Jesus Calls His First Disciples

Welcome to St. Paul Lutheran Church!

ST. PAUL is a liturgical, confessional congregation of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. For 150 years, Christ's holy Word has been preached and his blessed Sacraments have been administered here. If this is your first time worshipping with us, welcome. We are delighted to have you join us. Please sign the guest registry in the narthex and introduce yourself to one of the pastors today. They would be happy to speak with you.

Holy Communion.

WE CONFESS the bodily presence of Jesus Christ in, with, and under the bread and wine. The Sacrament is offered to baptized Christians who repent of their sins, have been catechized in the Christian faith, and who are members of our congregation or another congregation of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. If it has been over a year since the last time you communed, or if you are a visitor today, please speak to one of our pastors before receiving Holy Communion. Thank you.

Prayer Before Worship.

O LORD, I love the habitation of your house, and the place where your glory dwells. Ps. 26:8

For a day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.

I would rather be a doorkeeper
in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of wickedness. Ps. 84:10

O LORD, my Creator, Redeemer, and Comforter, as I come to worship You in spirit and in truth, I humbly pray that You would open my heart to the preaching of Your Word so that I may repent of my sins, believe in Jesus Christ as my only Savior, and grow in grace and holiness. Hear me for the sake of His name. Amen.

When the bells ring, please stand and face the cross.

Processional Hymn | TLH 132 O God of God, O Light of Light

Confession and Absolution

The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

P In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

P Our help is in the name of the Lord,

C who made heaven and earth.

P I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,

C and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

P O almighty God, merciful Father,

C I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

P Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

Introit

Psalm 71:15–18; antiphon: v. 12

*O God, be not far from me;
O my God, make haste to help me!*

My mouth will tell of your righteous acts, of your deeds of salvation all the day, for their number is past my knowledge.

With the mighty deeds of the Lord GOD I will come;
I will remind them of your righteousness, yours alone.

O God, from my youth you have taught me,
and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds.

So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim your might to another generation, your power to all those to come.

*O God, be not far from me;
O my God, make haste to help me!*

Old Testament Reading

Isaiah 6:1–8

¹In the year that King Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and the train of his robe filled the temple. ²Above him stood the seraphim. Each had six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. ³And one called to another and said:

“Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts;
the whole earth is full of his glory!”

⁴And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. ⁵And I said: “Woe is me! For I am lost; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!”

⁶Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having in his hand a burning coal that he had taken with tongs from the altar. ⁷And he touched my mouth and said: “Behold, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away, and your sin atoned for.”

⁸And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” Then I said, “Here am I! Send me.”

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Epistle

1 Corinthians 14:12b–20

Since you are eager for manifestations of the Spirit, strive to excel in building up the church.

¹³Therefore, one who speaks in a tongue should pray for the power to interpret. ¹⁴For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays but my mind is unfruitful. ¹⁵What am I to do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will pray with my mind also; I will sing praise with my spirit, but I will sing with my mind also. ¹⁶Otherwise, if you give thanks with your spirit, how can anyone in the position of an outsider say “Amen” to your thanksgiving when he does not know what you are saying? ¹⁷For you may be giving thanks well enough, but the other person is not being built up. ¹⁸I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you. ¹⁹Nevertheless, in church I would rather speak five words with my mind in order to instruct others, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

²⁰Brothers, do not be children in your thinking. Be infants in evil, but in your thinking be mature.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel

Luke 5:1-11

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the fifth chapter.

C Glo - ry be to Thee, O Lord.

¹On one occasion, while the crowd was pressing in on [Jesus] to hear the word of God, he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret, ²and he saw two boats by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. ³Getting into one of the boats, which was Simon's, he asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the people from the boat. ⁴And when he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch." ⁵And Simon answered, "Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets." ⁶And when they had done this, they enclosed a large number of fish, and their nets were breaking. ⁷They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. ⁸But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord." ⁹For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish that they had taken, ¹⁰and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." ¹¹And when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him.

The Call of the First Disciples

A Meditation on the Word of God | Luke 5:1-11

Jesus is God. His Word is powerful. He commands, “Let down your nets...” and by the Word of Jesus, their nets are full. Everything depends on Christ’s Word. Apart from Christ, the efforts of men are futile. How far did Peter and the others get without Christ? “Master, we toiled all night and took nothing!” That phrase sums up the futility of one who strives without the Lord’s help. But with the Lord’s help, the nets are flooded with fish.

This is more than a mere fishing story. This is all about the future ministry of Peter and the others. It all starts with the Lord’s call: “Put out into the deep...” Those men Jesus was with there on Galilee’s shore, he would eventually send out as Apostles. They wouldn’t go of their own volition. In other words, they wouldn’t send themselves. It all starts with the Lord’s call, the command of Jesus, “Put out into the deep...” that is, “Take my Gospel to the ends of the earth.” Jesus sends the Twelve out into the world as Apostles to bring his Gospel to the nations. If they go of their own volition, they are bound to fail. If they go at the word and command of Jesus, they will succeed. And the success of their ministry—just like the success of this fishing expedition— will be dependent not on themselves, but on the Lord and his Word.

