VICTORIA HARRIS

BORN IN THE BAYOU.
BUILT FROM THE BLOCK.
CROWNED BY THE HUSTLE.

From the heart of New Orleans—where the culture breathes, the drums beat, and the grind never quits —she rose. Once in the trap, now at the top, Self-made. Out the mud. No handouts, no cosigns — just grind, grace, and God. I flipped my hustle into marking a million my first 6 months in the beauty empire, turning struggle into success and pressure into purpose. From the block to the salon, from flipping packs to laying lace — now I’m touching crowns, perfecting smiles. With oralfinity , and serving luxury at every level. High-end hair, exclusive oral care, and Part Owner Of Highend Fluffys the most sought-after designer pups for the ones who really live this life. This ain’t luck — it’s God, grit, and going after everything they said I couldn’t have.
