

Partnership to End Addiction: Services for Families (A–Z)

Advocacy & Policy Action

Families can join national efforts to transform how our country addresses addiction, including campaigns around opioid settlement funds and prevention-focused policy.drugfree+2

Link: <https://drugfree.org/advocate-for-change/>

Community Partners Network

A nationwide network of nonprofits and local leaders working together to prevent youth substance use and improve mental health with shared tools and training.drugfree

Link: <https://drugfree.org/about-us/>

Educational Articles, Guides & Toolkits

An extensive, research-informed library covering prevention, early intervention, treatment options, and recovery guidance for parents and caregivers.drugfree+2

Link (articles hub): <https://drugfree.org/articles/>

Family Coaching / Peer Coaching Program

Free, personalized one-on-one support for parents and caregivers, offered by trained peer coaches via phone and text, grounded in CRAFT and related approaches.drugfree+1

Link: <https://drugfree.org/peer-coaching-program/>

Family Support & Resource Finder

Tools and referrals to help families locate appropriate local or virtual treatment, support programs, and services for young people and their caregivers.helpingfamilieshelp+2

Link (Get Help hub): <https://drugfree.org/get-support/>

Get Help & Hope by Text

A customized text-messaging program offering tips, education, and encouragement for prevention, intervention, and coping with a loved one's substance use.drugfree

Link: <https://drugfree.org/get-help-hope-by-text/>

Helpline & Direct Support Services

Personalized assistance from trained specialists (including bilingual support) to answer questions, offer emotional support, and navigate treatment options.drugfree+2

Link: <https://drugfree.org/get-support/>

Online Support Groups & Meetings

Virtual groups led by trained staff and parent coaches, including grief support and specialized groups for different family experiences.drugfree+1

Link: <https://drugfree.org/get-support/> (online groups listed within)

Parent & Prevention Education Resources

Step-by-step guides, conversation starters, and school/community partnership tools to help parents prevent or delay substance use in teens and young adults.drugfree+1

Link (Parents & Caregivers): <https://drugfree.org/parents/>

Training & Professional Education

Continuing education, webinars, and toolkits for clinicians, school staff, and community organizations to implement family-centered, evidence-based practices. drugfree+1

Link: <https://drugfree.org/about-us/> (training and professional info section)

“Spanish-language services and materials are available for many programs. Families can request support in Spanish when they call, text, or sign up online.”