Summer Reading Honors U.S. History 2025-2026

For summer reading in Honors U.S. History, you are required to read a non-fiction book on U.S. History. The analysis and opinion paper are due on Thursday, August 14, 2025. You will be given access to Turnitin on Wednesday in class and will be expected to upload your paper to Turnitin to submit it on Thursday.

Non-Fiction Book Analysis

Read a non-fiction U.S. History book of your choice. You may choose from the suggested list below, but you are not bound by this list. If you choose another reputable book, please email me for approval. Go with your interests! This book may be purchased, borrowed, or checked out from the library. You may also download for a Kindle type device.

As you read, consider the ideas below. Provide two passages/quotes that reflect each of the following:

1. Summarizes or encapsulates the significance of the event/person/idea in history
 2. Represents something you learned that surprised you and gave a different view of the event/person/idea.
 3. Represents where/when in history the author chose to start and stop their narrative.
 4. Connects the event/person/idea to current U.S./World events.
 5. Exemplifies author's bias/agenda. Why is the author telling this story?
 6. Exemplifies the author's worldview and beliefs. How does it compare to a Biblical worldview?
- Please provide the passage/quote with the page number(s) indicating which criteria is being met and explain how the criteria is being met.

In addition to the 12 passages/quotes, you need to submit a 500 word opinion on the book:

- Why did you choose the book?
 - Did you like the book? Why or why not?
 - Would you recommend the book? Why or why not?
- Please use MLA format including a header for your paper.

During the year, you may be called upon as an expert to enrich the curriculum when we cover the content of your book. You will share what you learned and how the book provides more insight into the specific era or topic in American history.
