5 AI Secrets to Legally cancelling Debt — No Coaching, No Fees, No Gatekeepers

(Use with ChatGPT, Claude, or any AI trained on legal formatting. Replace placeholders with your info.)

⚡ Forbidden Prompt #1: Dispute Inaccurate Personal Info

Use for: Wrong addresses, employers, aliases.

Prompt:

Act as a consumer legal assistant. Draft a dispute letter under 15 USC §1681a(b) and §1681g requesting deletion of all inaccurate, outdated, or incomplete personal information including [wrong addresses, employers, aliases] from my consumer report. Demand full reinvestigation and correction. Cite the statute and close with my name and contact info.

⚡ Forbidden Prompt #2: Dispute Unverified Collection Account

Use for: Collections that lack validation.

Prompt:

Generate a dispute letter under 15 USC §1681i and §1692g(b) challenging a collection account reported by [collector name]. State that no proof of ownership or contract has been provided. Demand deletion within the 30-day FCRA reinvestigation window. Include citations and consumer rights language.

⚡ Forbidden Prompt #3: Dispute Charge-Off With Missing Contract

Use for: Charge-offs that lack the original agreement.

Prompt:

Write a dispute letter citing 15 USC §1681s-2(b). Request deletion of a charge-off reported by [creditor name] because no original signed contract or assignment documentation was provided. Mention FCRA violations for reporting unverifiable data. Demand mailed response within 30 days.

⚡ Forbidden Prompt #4: Dispute Re-Reported Item

Use for: Accounts that were deleted but came back.

Prompt:

Draft a CFPB complaint citing 15 USC §1681i and §1681b against [consumer reporting agency]. State that they re-reported an account previously deleted. Explain harm, request deletion, and ask CFPB to initiate enforcement. Include case law if available.

⚡ Forbidden Prompt #5: 24-Hour Hard Inquiry Deletion Call Script

Use for: Getting unauthorized hard inquiries removed quickly by phone.

Prompt:

*Act as a consumer legal assistant. Generate a 24-hour call script for me to use when calling a consumer reporting agency to dispute unauthorized hard inquiries. The script should:

1. Begin with identity verification (name, DOB, last 4 of SSN).
 2. Clearly state that the hard inquiries from [insert company name(s)] were not authorized by me.
 3. Cite 15 USC §1681b, explaining that no permissible purpose existed for these inquiries.
 4. Demand immediate deletion of the inquiries from my consumer report.
 5. Request confirmation that a reinvestigation will be completed and a corrected report mailed to me within 30 days.*

How to Use These Prompts

1. Open ChatGPT, Claude, or your AI tool.
2. Copy + paste the prompt.
3. Replace placeholders (company names, your info).

4. Generate your letter, complaint, or call script.
5. Send, file, or use it immediately to enforce your rights.

✅ Pro Tip: Always document your disputes, calls, and responses—you may have grounds for statutory damages.
