Will the strategies I discover work for me and my business?

All the strategies you’ll discover are transferable from industry to industry, market to market. So everything you’ll discover at the event is applicable to your situation. That’s because every business needs a way to attract more leads, convert them to customers, and get more referrals whether you’re a lawyer, chiropractor, own a flower shop, or are a graphic designer. So, nope, your business is NOT different!

How many people will be at the event

The event will be an intimate gathering of just 50 people.

How is NextLevelBusiness™ LIVE different from other events?

NextLevelBusiness LIVE is different because it doesn’t consist of the usual “seminar performers” who love to talk about strategies they hardly ever use themselves. Every strategy you’ll discover at the event has been tried and tested in Oli’s “testing lab” so you’ll discover strategies that actually work. You’ll also be around people who run real businesses (not newbies who are “just getting started”) so you’ll be able to network

If I buy a ticket and can’t attend can I get a refund?
