

Legion collects items for the deployed

St. Nazianz American Legion Post 477 is collecting items through Oct. 31 to include in care packages to deployed troops.

Donations can be dropped off in collection boxes at Meat's Opera Haus in St. Nazianz, Shadows Bar in School Hill, Real Aesthetics & Wellness, 914 S. Eighth St., Manitowoc, and at the Valders Journal.

A comprehensive list of wished-for items is posted with each collection box. Items included personal hygiene items under 12 ounces, such as baby wipes, lens cleaning spray and cloths, lip balm, hand and foot warmers, eye drops, foot powder, shampoo, lotion, sunscreen, hair ties, razors, toothbrushes, deodorant and more.

Also accepted are snacks, store-purchased and non-perishable, such as gum, hard candy, jerky, nuts, tuna or chicken pouches, granola bars and more.

Appreciated as well are batteries, cotton or wool socks, travel-sized games, 3M strips and hooks, pens, small notepads, puzzle books, travel sewing kits and more.

For questions or to arrange pick-up of items, contact americanlegionpost477@gmail.com or text post commander Kevin Nett at 920-286-3009.

The Valders Journal
Thursday, October 16, 2025