Less Clutter More Life: Designing a Life that Matters

Clutter comes in many forms: physical, digital, emotional, and spiritual. Whether your clutter is piles of paper on your desk, thousands of unread emails, stacks of “to do” lists, years of journals, unfinished projects, or unrealized dreams, the problem is NOT the clutter, it’s making decisions!”

If you’ve bought dozens of books, tried every time management system, spent thousands of dollars on courses and coaching—and still feel disorganized, overwhelmed, unproductive, and unfulfilled, it’s time for transformation!

The good news is that YOU are the architect of your life, and there is a decision-making process—YOUR WAY—to accomplish your work and enjoy your life.

A pioneer in the organizing industry, best-selling author, awarded “100 Women to Know in America,” as seen on Today Show, and Good Morning America, and in Fast Company, USA Today, and Real Simple, Barbara Hemphill will leave your audience filled with hope and equipped for transformation.

In her life-changing session, Less Clutter More Results: Designing Your Life to Matter, you will learn how you can:

- ▶ Wake up in the morning with a clear idea of what you want to accomplish and go to bed warmed by a feeling of accomplishment.
- ▶ Spend less time looking and more time producing results.
- ▶ Turn your mess into a message.

Whether you’re clear about the future God has called you to or are trying to figure out what you want to do when you grow up, this presentation will leave you encouraged and empowered.
