GIVING THANKS ALL AROUND

DISTRICT DIRECTOR, HEATHER PERKINS, DTM

Last month, our Canadian members celebrated Thanksgiving Day. This month, our American members will celebrate their Thanksgiving. At Thanksgiving, we traditionally offer words about the people and circumstances for which we are grateful and thankful. Perhaps we should speak about those we want to thank.

Toastmasters is a volunteer organization. We don't pay members so recognition or a big "thank you" is the reward we can offer. Recognizing someone is a way of saying "thank you" to that member for their contribution to the club, to a committee, or to their community.

Does your club have a culture of recognition? Do you recognize members when they complete a level in Pathways? Do you recognize them when they achieve something outside of your club? Building a culture of recognition is an important step in creating quality meetings.

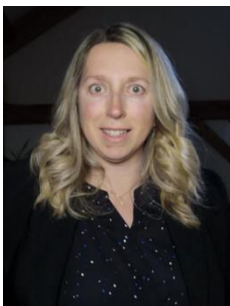

What's the value of a "thank you"? Would you imagine that it might be worth as much as $25,000? Do you think that saying thank you is not so important? A friend of mine does fundraising for a not-for-profit organization. She calls donors to thank them for their donation. One donor said, "It was only $25.00." My friend said, "You've been donating $25.00 every year for 10 years. If everyone in the province donated that amount, we'd have the funds we need to provide our services." The donor then said she wanted to make another donation. That simple thank you didn't just get the organization another $25. It got them $25,000!!

You are highly unlikely to get $25,000 for your club by saying thank you. It will, however, get you more committed and enthusiastic members. Your $25,000 "thank you" will create a valuable opportunity for your club and your members to achieve success.

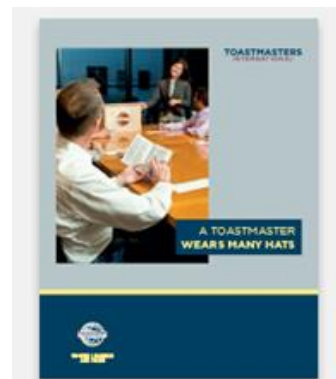

ROLES, ROLES, AND MORE ROLES

PROGRAM QUALITY DIRECTOR, CRYSTAL COBB, DL2, EC5, PI5

Did You Know?

Taking roles on the agenda is an important part of your Toastmasters Journey. In the Toastmaster’s Promise, one of the points is, “I promise to prepare for and fulfill meeting assignments”. Not only did you make a promise, taking roles on the agenda is also going to help you improve your skills.

As you move through the different levels, some projects require you to take on a role on the agenda such as Toastmaster or Speech Evaluator. For example, in the “Evaluation and Feedback” project, in Level 1 of every path, members must serve as a speech evaluator. Did you know that to move into Level 4, you must complete Level 3 but also take on four different roles on the agenda?

The roles you need to complete before moving into Level 4 include:

- Toastmaster
- Speech Evaluator
- General Evaluator
- Table Topics Master

When you complete one of these roles, you can update your meeting roles on your Basecamp profile page, including the date you performed the role. Your club’s Vice President of Education (VPE) then must verify that you fulfilled the four meeting roles required to successfully complete Level 3.

Please take the time to update your Basecamp profile and plan to complete these 4 roles on the agenda so that when you have completed your speeches and want to submit your Level 3 completion, your VPE can easily approve because you have met all the requirements!

GUEST PACKAGES

CLUB GROWTH DIRECTOR, SHERRY McDONALD, DTM

Have you ever walked into a room where everyone else seems to know what is going on except you? I suspect that is how some guests may feel attending their first Toastmasters meeting. Do you remember the feeling walking into your first meeting? Now ask yourself..." What if you had some information prior to the meeting?" Information that told you what to expect, what the roles are, or just to know you didn't have to share if you didn't want to. Guest packages may be your answer!

Guest packages can be provided through email to potential members prior to coming to the meeting. Don't forget to have packages ready for those who just "show up" if you are holding an in-person or hybrid meeting. When you are considering the materials for your package, remember the basics and try not to overwhelm the individual by providing them too much. Explain the roles that are part of your club as well as some of the benefits they may receive as a member. You also may want to include the Toastmasters meeting video as opposed to trying to provide an explanation.

