CROISSANT DE JAMÓN Y QUESO

A collage of Japanese food items. In the top right, there are several gyoza (dumplings) with visible grill marks. In the top left, there are pieces of tempura, including what looks like a shrimp and a vegetable. In the center, a white ceramic bowl contains a white, creamy substance, possibly a dipping sauce or a type of dumpling, garnished with green onions and a red powder. In the bottom half, a white plate features a large, flat, light-colored item, possibly a rice cake or a piece of tempura, topped with a drizzle of yellow oil, black sesame seeds, and a red powder. The text "BOTANAS INCLUIDAS" is overlaid in the center in a white, serif font, flanked by two horizontal white lines.
