

** A fiduciary is an individual or organization entrusted with managing another person's or entity's money or property. They are legally obligated to act in the best interests of the person or entity they represent, rather than their own. This fiduciary duty involves acting with loyalty, care, and prudence.