Reflection

We might describe the first 500 years of Christian theology as answering one question after another. Each answer seemed to raise new questions.

The way that the creedal statements developed is through a slow process of formation. This happened through heresies that presented errors that were against faith in Christ and the Holy Trinity. The first major heretic that appeared and who influenced Christianity throughout the Roman Empire was Arius. He taught that Jesus is not divine, but a special creature who has authority but who was made at some time. He said that there was a time when Jesus did not exist. The council of Nicaea and then Athanasius afterward, taught that Jesus is the Son of God and divine by saying that he is homoousios with the Father. This means consubstantial or one in substance. The council of Nicaea proclaimed this teaching and developed the creed in the direction of this teaching.

Arianism was not fully removed through the first council at Nicaea, though. There had to be another council later in the century. The council of Constantinople brought forward the teaching about Christ's divinity again, and it also added that the Holy Spirit is equal to the Father and the Son. From these two councils came the Creed that we profess today, called the Nicene-Constantinopolitan creed. The fourth century responded to heresies that were against Jesus' divinity, and other heresies as well, but there were questions about how Jesus is fully God and also fully man. Nestorius taught that Jesus is fully God, but that God couldn't have been born or suffered and died in the way that Jesus did as a man. So, he separated the human and divine in Jesus into two persons. He said that there is an eternal divine person and also a human person that came into being in time. Nestorius taught that Mary is not the Mother of God, but only the Mother of Christ. The council of Ephesus responded to Nestorius and taught that Jesus is truly God and truly man in one person, so Mary is the Mother of God.

The council of Chalcedon also added that Jesus has two complete natures in one person. This was against Eutyches, who taught that Jesus has only one nature. The divinity is greater than the humanity and infinite, so that there is only the divinity in Christ. The council of Chalcedon taught that Jesus is true God and true man, and both natures are existing together.

Giving Tuesday Letter

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I pray this finds you and your loved ones doing well, especially with the coming holiday season.

This year, our parish will participate in #GivingTuesday which will be celebrated from now until the end of the year. #Giving Tuesday is the single largest giving movement in the world which focuses on the ideals of generosity and collective action. During the Thanksgiving holiday, we focus on family gatherings with our loved ones and friends as well as shopping on Black Friday and Cyber Monday. #GivingTuesday is a time when we can focus on helping others including your parish community and the less fortunate in an act of gratitude to the almighty God.

#GivingTuesday is meant to inspire each and every one of us to take action in a way that benefits the community and humanity at large. Together, as a Parish, we are able to do this through our different ministries and programs including retreats, MYA, MYO and other activities. Your funding is critical to ensure we can continue our efforts and your support of #GivingTuesday will be of great help.

As you know, our Church has many extensive programs that assist our children, youth, and young adults through our Religious Education programs, the MYO, and the MYA along with our Family Ministry. We also need your support to keep the Church operating to serve you better. We continue to help with various calls for assistance including charity for the less fortunate in the community and for the Middle East and our beloved homeland of Lebanon. Every donation will count to help us continue our ministry of mercy and our community efforts.

Pray, reflect, and consider making a donation of any size to Saint Naamtallah Hardini Church on #GivingTuesday. Choose a quote that speaks to you.

To donate please visit www.sthardini-seattle.com or call Fr. Tony Sharbet 206-941-1122.

We are sincerely thankful for your consideration of this request and your support of our parish community. We look forward to a successful #GivingTuesday this year.

May our merciful and loving God guide and bless you all the days of your life.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Abouna Tony Sharbel

Jubilee Year Letter

Eparchy of Our Lady of Lebanon of Los Angeles

December 31, 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Greetings and Peace!

His Holiness, Pope Francis, has opened the Jubilee Year on Christmas Eve at St. Peter's Basilica. Since then, all of the dioceses around the world have embarked on a spiritual journey calling the faithful to heed the call of the Holy Father to become "Pilgrims of Hope." The Jubilee Year is a time of grace, mercy, and renewal. It is a time to open wide the doors of our hearts to Christ, to draw closer to him in every way, and to let the Holy Spirit transform us into faithful disciples.

In our Eparchy, to enhance our spiritual journey during this Jubilee year, I am pleased to designate the following Churches as pilgrimage sites:

- Our Lady of Mt. Lebanon-St. Peter Cathedral in Los Angeles, CA
- St. Raymond Cathedral in St. Louis, MO
- The Basilica and National Shrine of Our Lady of Lebanon in North Jackson, OH
- St. Maron Church in Detroit, MI, the first Maronite Cathedral in the U.S.
- St. Maron Church in Minneapolis, MN, the oldest Church in our Eparchy
- St. George Church in San Antonio, TX, celebrating its 100-year anniversary in 2025
- St. Sharbel Church in Portland, OR, the first Church dedicated to St. Sharbel in our Eparchy

To live the Holy Year fully and fruitfully, the faithful are encouraged to embrace the following:

1. Prayer: Personal and communal, frequent participation in the Holy Eucharist, and Mystery of Reconciliation
2. Pilgrimage and Indulgences: Visit a pilgrimage site, meet the requirements for plenary indulgence (<https://press.vatican.va/content/salastampa/en/bollettino/pubblico/2024/05/13/240513f.html>) and prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father.
3. Acts of Charity and Mercy: Practice other corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

In preparation for this Jubilee Year, I encourage each of you to take part in the events and activities scheduled throughout our communities. Let us gather in prayer, reflection, and service as we journey together in faith.

I want you to mark your calendars for the following days and follow us on the different social media outlets:

- January 5: Opening of the Jubilee Year from our Cathedral in Los Angeles (Divine Liturgy at 11:00 a.m. PST).
- January 7: Talk about the Jubilee Year from St. Jude Church in West Covina at 7:00 p.m. PST.
- March 28: The Holy Father has asked us to offer "24 Hours for the Lord" in Eucharistic Adoration.

More events will be announced during the year either at the local or Eparchial levels.

With sincere best wishes and prayers, I remain

Yours in Christ,

+A. Elias Zaidan
