

Jay Pujara

Founder / Inspirer

Jay Pujara is an author, entrepreneur, and a thought leader, and has a passion for creating positive change. He is a pharmacist by profession. He is the author of the book Become Remarkable Now: Concepts about life, happiness and wealth. He is a Producer and Anchor of "Inspiring Series" by Inspiration Masters, a difference maker interview series. He is the originator of "Inspiring Minutes" J video series and also an influencer behind "I'M Voice" an online magazine.

His work is based on creating a thought process by which everyone can live a happy and fulfilled life. He has a deep interest in the ideas that we can learn more to become more.

He explains how it all starts by acquiring knowledge and skills to create products and services which lead to the highest and best level of our contribution to human society, which in turn leads to the deepest level of joy and satisfaction in our lives.

Jay recognizes the value of effective communication and our need for leadership and wants everyone to have the knowledge and skills to become a leader and communicate effectively.

Jay is a Pharmacist by education and holds qualifications in International Trade and Marketing Management. Jay is a serial entrepreneur and started his first company at age 23. Jay is Public Speaker and has addressed Audiences large and small at various venues and in several formats since 2003. Jay has conducted online workshops. Jay has received training from world-renowned coaches like Tony Robbins and Jack Canfield. He is a certified Canfield Trainer "The Success Principles"

He is a voracious reader and Inspirer behind Inspiration Masters, LLC.

Founder and President Inspiration Masters, LLC. (EST 2012)

Communication and Leadership Training Institute

Inspiration Masters, LLC, conducts several training programs and workshops business owners and entrepreneurs, on communication and leadership, personal development, public speaking, goal setting, productivity, and Become Remarkable Seminars. Inspiration Masters also has very well-developed youth programs. With focus on developing leadership and communication skills in youth at an early age.

Awards Leadership Award Outstanding President Award for D25 Toastmasters 2015 (Out of about 160 Toastmasters clubs from Waco to Oklahoma)

Jay has won speech contests in several categories at contests conducted under Toastmasters International clubs. He has won a contest at various levels in every single speech category, including

- International Speech Contest
- Speech Evaluation Contest
- Table Topics contest
- Tall Tales contest
- Humorous Speech contest

Engagements

- Past President (2015) and current member
- Las Colinas Communicators, (A Verizon club)
- part of Toastmasters International
- Member-USICOC (United States India Chamber of Commerce)
- Member-DFW IPA (Pharmacist Association)
- Member-Professional Development Committee at Metrotex Association of Realtors
- Taskforce Member at Irving ISD for creating a school of entrepreneurship
- Art of Public Speaking workshop
- Effective Communication for Influence Group and Individual programs
- Introduction to effective communication at BNSF Railway
- Executive coaching a personal one-on-one coaching program
- Leadership program for College Student conducted at the The Richland college

Volunteer work

- Mentor to new Speakers to complete their projects and receive their designation at Toastmasters Club in Irving which is a part of Toastmasters International.
- SPCS Motivational Speech for the year 2015 and 2016
- Volunteered as a speaker at a Public speaking program for teens as a part of Toastmasters International summer training program.
- Has been Test speaker at the speech evaluation contest for Toastmaster International at Area/Division contest to facilitate the evaluation contest.
- Goal Setting workshop for Teens for a non-profit organization in Plano TX

- Organized several Free networking events and Meetup group events to help startups and entrepreneur
- Organized Happiness Seminar 2015 and 2016
- Organized Happiness seminar online as a part of Neo4 Education program
- A judge at Decca on International Projects
- A judge at HOSA

Current and upcoming programs Currently, Jay is involved in coaching corporate members, freelancers and Entrepreneurs, and business owners. He also conducts programs for youth groups through his company Inspiration Masters, LLC. at several locations throughout the DFW area. He also conducts programs outside the training centers.

Programs currently running are,

- Communication and Leadership
- Public Speaking and Leadership
- Personal Development Program
- Speak for Success
- Art of Public Speaking
- 4E Program
- G.K. Program
- Workshops on a variety of subjects
- Speech contests (Conducted several DFW OPEN speech contests in 2016 and 2017,2018)
- Inspiring Series difference makers video interview series
- Inspiring Minutes video series
- I'M Voice online magazine www.inspirationmasters.com

