

Terms and Conditions for Online Course: "How to Renovate for Profit in Australia"

1. Scope

These Terms and Conditions apply to the online course "How to Renovate for Profit in Australia" provided by Renovating Made Easy (ABN: 52594228943) ("the Course"). By purchasing the Course, you acknowledge and agree to these Terms and Conditions.

2. Objectives & Disclaimer

The Course is designed to provide resources and education to individuals interested in renovating for profit in Australia. It includes general information on property investing. Renovating Made Easy and Julie Anglesey do not hold an Australian Financial Services License and do not provide financial advice. The information provided in the Course and associated materials does not constitute specific accounting, tax, legal, or other professional advice. Participants should consult their own advisors to ensure the concepts and strategies learned are tailored to their personal circumstances.

3. Acknowledgements

By purchasing the Course, you acknowledge:

- No guarantees or representations have been made regarding the profits, success, or financial benefits you may achieve from the Course.
- The results you achieve from the Course will depend on your application, effort, and personal choices.
- The Course provides resources, general advice, and encouragement but is not designed to make decisions for you or provide specific financial advice.
- Any investment involves the risk of financial loss. Renovating Made Easy does not warrant that following the advice or using the resources provided will prevent any loss or adverse outcome.

4. Course Fee and Payment Terms

The Course Fee is payable in full at the time of purchase. Payment is accepted via credit card or PayPal. Access to the Course will only be provided once full payment is received. The course fee is non-refundable.

5. Non-Transferable Access

Access to the Course is strictly personal and non-transferable. You may not sell, transfer, or share your access with anyone else. Any violation of this condition may result in the termination of your access to the Course without a refund.

6. Ethical Conduct

Participants are expected to conduct themselves ethically and respectfully within the online community and during any live webinars or group coaching sessions. Disruptive, abusive, or unethical behaviour may result in removal from the Course without a refund.

7. Course Content and Changes

Renovating Made Easy reserves the right to modify the content and structure of the Course at any time, ensuring that any changes made will be of equal or greater value to the participant.

8. Use of Course Materials

Participants may access and download course materials for personal use only. Distribution, reproduction, or sharing of course materials in any form without express written consent from Renovating Made Easy is prohibited.

9. Media Release

Renovating Made Easy may record any live sessions (webinars or group coaching) for marketing and promotional purposes. Your participation may result in the incidental inclusion of your image or voice. By purchasing the Course, you consent to this use. If you do not wish your image or voice to be used, please notify us in writing.

10. Marketing and Communication Consent

By enrolling in the Course, you authorize Renovating Made Easy to send you email communications regarding course updates, new offerings, and other opportunities. You may opt out of receiving these communications at any time.

11. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, you release and discharge Renovating Made Easy, its directors, agents, and affiliates from any liability for any loss, damage, or adverse outcome resulting from your participation in the Course.

12. Governing Law

These Terms and Conditions are governed by the laws of Australia. Any disputes arising under these Terms shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Australian courts.

By purchasing this course, you confirm that you have read, understood, and agreed to these terms and conditions.
