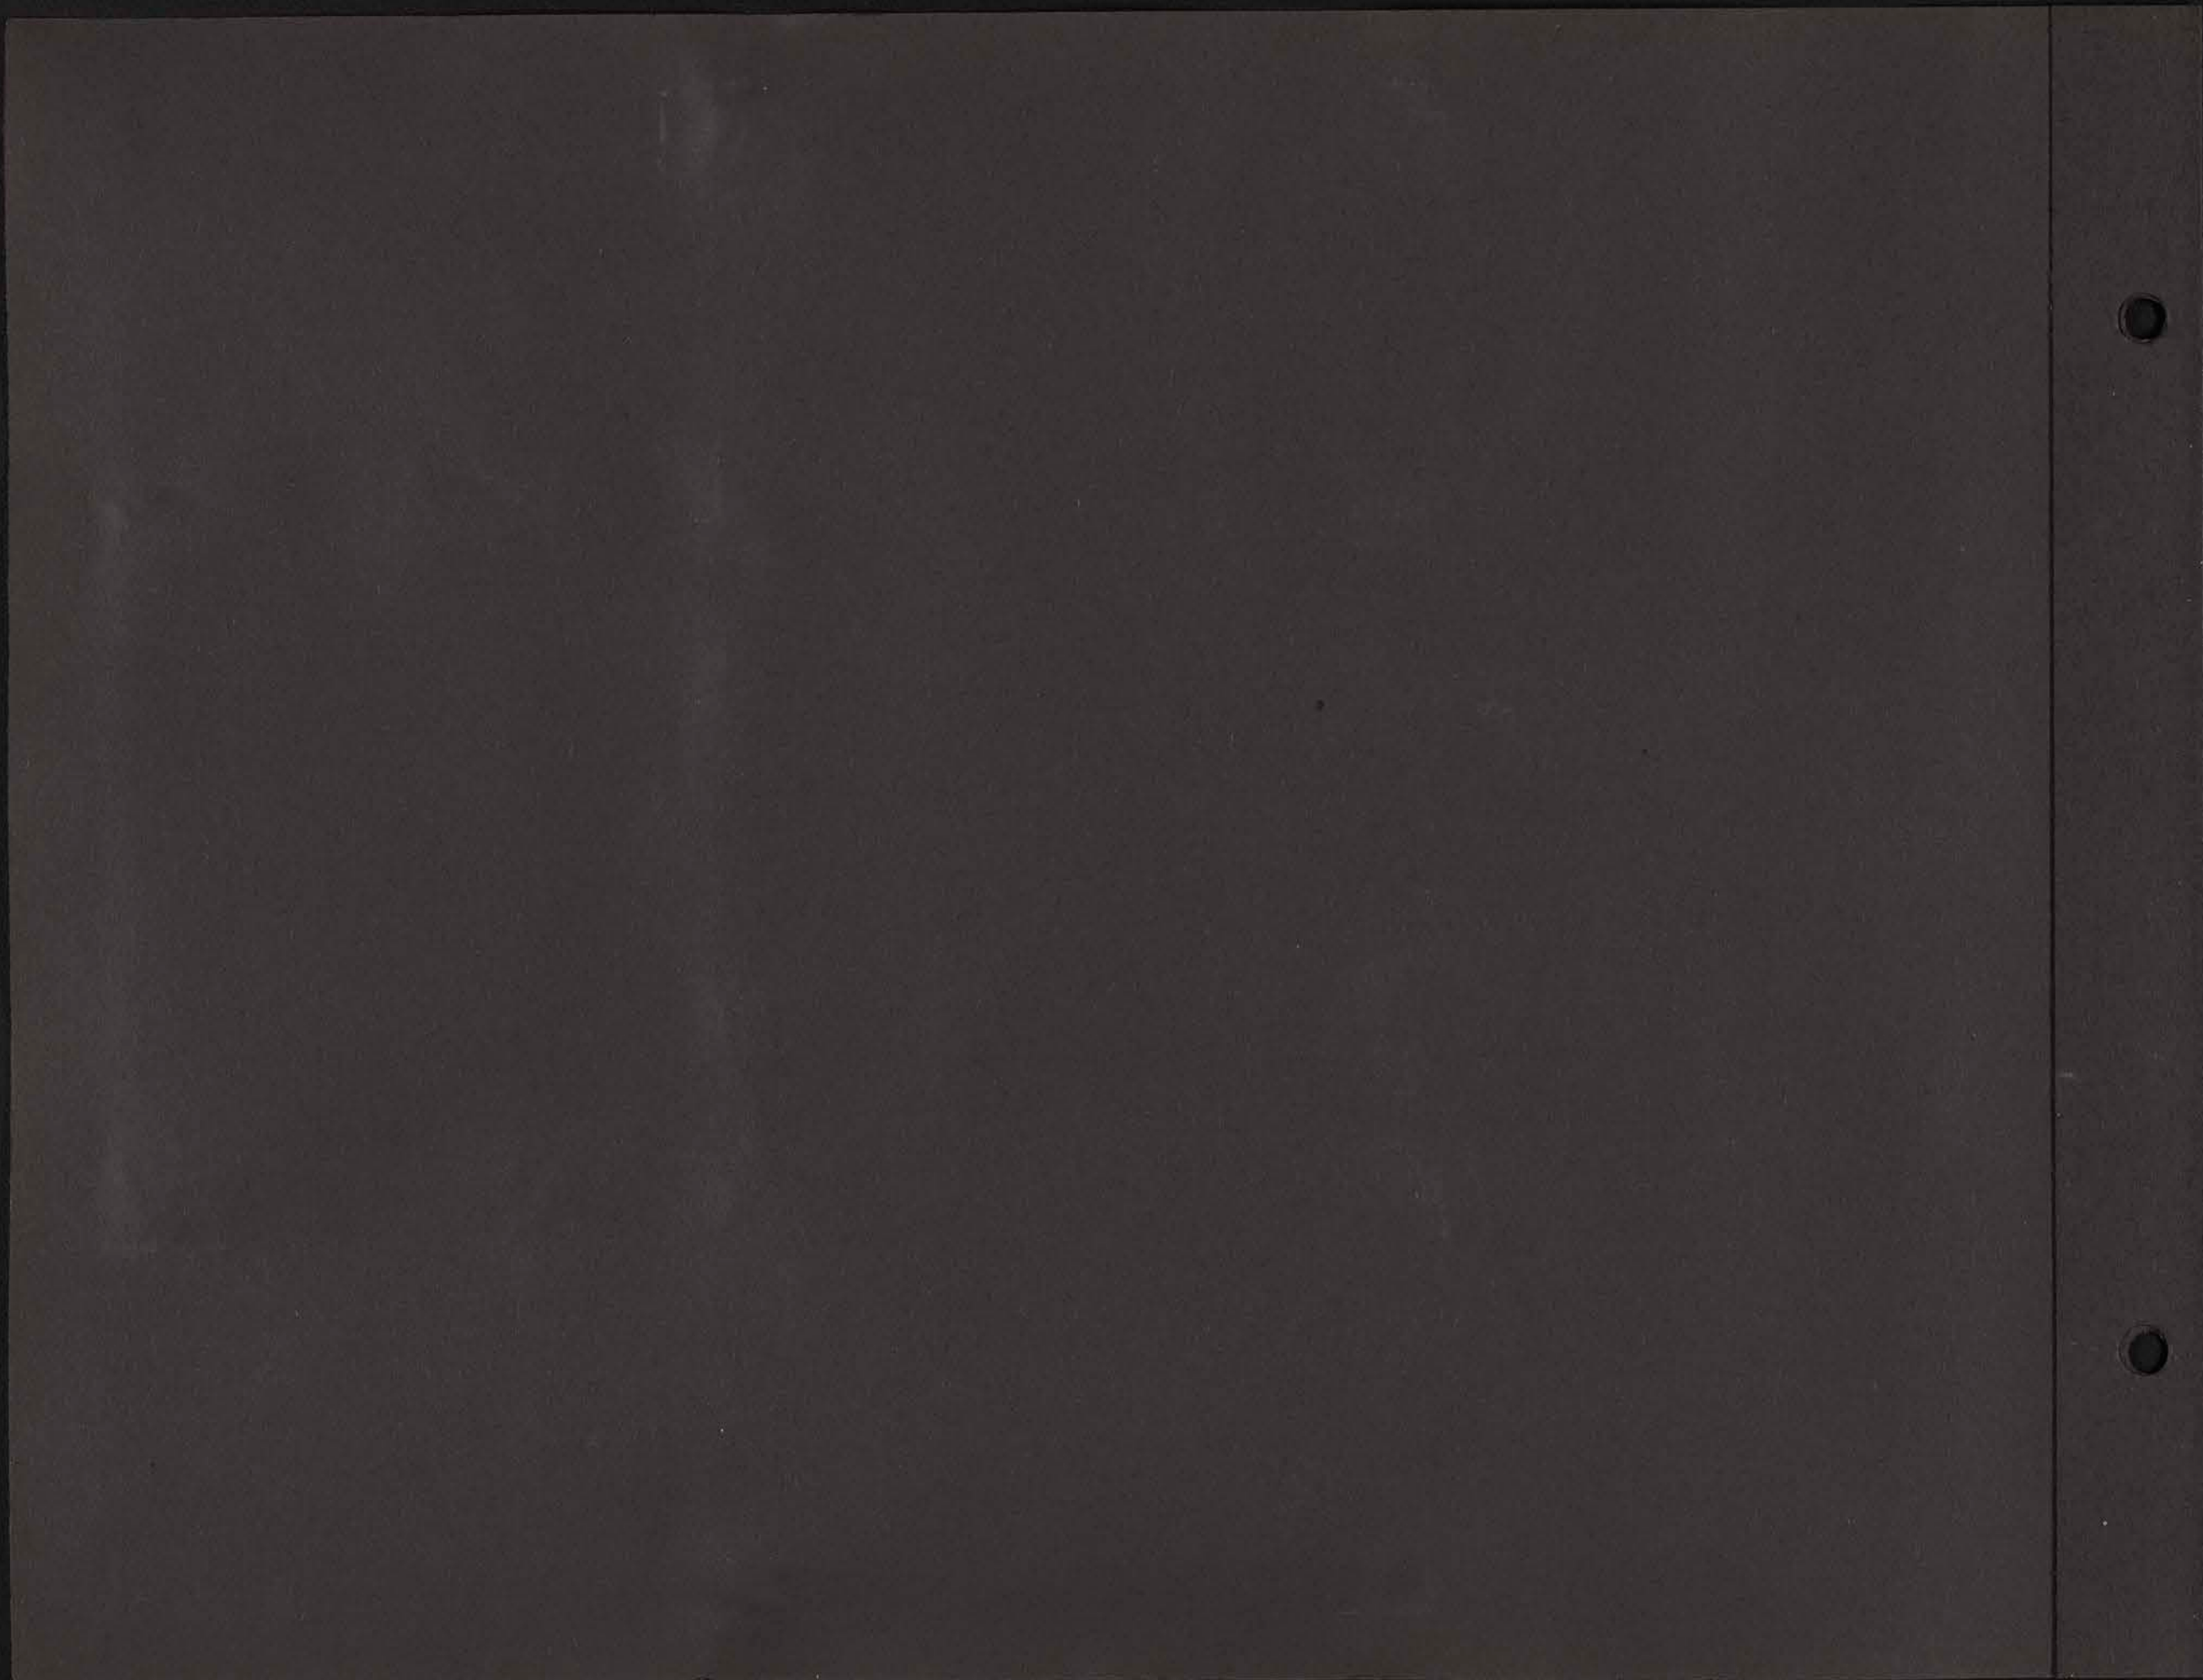

2. Scene of the gunflint trail after a furious blizzard. which is unexpectedly