Dear [Patient] ...

We are writing to inform you of an important change regarding your cardiology care with Eastern Carolina Cardiovascular, P.A.

Dr. White will be scaling back this spring, closing his cardiology practice while continuing to see patients. We are excited for him as he steps into this well-earned new chapter of his career.

With this transition, Eastern Carolina Cardiovascular, P.A., in Nags Head will close on Friday, April 18, 2025. We are pleased to announce Outer Banks Health will be opening a cardiology practice in the same location to continue to provide you with exceptional cardiology services: Outer Banks Health—Cardiology. The new practice, Outer Banks Health—Cardiology, will begin seeing patients on Monday, May 5, 2025. The phone number for Outer Bank Health Cardiology Office is 252-449-5994 and the fax number is 252-449-5996. During this three week transition, you can contact our Elizabeth City office at 252-331-1100.

In his continued dedication to your heart health, Dr. White will continue to see patients under Outer Banks Health. You will also continue receiving care from the trusted providers you know: Robin Adami, Kim Ceaser, and Krista Hess.

What You Need to Know:

- Continuity of Care: To ensure a seamless transition, you will need to sign a medical release form to transfer your records to the new practice. The healthcare team at Outer Banks Health—Cardiology is committed to working diligently to ensure a smooth transition in your care.
- Appointment Scheduling: All appointments currently scheduled in Nags Head will be honored at Outer Banks Health-Cardiology. If you are enrolled in ECU Health MyChart, you will receive a notification with your appointment details. Please check your MyChart account for updates.
- Update your information: To ensure we can reach you with important updates, please inform us of any changes to your contact information. Updating us on any changes will help us maintain clear communication and provide you with the best possible care.
