

BEN BIRCH

ABOUT ME.

Ben joined YPP after completing dedicated training with us, Ben made the leap from his previous customer relations career into financial services.

As a Protection Advisor, Ben has shown how much he truly cares about his clients, always going the extra mile to ensure the best outcomes. His positive outlook and team spirit have made him feel like he's been part of YPP since the very start.

A proud dad, Ben loves spending his weekends making memories with his son, whether that's activities, days out, or simply enjoying quality time together. He and his partner Helena also enjoy.
