

DONOVAN GRIFFIN

BIOGRAPHY

Donovan Griffin is a New York City native who attended Canisius University in Buffalo, NY, and earned a Bachelor's in Communications. He then graduated from Lehman College with a Master's in Urban Education. He also led multiple men's programs, including at Harlem Children's Zone, to mentor male students and create safe havens to help increase graduation rates and develop leaders.

Imposter Syndrome

- Overcoming self-doubt as a first-gen college grad and mentor.
- Building confidence in students facing societal pressures.
- Creating safe spaces to empower students for success.

Growth Mindset

- Fostering resilience through mentorship and leadership.
- Shifting from fixed to growth mindset in education.
- Using failure as a stepping stone to success.

Male Empowerment

- Mentorship's role in shaping future leaders.
- Building brotherhood to support academic growth.
- Encouraging accountability and leadership in young men.

TALK TOPICS

CONTACT US FOR DETAILS OR BOOKING

914-768-3085

TESTIMONIALS

Saidia Jacobs

"I've known Donovan for six years and presented alongside him multiple times. He captivates audiences with clarity, confidence, and connection. His workshops inspire and motivate, making him a highly recommended speaker."

Wendell Haynes

"You rarely get to see an individual who captivates an audience when they speak. Donovan has that ability, which he utilizes with the ease of someone who understands each individual in the room."

Denise Comara

"Donovan Griffin is a dynamic speaker who captivates audiences with clarity, confidence, and deep expertise. His ability to connect, inspire, and simplify complex topics leaves a lasting impact on diverse audiences."

FOLLOW US ON

donovangriffininspires