V. KEY CONCEPT for the Week – “SELF-BELIEF”

(In life coaching, Key Concepts are the basic building blocks for personal growth and overall success. Some people use only a few key concepts; some people learn and practice all of them.)

The Key Concept I'd like you to practice this week is the concept of self-belief.

Here's the definition we'll use for self-belief: “The choice to be willing to always have faith in yourself – regardless of the circumstances.”

First, we will review the perceptions of self-belief that you have right now. All you have to do is answer each of these questions:

1. Rate your usual level of self-belief from 1 to 10, with 10 being the strongest.

2. What one thing, more than any other, adds to your belief in yourself?

3. What one thing, more than any other, takes away from your belief in yourself?

4. How important do you think your level of self-belief is to your overall success and well-being?

5. Why?

6. Name two or three things you could do more of to increase your belief in yourself.

VI. THIS WEEK: To practice the concept of self-belief this week, I'd like you to write down, in your Success Journal, any situation where you felt that your self-belief was low, and any situation where your self-belief felt especially high.

VII. AFFIRMATION FRAME MP3's

This week I'd like you to listen to: _____

VIII. CLOSING

What will you do to make that happen?