This story is an picture of faith. To Peter, it doesn’t make sense to go fishing in the middle of the day, or in the middle of the Lake. Any fisherman knows that fishing should happen in the morning hours while it is still dark, and by the shore. To Peter, who spend the whole night fishing unsuccessfully—that is, to his reason and understanding—going fishing again would be pointless. Another futile endeavor. But Peter had known something about the Lord Jesus by this point. He heard John the Baptist call Jesus, “The Lamb of God.” He witnessed Jesus cast out demons in Capernaum and preach the Gospel with authority. He witnessed firsthand the healing of his own mother-in-law. Through Christ’s Word, Peter had been brought to faith. He is beginning to believe, to trust, to be dependent and reliant, not upon his own intuitions and understanding, but upon the Word of Jesus: “At your word I will let down the nets.”

It is as if Peter said, “Jesus, this makes no sense to me. But I trust that you are good and that your Word carries with it the power to bring new realities into existence. I don’t know how, or why you are issuing this command. But I have come to believe that you will not deceive or mislead us, and that your will for us is best.” This simple trust of the heart that follows Christ is called saving faith. Saving faith takes hold of Christ and his promises. The Holy Spirit worked saving faith in the heart of St. Peter through the ministry of Jesus among them. Note too how, after the catch, Peter says, “Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord.” That is just like Isaiah in the OT reading. Peter knows he is standing in the presence of God himself and that he doesn’t deserve to see God and live. Jesus says, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men.” This is an Absolution. Why does Peter need not be afraid? Peter, a man full of failures and shortcomings? The Lord came to die for Peter, to put away his sins by the shedding of his blood. Jesus would cleanse Peter of his sins in Baptism and empower him by the Spirit for the Apostolic ministry that lied ahead of him. But note how everything is dependent upon the Word of Jesus. There is no effort we can undertake that will succeed apart from it.

Noodles. The Ladies Aid will be making noodles from March 2-5th. If any volunteers would like to help, we will need assistance with setup and take down on Sunday and Thursday. All in the congregation are invited to come and lend their time to making noodles. Thanks!

The Communion chalices are being refinished by a company in Cincinnati. This project will take 6-8 weeks to complete. For now, individual cups will be distributed on trays (we could not find a substitute pouring chalice). Thanks to Brian Steiner for executing this project.

The Family of Anita Spiegel invites you to a celebration of Anita's 85th birthday on February 23rd from 1:30-4:30PM in the fellowship hall. Light refreshments will be available. This invitation is for all the members of St. Paul.

Lutheran Bible Institute (LBI) will take place Tuesday evenings Jan 28, Feb 4, 11, 18 2025 from 7-9:15PM at Wyneken this year. Four courses are open to the public. Brochures with more information available in the narthex. The fee is $10/course. Free to college, high school, and elementary students. Bring your own Bible. Enroll with your parish rep (Darrel Ehlerding) or at 6:30PM on the first night of classes, January 28th. Join us as we grow in Christ.

Come and join us for Bible Class hour. We are currently studying the book of Galatians. Not only are we being fed God's Word, but refreshments as well! Most importantly we want you there to learn but if you are interested in sharing your favorite goodies or just supply donuts, that's great! If interested, you can sign up on the calendar on the serving counter in the Fellowship hall. If you are new, and have no idea what to do, you can ask just about anyone who attends Bible Class. If you are hesitant because of the cost involved, donation money is available to cover the cost you incur. We look forward to seeing you! "Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good! Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him!"

Collection for the Hope Clinic. We love babies! And we love their moms and dads! In support of Sanctity of Human Life, we are asking you to purchase new baby items for the Hope Clinic. We are hosting a Church-wide baby shower, so that we can bless those who have chosen life for their child. The following are new items that are always needed:

Baby equipment: cribs/mattresses, pack n' plays with bassinet, swings, bouncer seats, highchairs, baby gates, strollers, car seats/booster car seats, high back booster seats, potty chair or ring, baby monitors.

Baby care items: baby wash/shampoo/lotion, formula (especially Enfamil), baby food, laundry soap, infant care kits (clippers, medicine dispenser, suction bulb, etc.), crib and pack n' play sheets, baby wash cloths and hooded towels, baby bathmat/tubs.

Supplies: diaper bags, bottles, teething and baby toys, diapers (newborn, 4, 5, 6) and wipes, pull ups, sippy cups/baby tableware, clothes/coats (newborn thru 7T), toys/boardgames (newborn to age 5), backpacks/school supplies, children's books (infant to age 5).

For our mothers, we need new or gently used maternity clothes and Instant Pot Cookers. Items not needed at this time are burp cloths, hats, diapers in sizes 1 and 2, baby powder/oil.

Laverne Borne will have totes in fellowship hall for items and will be glad to take your donation to the Hope Clinic. The Baby Shower ends March 31, 2025. Thank you!!

Minutes of the 21 January 2025 Voters Meeting are in the narthex and available for pick up.
