Veronika Bubenickova

Transformational Breast Cancer Coach & Therapist | Breast Cancer Survivor | Breast Cancer Prevention Advocate

“As a speaker, author, and survivor, I share powerful stories and healing insights that inspire audiences to take charge of their well-being and awaken their true potential.”

Veronika Bubenickova is a Transformational Breast Cancer Coach and Therapist, survivor, advocate for holistic breast cancer prevention and author of the book Diary of a Soul Reborn. Diagnosed with breast cancer in 2023, she turned inward and upward—choosing to heal through an integrative path that included plant-based living, energy healing, emotional trauma work, and vision-led spiritual growth.

Her diagnosis became a catalyst for radical transformation, awakening a new life purpose: to help others navigate the breast cancer journey with courage, clarity, and compassion. Today, Veronika supports women facing cancer—offering personalised coaching, therapy sessions, community healing circles, and powerful online programs that honour the body, mind, soul, and heart.
