V. KEY CONCEPT for the Week – “OVERCOMING NEGATIVITY in Yourself.”

(In life coaching, Key Concepts are the basic building blocks for personal growth and overall success. Some people use only a few key concepts; some people learn and practice all of them.)

The Key Concept I’d like you to practice this week is the concept of “overcoming negativity in yourself.”

Here’s the definition we’ll use for Negativity: “Any attitude, belief, or expression that works against you, or is limited in vision.”

First, we will review the perceptions of negativity in yourself, that you have right now. All you have to do is answer each of these questions:

1. Rate negativity in yourself from 1 to 10, with 1 meaning you have no negativity, and 10 meaning you are frequently negative. _____

2. To what extent do you feel you are in control of your own attitude?

3. Name one or two events or circumstances that usually affect your attitude in a negative way.

4. When you notice that your attitude is negative, what do you typically do about it?

5. What are three things you could do to make sure your attitude is always positive, or more positive?

6. How do you feel about people who almost always have a good attitude?

7. If you could change or improve one thing about your attitude in general, what would it be?

VI. THIS WEEK: To practice the concept of overcoming negativity in yourself this week, I'd like you to give yourself a simple rating in your Success Journal each night. Rate your attitude for that day, overall, from 1 to 10. Next week when we talk, I want to know your average score for the week.

VIII. CLOSING

On the same scale of 1 - 10, how do you choose to make this week work for you? _____

What will you do to make that happen?

You can do it! I believe in you, _____. I'll talk to you next week.
