Armen, in response to your email dated April 3, 2017, regarding the above matter, please be advised that April 10th, April 26th and April 30th will not work for my client. The other days you proposed are fine. My client offers the following days as an alternative: May 4th, May 10th and May 13th. Please advise. Thank you. Dana F. Grillo, Esq.

Dear Attorney Grillo:

I have reviewed your client's vacation notification with my client, Mr. Michael Rotondo. He is not opposed to the vacation; however, he respectfully proposes that he have parenting time on the following days to make up for the time lost over the vacation, from after school until 8:30 p.m. or, in the event that it is not a school day, from 11:00 a.m. until 8:30 p.m.

Please review this proposal with your client and advise as to her position at your earliest opportunity. I look forward to hearing from you.

I did not realize that this vacation of Angela's would prevent myself from seeing [REDACTED] on Easter, I have texted her and asked if there is any way for her to accommodate myself seeing him on Easter while she also goes on this vacation.
