V. KEY CONCEPT for the Week – “YOUR SELF-TALK”

(In life coaching, Key Concepts are the basic building blocks for personal growth and overall success. Some people use only a few key concepts; some people learn and practice all of them.)

The Key Concept I'd like you to practice this week is the concept of self-talk.

Here's the definition we'll use for Self-Talk: “The skill and practice of replacing old, harmful ‘mental programs’ with new programs that create a healthier, long-term sense of self, fulfillment, and personal well-being.”

First, we will review the perceptions of Self-Talk that you have right now. All you have to do is answer each of these questions:

1. Do you consciously practice Self-Talk techniques now – and in what way?

2. How important do you think your personal Self-Talk is to your success and happiness as an individual?

3. Do you typically listen to professional Self-Talk tapes? If so, for how long, and how do you use them?

4. If you could change any of your old programs, which programs would you change?

5. What areas of your own Self-Talk would you like to work on first?

6. Would you be willing to listen to some Self-Talk each day, if doing that would help you reach your goals? _____ Why?

VI. THIS WEEK: To practice the concept of Self-Talk this week. And . . . listen to the Self-Talk recording we're going to talk about next.

VII. AFFIRMATION FRAME MP3's
