V. KEY CONCEPT for the Week – “DETERMINATION”

(In life coaching, Key Concepts are the basic building blocks for personal growth and overall success. Some people use only a few key concepts; some people learn and practice all of them.)

The Key Concept I'd like you to practice this week is the concept of determination.

Here's the definition we'll use: Determination: the choice to follow a specific path to its end without the consideration of stopping, failing or giving up.

First, we'll review the perceptions of determination, that you have right now. All you have to do is answer each of these questions:

1. On a scale of 1 to 10, rate how much determination you exhibit in general. _____

2. Who is the most determined, successful person you know?

3. What role do you believe the concept of determination played in that person's success?

4. If you could do one thing to increase your determination to reach your goals, what would it be? (Clue: determination is a "choice.")

5. Who or what, if anything, is typically able to derail your determination?

6. In the face of adversity, what one thing always makes you more determined to succeed?

VI. THIS WEEK: To practice the concept of determination this week, I'd like you to write down the three goals or objectives in your life that you are most determined to reach.

VII. AFFIRMATION FRAME MP3's

This week I'd like you to listen to: _____

VIII. CLOSING

On the same scale of 1 - 10, how do you choose to make this week work for you? _____

What will you do to make that happen?

You can do it! I believe in you, _____. I'll talk to you next week.
