Professional Designations:

CLTC

The Certified in Long-Term Care (CLTC) designation is owned by the CLTC Board of Standards, Inc. A CLTC designation is obtained by taking a 7-part multi-disciplinary course. The program is offered either in a 2-day classroom setting or by Correspondence Course. Individuals are required to pass a written examination and the designation is renewable every year. Once a candidate passes the examination, that individual must provide a certificate of good standing, or equivalent, from the candidate's state insurance authority and an affidavit, under oath, stating that the candidate has not had a judgment relating to fraudulent behavior in their profession entered against him or her in the past 5 years. To maintain the CLTC designation, all designees are required to meet an ongoing continuing education requirement.

ITEM 3 - DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Christina Lawrence has no material disciplinary history to disclose.

ITEM 4 - OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Christina Lawrence is a licensed insurance agent and may sell insurance through various agencies. She will receive commissions on the sale of insurance products. The insurance commissions Christina receives are separate from and in addition to any fees that Vector Financial Solutions, Inc. receives for advisory/financial planning services. Therefore, a conflict of interest will exist between her interests and those of Vector Financial Solutions, Inc.'s clients if she recommends insurance services for which she is individually compensated when providing advisory/financial planning advice to a Vector Financial Solutions Inc. client. However, clients are under no obligation to act on any of her recommendations. Christina will disclose any conflict of interest between herself and a Vector Financial Solutions, Inc. client before the sale of insurance.