No matter what you include in your guest package, ensure it reflects your club's roles and is the right amount of information for a guest to absorb.

IDEAS FOR PUBLICIZING YOUR CLUB

PUBLIC RELATIONS MANAGER, ANNE DOUCETTE, DL3 MS5, IP5, LD5

Are you looking for ideas to publicize your club? There are many different options available to you and your club. Here are some examples:

Virtually - Social media platforms: Facebook, Instagram or LinkedIn, Instagram; event management software: Eventbrite or Meetup.

Locally - Newspaper, radio, television, community bulletin board, coffee shops, churches, universities/ colleges, Chamber of Commerce, and more! You can also publicize at a local Newcomers to Canada office as newcomers may be looking for opportunities to improve their English or French speaking skills.

Corporate clubs – Publicizing posters on a bulletin board at your work is a great way to post some information about your club and its meetings. Ask to add material in new members' training package or to speak during new member orientation training. Showcase how the club can help members advance in their career.

Now that you have a list of places and platforms to publicize, what will you publicize? There are so many options:

- Host an Open House, invite a special guest to speak. It's a great way to invite the public to check out your club. Don't forget the District 45 Incentive for hosting an Open House!
- Special event/themed meetings (Halloween, Thanksgiving, etc.)
- Speech-a-thon or speech contests
- Club/member anniversary
- Member educational achievements
- Other member special achievements
- Officer election/installation
- Personal success stories from members on how Toastmasters helped them personally or professionally

Watch for next month's article for tips on creating posts, posters, and pamphlets.

#TEAMDISTINGUISHED – WHAT AN ADVENTURE!

D45 CLUB COACH CHAIR, ANGELA CHUTE, DTM2

5 years...It's so hard to believe that this adventure has been 5 years in the making. WOW!

5 years ago, I joined Toastmasters to become a better workshop

presenter. Before I knew it, I was VPE, CC, ACB, ACG, ALB, finisher of 2 Paths, President, Area & Division Director, Division Director of the Year, OH MY!

Youth Leadership, 3 new clubs, conference presenter, Master of the Zoomiverse, and 2 Distinguished Toastmasters plaques later, it's been a world-wind immersion into the culture of Toastmasters.

I've met phenomenal people. I've laughed, cried, stressed, and strived.

This week we completed the revised Speechcraft digital bundle with 10 new leaders at Bank of America, LEAD for Women - all eager to become more proficient and confident presenting before groups.

My adventure continues with #TeamDistinguished - the D45 club coaches - as their Club Coach Chair. Monthly we gather for our MasterClass/ MasterMind, where we gain new tools, strategies, and resources to help our clubs grow.

Rumor has it that there are clubs that want club coaches but don't have one assigned. Another rumor is, there are clubs that don't qualify for a club coach, but want access to our new tools, strategies, and resources to grow their clubs. #Club2Distinguished MasterClass/Mastermind is geared for both. If you want access, reach out!

I coach leadership. I train emerging leaders. I develop competence and confidence. I encourage choosing smart, planning brilliantly, and executing daily action. It's what I do.

I'm enjoying a grand adventure. How about you? Are you on a journey or an adventure?

Hybrid Meeting Committee

The Hybrid Meeting Committee is excited to share a wide range hybrid meeting resources on our district’s website to help your club be successful in hosting hybrid meetings.

What is most important is to ensure we are still providing quality meetings for members and guests.

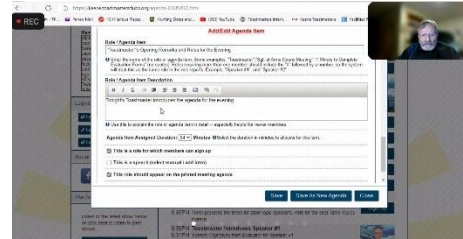

Please note that hybrid meetings are not a requirement. Our goal is simply to provide you with information so that you can make an informed decision when it comes to hosting a hybrid meeting. It is up to you and your membership to decide if a hybrid model is right for you.

