V. KEY CONCEPT for the Week – “FOCUS”

(In life coaching, Key Concepts are the basic building blocks for personal growth and overall success. Some people use only a few key concepts; some people learn and practice all of them.)

The Key Concept I'd like you to practice this week is the concept of focus.

Here's the definition we'll use: focus is the amount of attention, energy and concentration you choose to give to any specific idea, task or situation.

First, we will review the perceptions of focus that you have right now. All you have to do is answer each of these questions:

1. From 1 to 10, rate how you see yourself and your ability to create and maintain focus? _____
2. From 1 to 10, how do you think other people would rate your ability to focus? _____

3. What is one thing you do consistently to increase your focus, if anything?

4. Name three things that easily distract you or cause you to lose your focus.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

5. What determines what you focus on most?

6. If you could do one thing to increase your focus at any time you want, what would it be?

VI. THIS WEEK: To practice the concept of focus this week, I'd like you to spend five minutes each day giving 100 per cent of your attention to one specific thought, idea, task or goal. We'll discuss the results next week.

VII. AFFIRMATION FRAME MP3's

This week I'd like you to listen to: _____

VIII. CLOSING

On the same scale of 1 - 10, how do you choose to make this week work for you? _____

What will you do to make that happen?

You can do it! I believe in you, _____. I'll talk to you next week.
