The Story: About Michael Pos

Michael Pos is a boundary-pushing artist rooted in a sound all his own—what he calls Eclectic Roots Groove™. A conservatory-educated composer and multi-instrumentalist, Michael’s journey is anything but typical. After decades in the corporate world, he made a bold return to his musical roots, bringing with him a wealth of life experience, artistic depth, and entrepreneurial vision.

Michael is also deeply rooted in his faith, which inspires both his creative process and his commitment to authenticity. His songs often reflect themes of renewal, purpose, and connection—offering listeners a space for both joy and reflection.

Now a producer, songwriter, and the founder of RCSQ Records™, Michael is known for weaving together Americana, Soul, Jazz, Rock, and Latin-infused rhythms. His dream is to return to the stage while having his music featured in curated playlists, celebrated on the indie circuit, and revered for its honesty and groove-heavy pulse.

His collaboration with the Blue House Band represents a return to live roots—capturing the rawness of a band in sync and a songwriter at his most expressive.
