V. KEY CONCEPT for the Week – “THE VIRTUE OF PATIENCE”

(In life coaching, Key Concepts are the basic building blocks for personal growth and overall success. Some people use only a few key concepts; some people learn and practice all of them.)

The Key Concept I’d like you to practice this week is the concept of patience.

Here’s the definition we’ll use for patience: “The simple and important choice to be willing to wait.”

First, we will review the perceptions of patience that you have right now. All you have to do is answer each of these questions:

1. Rate yourself on how patient you are, overall, from 1 to 10, with 10 being very patient, and 1 being very impatient. _____ Why did you give yourself that rating?

2. Name something in your life about which you are always very patient.

3. Name something in your life about which you are never patient.

4. What do you think usually determines how patient you will be – especially at those times when you should be patient?

5. Does your lack of patience, or having too much patience, ever cause a problem for you in any way? _____ In what way?

6. If you could change your level of patience, overall, right now, what would you change about it, and how would you change it?

VI. THIS WEEK: To practice the concept of patience this week, I'd like you to consciously practice being patient and understanding – every time it comes up. Write a list of at least six times this week that you consciously made the choice to practice patience.

VII. AFFIRMATION FRAME MP3's

This week I'd like you to listen to: _____

VIII. CLOSING

On the same scale of 1 - 10, how do you choose to make this week work for you? _____

What will you do to make that happen?

You can do it! I believe in you, _____. I'll talk to you next week.
