

SUNDAY LUNCH

There are few culinary traditions or delights that are as cherished in British culture as a traditional Sunday Roast!

This unbelievably wholesome & widely beloved meal offers a comforting array of flavours & textures that warm both the heart & the belly. No dinner table is so diverse – every Welsh family will have its favourites & traditions.

Our aim is to provide a Sunday Roast that respects these traditions & to craft a real favourite for all customers.

Historically Sunday was a day of rest & worship with families attending church in the morning & returning home to enjoy a hearty meal together. By the 18th century roast beef had become synonymous with the Welsh identity, immortalised as a symbol of national pride.

Over time the Sunday Roast evolved to include other meats, vegetables & accompaniments but in essence remained the same: a meal that brings families & friends together to share the simple pleasures of food & company.

If you want a classic, creative Sunday lunch with all the delicious trimmings, pay us a visit or reserve your table to avoid disappointment.
