Symphony of Life

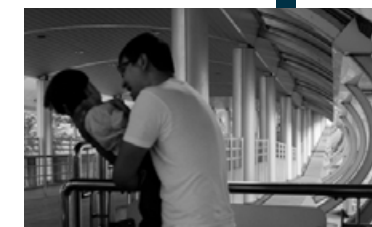

The place where one makes a home is the preference of each unique person. Whether it is to consider superlative design as key, a place of serenity to relax and recharge or a space filled with laughter. Home is the place of love and comfort that always welcomes you with open arms.

Everyone's ultimate quest is to search for a good life, which to each of us plays at a different rhythm. The perfect equilibrium provides a balance to enrich and delight daily, together with the bounty of being at one with nature in your everyday surroundings.

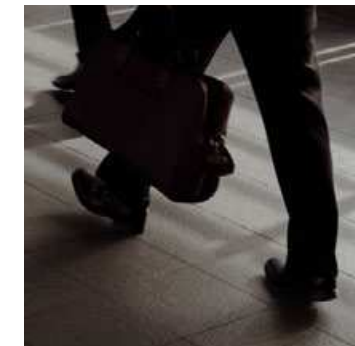

The essence of a true home is a place where you and your loved ones can build a life together and complete the true meaning of happiness. No matter at what stage you are at, a good living space creates the melody of life to fulfil cherished memories with those you hold dearest. It is in how these elements are conducted together to create a harmonious life that a truly great symphony is created.

Welcome to The Lofts Silom, your symphony of life.

STAY BALANCED

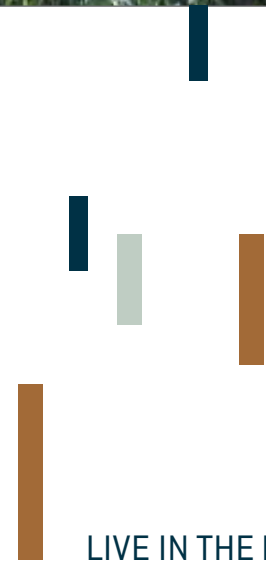

Creating a balanced life is the key to happiness. When you are done with a hard day at work, what better way to reward yourself than making the most out of your private time. Situated on Soi Pramuan in the heart of Silom/Sathorn, The Lofts Silom is only 400 metres away from BTS Surasak Station, ensuring you will be traversing its garden entrance driveway long before anyone else and making the most of your time off at the resident's sky gym or sky lounge looking out on the city view.

Located on over 2 Rai of lush green space, you will feel yourself growing into a life of leisure reminiscent of years gone by. Whether unwinding by the panoramic pool on the 34th floor looking out over the Chao Phraya River, or picking garden-fresh herbs on the 9th floor to create a home cooked meal, every joyful moment can be created inside your home. Sometimes the simplest of life's pleasures is to know how to balance your life and own the happiness that belongs to you and you alone.

LIVE IN THE RHYTHM

A good life for some people is about having a sense of belonging. Countless Bangkok residents remain captivated by the eternal charms of Silom, as the city's first commercial district and the area where the city began to emerge into its prime, complemented by the beloved Chao Phraya River meandering close by. This sense of heritage brings with it a combination of the ancient and modern, as sleepy old shophouses transform into contemporary cafés and bistros, as a delectable array of street food vendors ply their trade much as they have done for over a century.
