V. KEY CONCEPT for the Week – "FINDING YOUR PASSION"
(In life coaching, Key Concepts are the basic building blocks for personal growth and overall success. Some people use only a few key concepts; some people learn and practice all of then
The Key Concept I'd like you to practice this week is the concept of finding your passion .
Here's the definition we'll use for passion: "Caring about something – with great intensity	y."
First, we will review the perceptions of passion that you have right now. All you have to do i answer each of these questions:	is
1. How would you describe the level of passion you have about your most important interests a)Very high, b)Some passion, c)Very little.	s?
2. Name something you believe you are extremely passionate about. (More examples.)

3. What do you believe creates the passion you have for something you care about? What causes it?
4. Is there any area of your life, or any interest you have, in which you would like to have more passion than you have now? Why?
5. Is there any area of your life, or any interest you have, in which you would like to have less passion than you have now? Why?
6. If you wanted to create more passion for something you care about, what is one thing you could do, starting now, to create that passion? (Other examples?)
VI. THIS WEEK: To practice the concept of passion this week, I'd like you to list in your Success Journal, everything you can think of that you are truly passionate about. Then, for each item on your list, write a brief statement of why you are passionate about that. See if you can find the thread that ties them all together.
VII. AFFIRMATION FRAME MP3's
This week I'd like you to listen to:
VIII. CLOSING
On the same scale of 1 - 10, how do you choose to make this week work for you?
What will you do to make that happen?
You can do it! I believe in you, I'll talk to you next week.
