Narrative:

On 01-04-17 at about 1218 hrs while working 4525C post, I responded to 408 Weathridge Dr on a civil dispute.

Upon arrival I spoke with Michael J. Rotondo who is the father of [REDACTED]. Michael stated that his son's mother, Angela Gasparini refused to allow him to pick up [REDACTED] today per the family court agreement they have with each other. Michael stated that he was informed by Angela that because he didn't make arrangements with her for pick up yesterday, she was not going to hand over [REDACTED] today. This seemed strange to me so I asked Michael if there was anything else going on or if he has to normally call to make pick up arrangements on the day before. Michael then informed me that nothing else was going on and that he normally just shows up and picks up [REDACTED] without issue.

I then contacted Angela via cell phone. Angela was asked why she didn't hand over [REDACTED] today per the family court agreement. Angela informed me that [REDACTED] is sick and that she has a doctor's note/order for [REDACTED] to stay home so that he can heal up from a respiratory infection that he has. I then asked if she told Michael that [REDACTED] was sick and she said "Yes, he is aware, sometimes he just gets in a mode" and "I sent him a picture of the doctors note as well, he is aware".

I then asked Michael if he was aware that [REDACTED] is sick with a order to stay indoors. Michael then stated "Oh, I thought I told you".

Michael and Angela were both informed of family court for further issues regarding this issue.

Nothing further.