Please visit the District 45 website for resources. If you have best practices and/or resources to share, please send it to info@d45toastmasters.org.

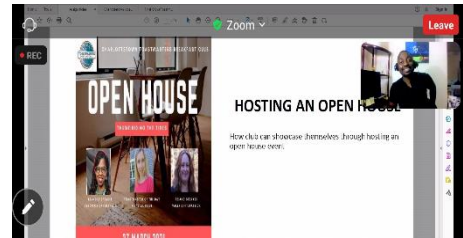

As hybrid meetings evolve, we will continue to update our list.

Webinars

“Learning for Success” Webinars are in full force! In October, Michael Aron led us through how to use the Free Toast Host website. During his presentation, he discussed how using the agenda can help keep your club organized.

We held a second webinar in October around how to host an open house, presented by Deji Randle. He gave us the who, what, when, where, and why of hosting a successful open house! Be sure to check our D45 YouTube channel for the replays!

Join us on November 21st at 7pm ET/ 8pm AT for our next webinar – All About Club Growth!

The new and improved Level 1 in Pathways is here!

Toastmasters International released member-driven improvements to the program’s core Level 1. There is a fresh focus on public speaking basics in this level.

Level 1 has four projects, with five speeches, and include a mix of familiar fundamentals and new skill-building practices. The “Ice Breaker” project has been substantially updated with new content; the “Evaluation and Feedback” project remains a two-speech project and is joined by “Writing a Speech with Purpose” and “Introduction to Vocal Variety and Body Language.” Before completing Level 1, members also need to serve as a speech evaluator.

View the Toastmasters International website for additional information.

COMING SOON - NEW LEADERSHIP BOOK CLUB

Are you interested in developing your leadership skills? Have you ever read a book on leadership and wanted to discuss it with others? Do you have a problem trying to decide which of the hundreds of books on leadership is worth reading? If you answered “yes” to any of the above questions, then join us in January (date TBD) for the first online meeting of the D45 Leadership Book Club. The goal of the book club is to select, read and discuss a book on leadership on a quarterly basis. Participation in the book club is open to all club members in District 45.

The first book we will be discussing is Tribal Leadership by Dave Logan, John King and Halee-Fischer-Wright. This book is an easy read and is filled with valuable insight on team building and developing high functioning groups and organizations.

Following the discussion of our first book in January, we will be taking nominations for our next selection to be discussed in April.

If you are interested in participating in the book club, reach out to Tom Goodwin at d45.tom.goodwin@gmail.com for more information or to get your questions about the book club answered.

PROGRESS TOWARDS SUCCESS – QUARTERLY REPORT

Your District 45 Leadership Team has put together an overview of progress since the start of this year. Things continue to be in a state of flux with some clubs moving to in-person meetings, some to hybrid meetings and some still fully on Zoom. The leaders have been working hard to give D45 members the best experience possible. We are pleased with success to date and look forward to what the rest of this year holds for our District! We are thankful for your enthusiasm and commitment to our District. Together, we will provide opportunities so every member and every club can succeed! Click on District 45 Quarterly Report to read more.

LEADING FOR SUCCESS – CELEBRATION!

Friday, October 22nd was an evening of celebration. Did you know that on October 22, 1924, the first Toastmaster meeting was held at a YMCA building by Dr. Ralph C. Smedley? We decided to showcase the benefits of Toastmasters and host a special event for members and guests.

We had the pleasure to have our 2nd Vice President, Radhi Spear, DTM, discuss leadership and share how being a leader is beneficial inside and outside of the club.

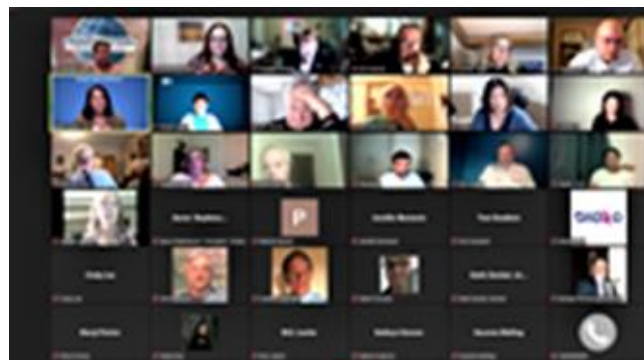

Our Past International President, Jim Kokocki, DTM, shared some details about how Toastmasters can empower you to achieve your dreams!