unusual in the North Woods.

3. Mouth Baulc river right after the blizzard kind of pretty. But walking in the woods is kind of wet business.

4. Scene of the Back Company street the boys sure have the snow packed down already.

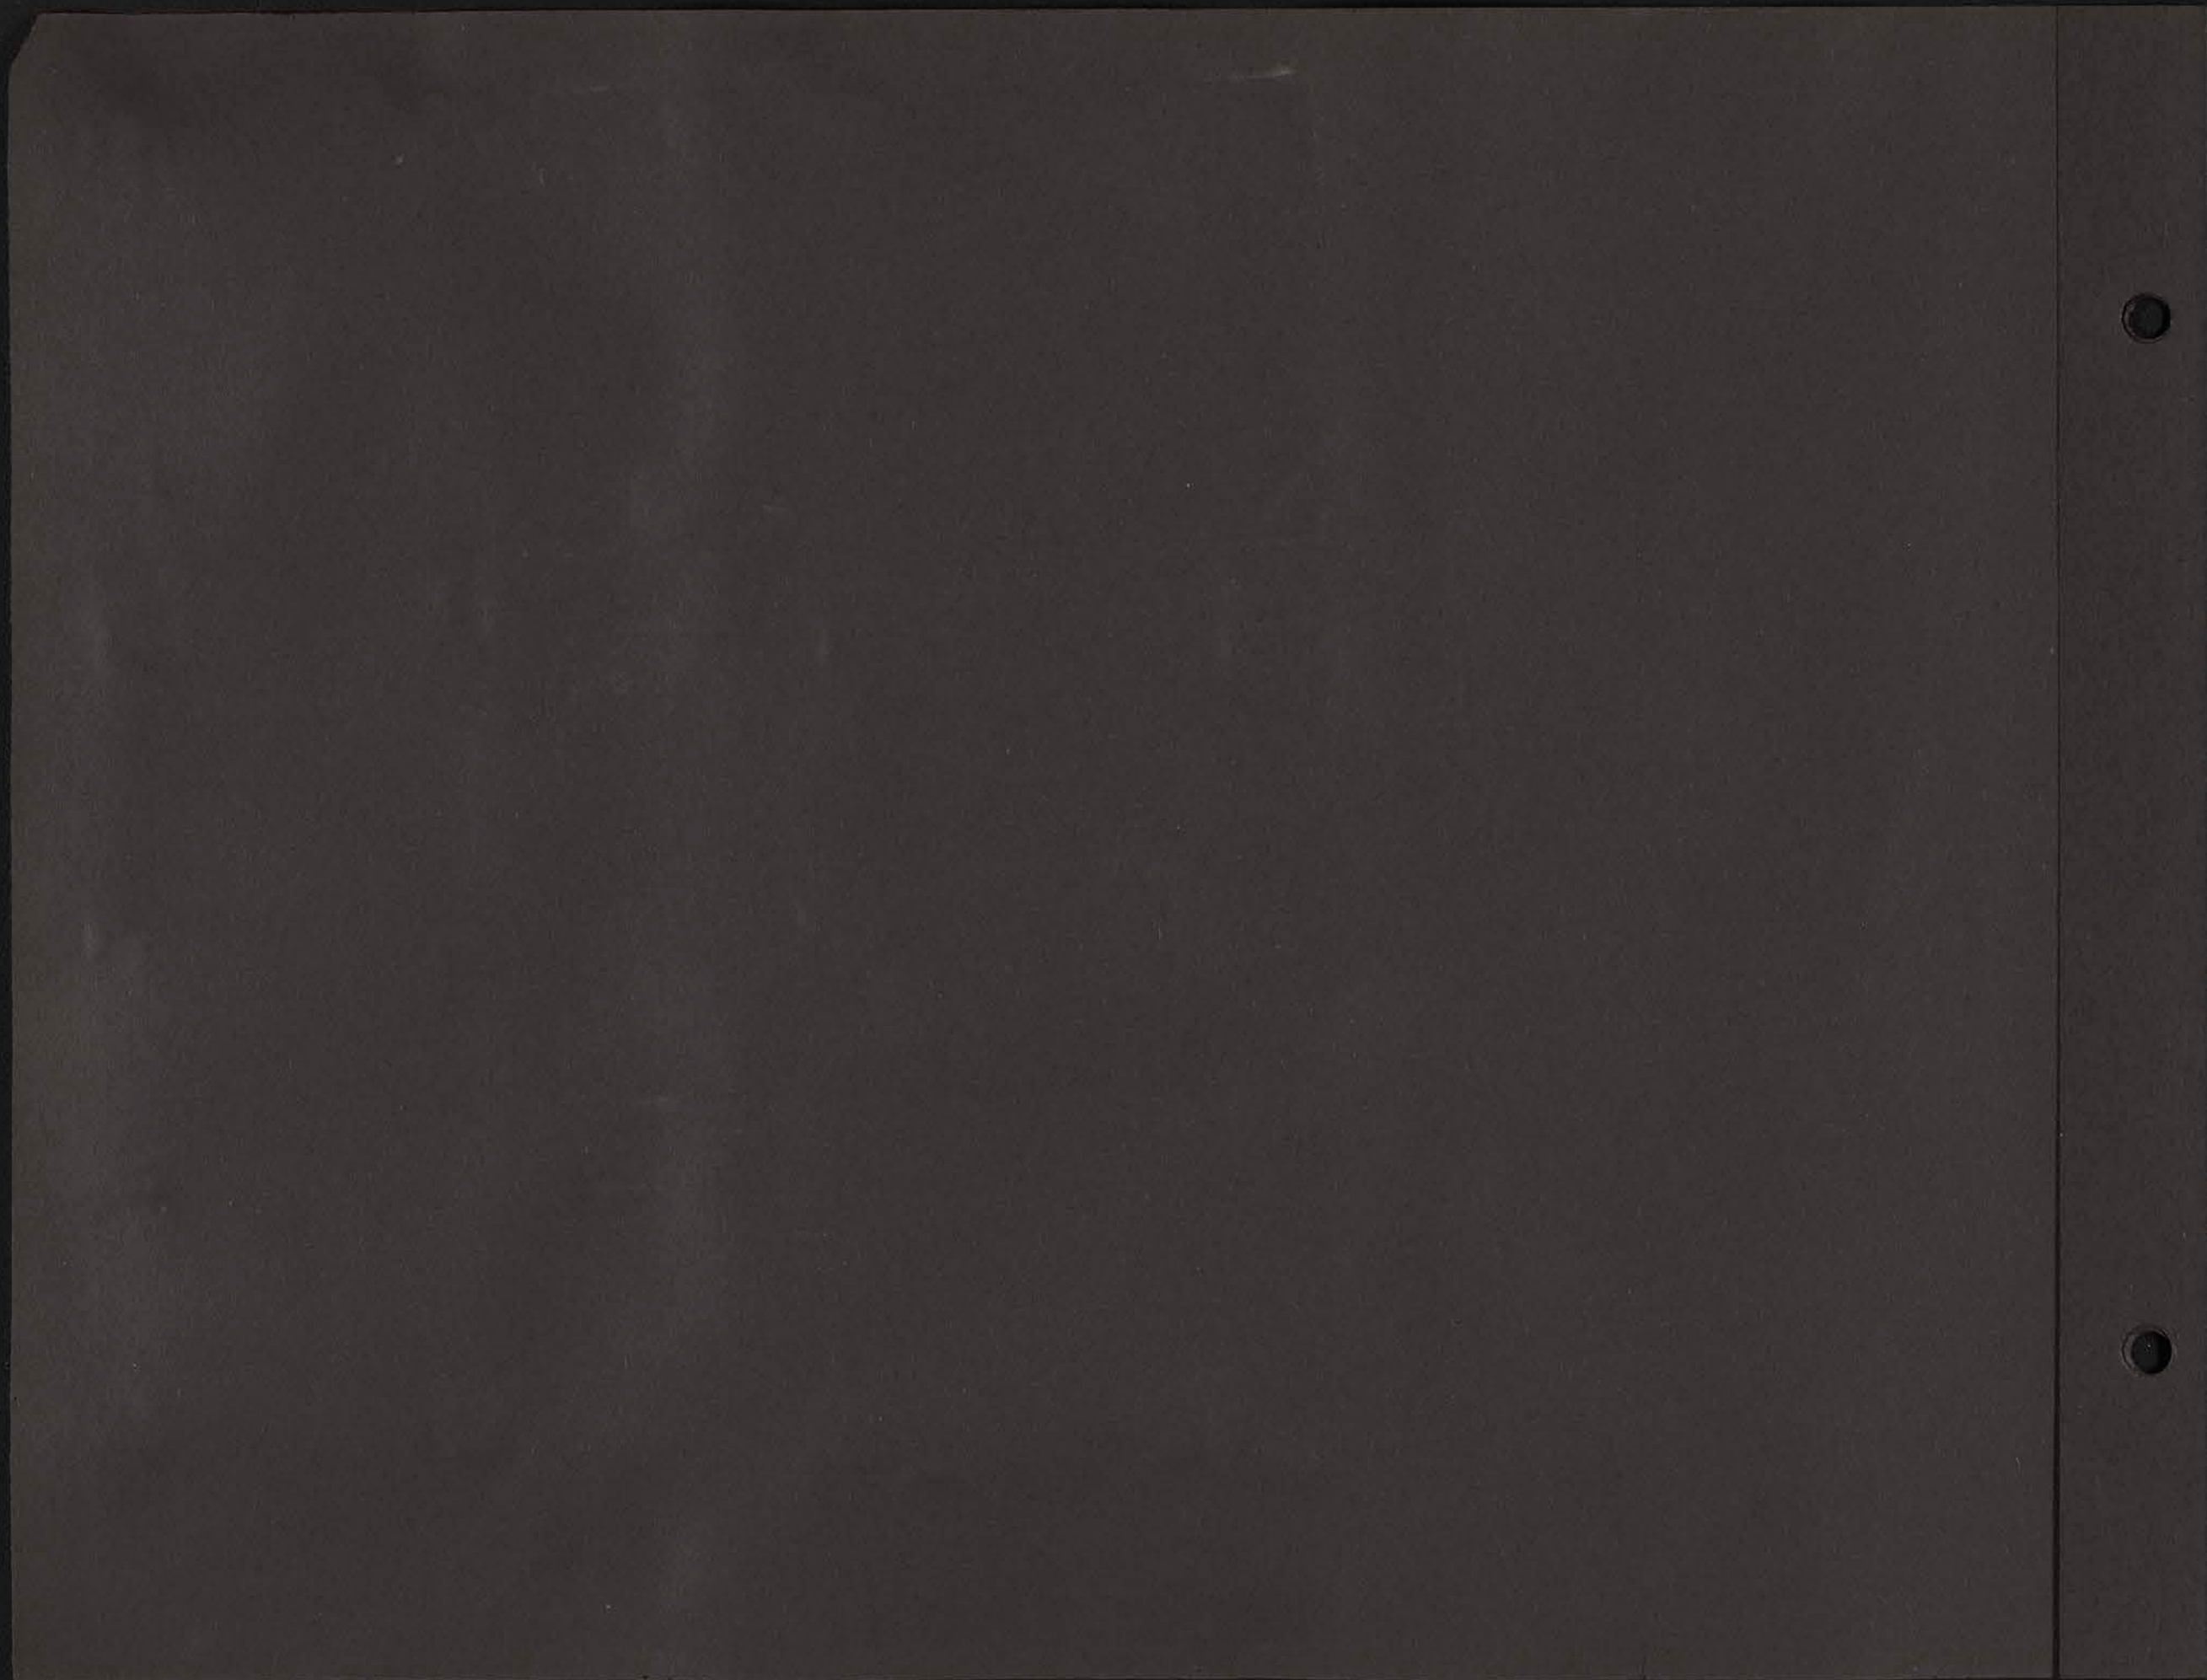

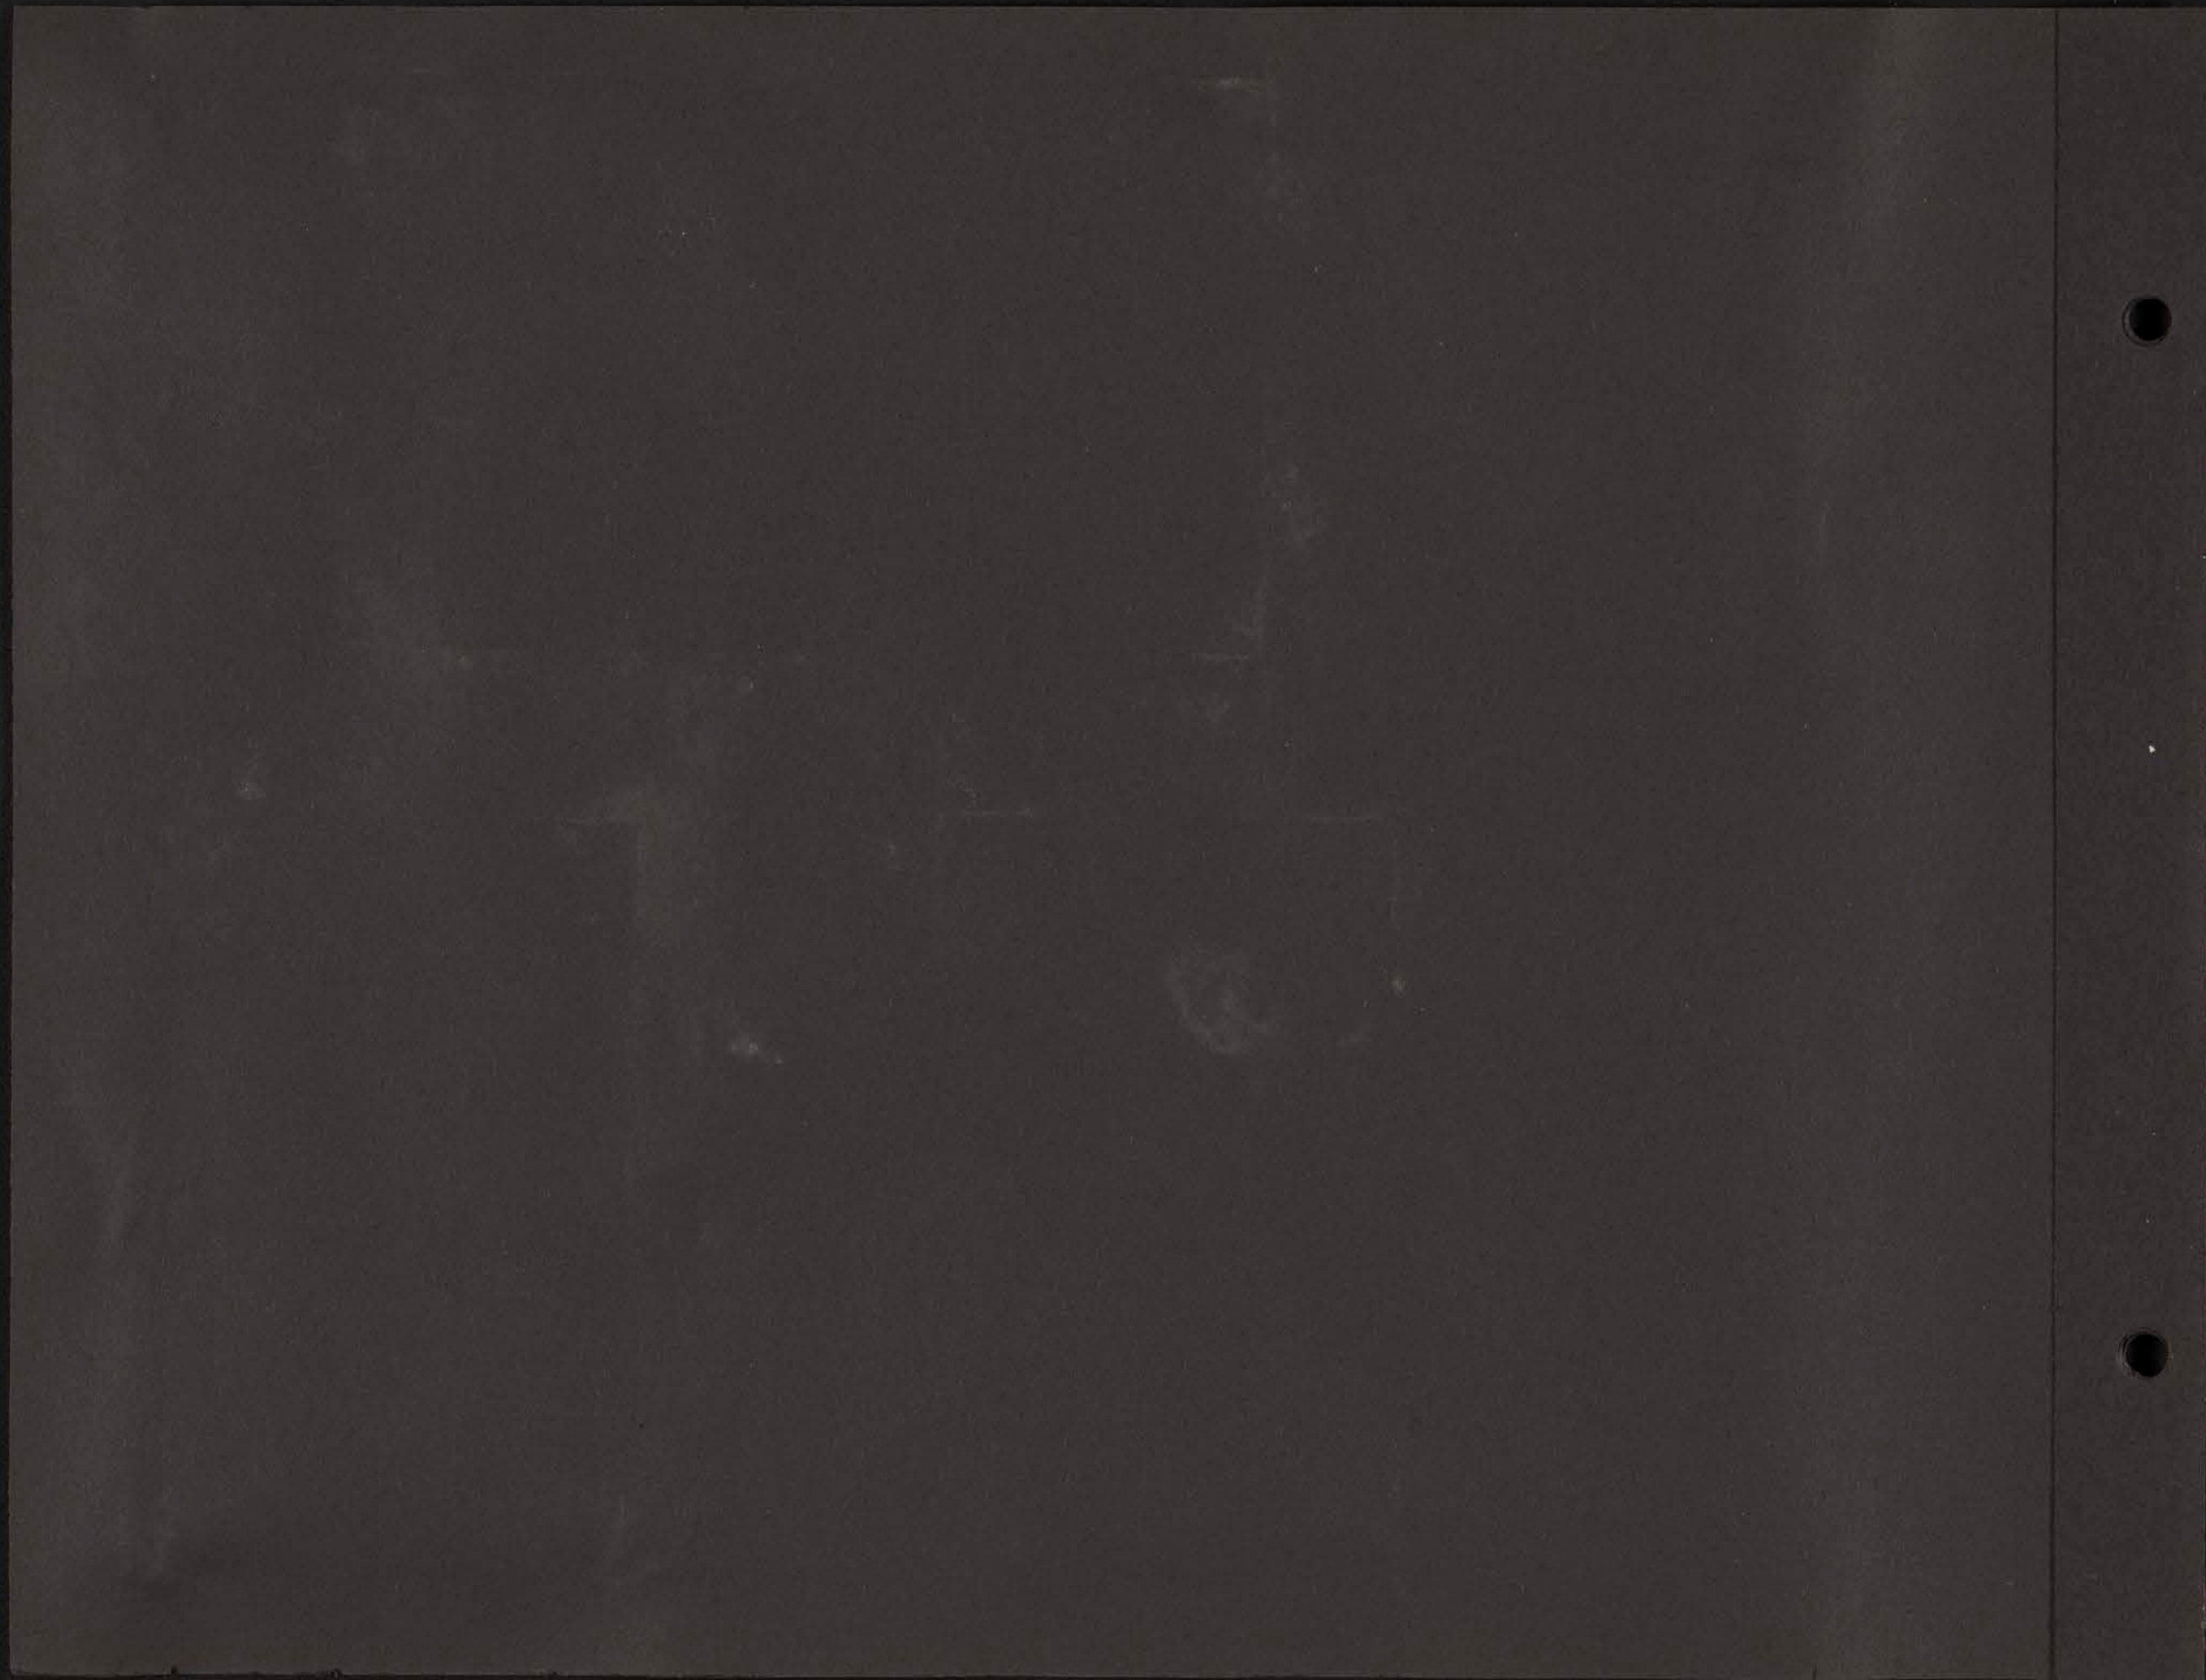

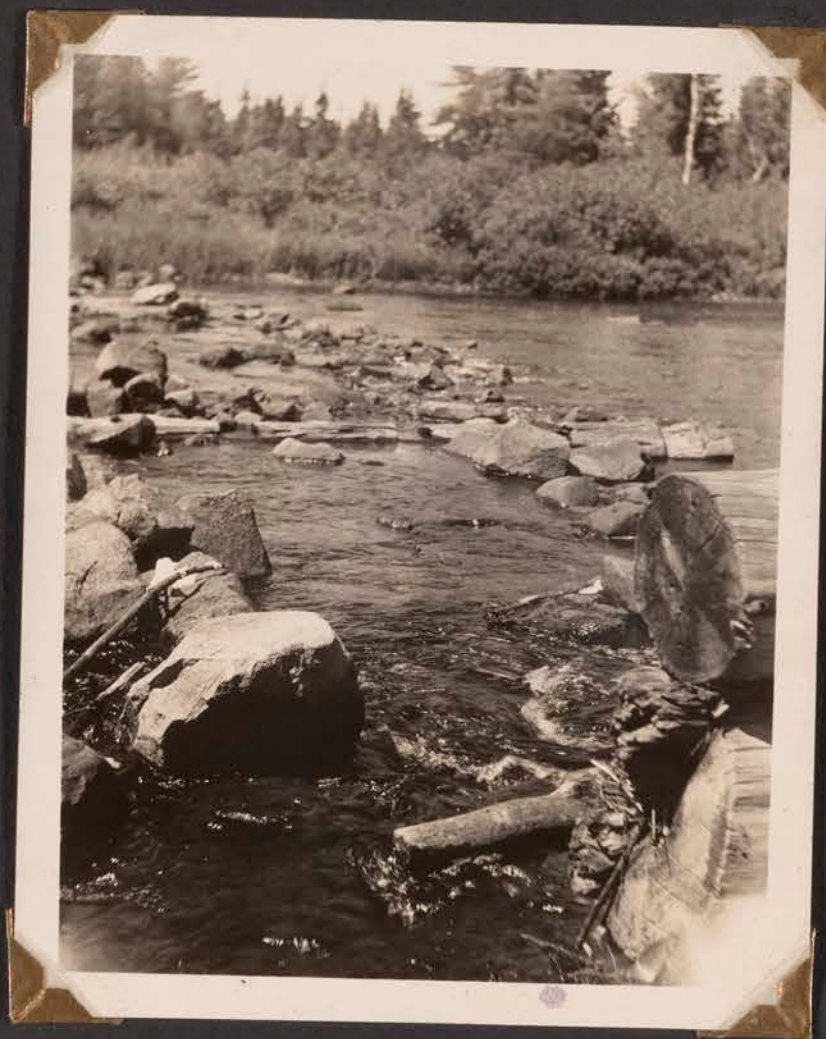

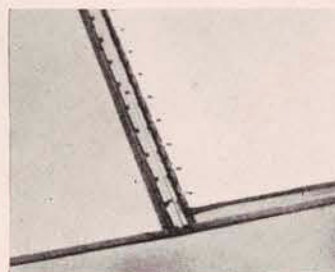

Tally-Ho
TRADE MARK

LOOSE LEAF WITH NO GADGETS—NOTHING TO GET OUT OF ORDER!

Specially formed channels and spring steel rings of wire are available in various sizes and capacities. Pages lie flat.

To open: pull up contents of book and rings open for insertion of additional pages. This is a simple operation.

To close: pull down. Rings slide easily and securely into channel. Contents are locked firmly into place. Pages align perfectly.

MONTGOMERY WARD & Co.

