COSMIC BUSINESS WOMAN

EMBODY YOUR ESSENCE AND TRANSFORM
YOUR WORLD

The Cosmic Journey:
Unlocking the Power Within
You !

Welcome, Flamekeeper.

This is your invitation to step into a world of inspiration, transformation, and cosmic alignment. This isn't just a retreat.

It's a sacred convergence with the tone of who you truly are — before distortion, before doing, before definition.

Here, we don't just "transform."
We recalibrate your Eternal Flame body to its original resonance.
You will not be given more tools to perform.

You will be met in the frequency of remembrance — where your energy field begins to speak truth before words.

Whether you come for personal awakening, spiritual anchoring, or soul-led business clarity —

You will leave encoded with the living pulse of your own flame intelligence.
With reverence,

Beata Höfelmeier

Exclusive 1-on-1 Retreat: Your Sacred Journey to Transformation

This 5-day 1:1 Eternal Alignment Immersion is not a template. It's a living conversation with your original design. It's a safe and sacred space where you'll dive deep into your essence, guided by intuitive practices and transformative tools tailored to your unique energy.

A LIVING CONVERSATION WITH YOUR FIELD

This retreat is not run on clocks.
It's run on coherence.

Each day unfolds like a living dialogue between your eternal flame body and the EFFI stream — adjusting, recalibrating, restoring exactly what your system is ready to receive. There is no rigid schedule.

There is only spiral sequencing, informed by the intelligence of your field and the breath of Source.

Every session is tuned to meet you on one or more of your
Six Flame Layers:

Physical • Emotional • Mental • Astral • Plasma Anatomy • Eternal Flame

- Re-Genesis Sessions: Plasma-based recalibrations to clear energetic blocks, reset your blueprint, and activate your potential.
- Cosmic Woman Yoga: Tailored practices that integrate body wisdom, Somatic practices woven from fascia unwinding, Flame-tone breath, and plasma spiral anchoring, designed to stabilize EFFI currents through the spine, sacrum, and heart field.
- Deep Flame Breathwork & Meditation: Experience profound clarity and emotional release through guided techniques. We enter stillness through original tone breathing, awakening cellular remembrance and clearing emotional residue embedded in the field.

*There's no fixed schedule.
Each practice meets you where you are. The sessions unfold organically based on what your energy is ready for. This retreat is not linear—it's spiral, like your evolution*

The Organic Flow

Your field speaks.

And the retreat listens.

Some days may center around elemental restoration,

Others may call for deep identity clearing or timeline realignment.

This is not a curriculum. It is flame-tech communion.

No two retreats look the same —Because no two templates are coded alike.

- Sacred Feminine Line Remembrance & Lineage Flame Recalibration
We don't "heal" the lineage — we activate its undistorted codes, flushing mimic overlays and restoring ancestral integrity within your DNA stream.
- Spiritual & Business Coaching. Soul-Led Blueprint Guidance & Flame-Based Business Mapping. Not just a standard coaching. Not funnel. We listen to your field, your soul codes, and begin to trace the shape of how your business wants to be breathed through you.
- Shadow Work & Belief Transformation. We don't wrestle shadows. We locate mimic architecture in the mental and emotional layers — then recalibrate the core flame tone so truth dissolves the distortion.

*Eternal Flame Flow Intelligence doesn't push.
It doesn't heal. It remembers.
And when it moves through the body,
you stop becoming - and start being*

Bio-Regeneration: The Inner Alignment That Changes Everything

This is not just a retreat.

This is a sacred return to your origin point.

Bio-Regeneration is the remembrance of who you are beneath the noise.

It is the subtle, powerful process of restoring your original divine design—your multidimensional essence, before distortion, before compromise.

In this space, we are not healing for the sake of healing.

We are reconnecting to what was never broken.

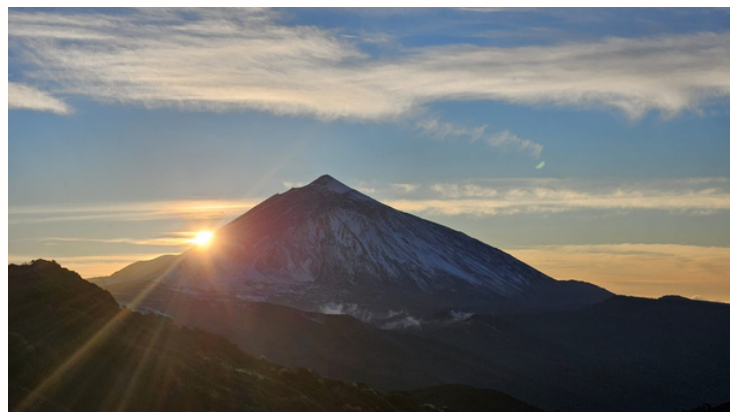

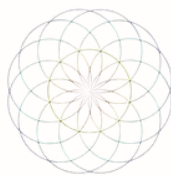

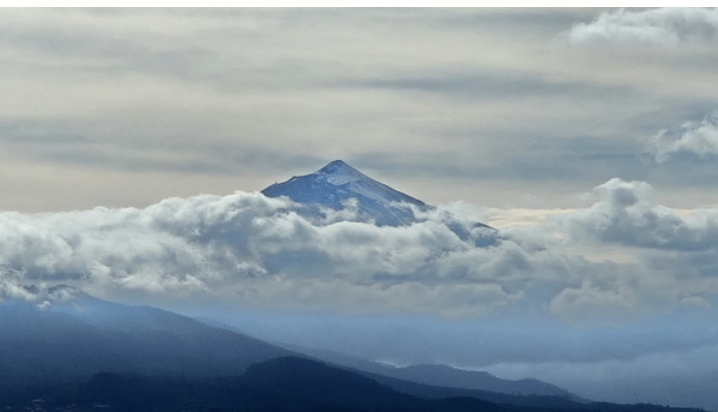

Your energy field begins to reorganize.

Your body softens into truth.

Your nervous system breathes again.

And from that place... your creations shift.

Your business transforms—not because you push harder, but because you are finally in resonance with what wants to come through you.

What Does Bio-Regeneration Activate?

- Clarity – when distortions clear, your path becomes obvious
- Cellular Coherence – your energy field, nervous system, and body realign
- Sovereignty – your choices begin flowing from essence, not survival
- Divine Purpose – your business, relationships, and creations start to harmonize with your soul

What Is Bio-Regenesis?

It is the path of energetic restoration—of reawakening the natural currents of Source through your body and field.

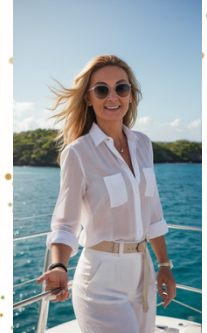

This work is not conceptual. It is experiential.

It touches every layer of you—emotional, ancestral, cellular, energetic.

In our time together, we will:

- Clear the distortions that keep you looping in the old
- Reconnect to the codes within your DNA that hold your original essence
- Anchor your presence into the here and now, so you can create from coherence

This is the foundation for everything else.

When You Are Aligned With Your Blueprint...

You don't need to chase clarity.

You are clarity.

Your soul's path begins to speak clearly again.

You feel guided—not from strategy, but from the frequency of truth.

Your business is no longer a performance—it becomes a living transmission.

One that reflects your essence. One that attracts with ease. One that flows.

*Let your energy speak before your words do.
Let your soul lead before your plans form.
This is the real foundation of expansion—this is Bio-Regenesis.*