We ended the evening with Jennifer Stewart, DTM, leading us through an activity to get our energy flowing!

We even streamed the celebration LIVE on our District 45 Facebook page, so if you missed it, be sure to check it out on the Facebook page!

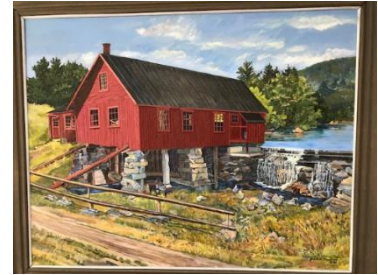

As Radhi said, “everything worthwhile takes time”. Remember this as you make your way through this journey of Toastmasters and life!

News from Concord Toastmasters!

On October 2nd, club member David Hill, DTM, had the opportunity to present to an audience of more than 60 people from Maine and surrounding New England states about his family's 160-year-old funeral business. It all started with a water-powered sawmill that still operates today. He spoke at a local library in Bryant Pond, Maine and was joined by the audience in Woodstock for a demonstration of the mill operating under waterpower. It proved to be a fantastic day!

Member Betsy Black, DTM, will present her program titled “Up Your Game through Mindfulness” at the Fall Workshop on November 6th. The presentation synopsis is listed on the D45 website. Check it out and join Betsy for a riveting presentation!

Every second month, in addition to the regular activities of our meeting (speeches, evaluations and table topics), the Changemakers Toastmasters features our Changemaker Speaker Series. The chosen speaker is a female mover and shaker who is bringing about social change. We hope that by inviting women to speak out on topics they are passionate about, our raised platform will amplify their voice.

Kate Rogers, Mayor of Fredericton, was the Changemaker Speaker at Changemakers/Acteurs du Changement’s September 29 meeting. Rogers, the first female mayor in the city’s history, shared the progress the city has made in the first months of her mandate. The cornerstones of Roger’s election platform - increased consultation, collaboration, and communication - were evidenced by the progress made.

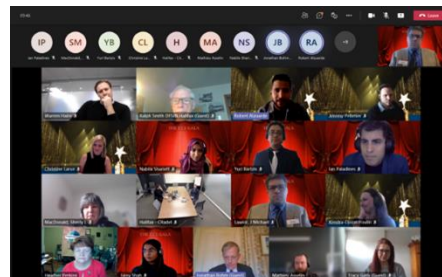

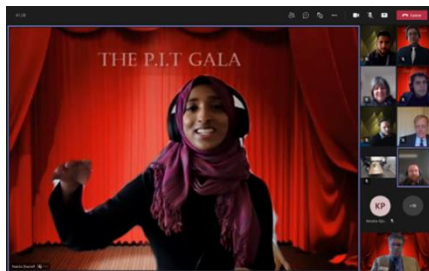

Cathy Holtman, the Director of the Muriel McQueen Fergusson Centre for Family Violence Research (MMFC), will be our Changemaker Speaker for our November 10 meeting. She is the academic co-chair of the Religion and Violence research team, as well as the Violence against Immigrant and Visible Minority Women research teams at the Centre. Her research focuses on gender and religion, domestic violence, immigrant women, and social action. She is a co-investigator with the Canadian Domestic Homicide Prevention Initiative and represents the MMFC on the New Brunswick Roundtable on Crime and Public Safety.

Changemakers Toastmasters is a yet-to-charter, woman-focused club that meets online every 2nd, 4th, and 5th Wednesday from 7pm - 9pm. It provides a safe and brave space to assist its members to give voice to matters of social justice. Advocates, activists, community animators - those who work for nonprofits and creatives - would be at home in our club. We welcome bilingual speakers and will provide opportunities for members to speak and to be evaluated in French or English. For the link to attend, please email with the date you wish to attend in the subject line: changemakerstoastmasters@gmail.com
