

Anti-Spam Policy

Unsolicited messages, or any messages sent by unauthorized users, are not tolerated OmniSuite and are considered spam. Please report any abuse ASAP. To report abuse, send us your mobile number, along with the time and date of the message. If you can, please send the content of the message that you are reporting. Upon receiving any complaint, OmniSuite immediately begins an investigation on the reported client. The identities of all individuals involved will remain confidential. We do not allow in our terms of service for users to upload “cold” email / SMS lists or SMS / email lists purchased.

Enforcement of OmniSuite’s Anti-Spam Policy

All OmniSuite’s clients agree to the our Terms and Conditions upon registration for A2P registration to get approved sender verification from the carriers. OmniSuite can track information on sent messages, including the sender and the contents of the message. Violations of OmniSuite’s Anti-Spam policy may result in a warning or possibly termination of the client’s services. Termination of a Client’s services may extend to future services as well. OmniSuite complies with all state and national laws and regulations with regards to unsolicited text messages and/or spam.

Opting Out/ Unsubscribing/ Removing Your Mobile Number

Users can remove themselves from any client’s list at anytime by texting “stop” along with the text word they signed up for. Reply “stop all” to remove your number from all of OmniSuite client’s lists. Abuse can be reported by sending us an email to "info@theomnisuite.com" Send us your mobile number, the content of the message (if possible), and the time and date that the message was received. Your mobile number will be removed from the abuser’s list.