What if church wasn't just a place you go, but a people you belong to—a Spirit-filled movement you live?

Many believers today are longing for more than services and sermons. We're hungry to return to the ancient paths, like the early church in ACTS, where believers devoted themselves to Jesus, to fellowship, breaking bread, prayer, the power of the Holy Spirit, and making disciples who made disciples. This is not about starting something new, but rediscovering something timeless—a simple, obedient, Spirit-led way of living as a community on mission. If you're longing for something deeper, more authentic, and more aligned with the life of Jesus and His followers, come and walk the ancient path with us.

Matthew 28v18

¹⁸ Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹ Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”
