Dear Darren, Your bowls are singing and you are bringing. The voice of the divine to life; To everybody/every mind To the Soul; From a bowl to the Soul; Carriers of sacred sounds speaking with the voice of an angel; Yes, you fly; And with that, I remember to use my wings of the spirit descending; It is me, oh God I recognise; bow; To your bringing and singing of bowls; For taking me in and understand the deepest of myself; sacred, native;
Yes, I do.

7-Day Intensive Training Retreat

75hr Training (over 3 months)

Online (coming Autumn 2024)

Source Resonance initiates students into the multi-dimensional and magnificent world of sound, frequency, the mystical powers of music and spiritual life. NO EXPERIENCE OF MUSIC & SOUND IS NECESSARY. WE ALL MEET IN THE UNIVERSAL VIBRATION.

Learning Elements:

- ∞ Explore ancient spiritual and shamanic wisdom on vibration and music and how they interconnect with modern quantum physics
- ∞ Learn skills of sacred sound through the art of vocal toning and the awesome healing power of the human voice
- ∞ Free one's creative self-expression through Shaking Medicine & Ecstatic Movement
- ∞ Learn to conduct Sound Journeys & work with divine instruments such as the Crystal Singing Bowl and much more...

Darren's Source Resonance course was a wonderful and magical sound journey from start to end. Darren is warm, authentic and truly gifted sound healer. In the Source Resonance course, he dives into the science of sound healing and touches on various method's for incorporating sound healing into your professional practice or just into your everyday life. I came away with from the experience with so much more than I had hoped. Darren leaves room throughout the course for questions, discussion, personal growth and loads of amazing, fun moments. Seriously one of the best things I did for myself this year.

LOVE'S REVOLUTION is an enthralling writing collection by Darren Austin Hall, visionary and spiritual teacher, which offers a captivating and provocative exploration of the burgeoning realm of sacred sexuality and the revisioning of intimate relationships as pathways of conscious partnership and embodied mysticism. Through beloved ecstatic poetry, thought-provoking essays and paradigm-shifting short stories, we are welcomed into a genre Darren calls spiritual-erotica where the ancient truths of sexual alchemical traditions dovetail with modern yearnings for more depth in love, as well as exploring the anguished awakenings of heart-break and the challenge of sublimating lust into numinous love.

Darren also hones in on healing some of the ancient religious wounds of Christianity and Catholicism, steeped in patriarchal mores and disembodiment complexes, in his retelling of the Garden of Eden story with Eve as heroic tantrika seeking serpent wisdom and a titillating tale of Jesus & Mary Magdalene in a passionate embrace as teachers of sacred sexual arts. As Darren affirms, we are in the midst of a revolution of love and sexuality and one that has profound potential to help lay a foundation for a whole new culture based on the sacredness of pleasure and the healing of our most ancient sufferings.

LOVE'S REVOLUTION IS AVAILABLE NOW ON AMAZON ♥

"The way Darren articulates concepts and ideas, elevates the consciousness of the Soul. The narration navigates the reader through a journey that delivers the philosophy and purpose of this book via poetry and carefully thought out editorials. Loves Revolution is just THAT... a Revolutionary look at the love within us and around us, using age-old archetypal stories that breathe new life into today's deluded and disconnected, insta-gratification pop culture. Candid and relatable first-hand wisdom and insights, are coupled with ways to move toward the heart of sacred-sexuality as individual and collective souls.

Great read. Hard-to-put down. Beautiful & Artistic Masterpiece."

TEMPLE OF THE WILD

DARREN has been facilitating and DJing ecstatic dances for over a decade. His signature ecstatic dance offering is called TEMPLE OF THE WILD, which integrates Shaking Medicine, a 5-Element dance journey, cacao activation and a closing Sound Journey. It is truly a unique and beloved experience. He goes by the moniker DJ DRUID.

Darren is trained in Creative Transformation Therapy & Shaking Medicine, following a two-year training program with the eminent Dr. Bradford Keeney who was initiated by the San Bush People of the Kalahari, who taught him the ecstatic healing of shaking medicine. In the heights of ecstatic movement, it is said we become connected to the grand unified field of the universe, an experience of metaphysical, transpersonal embodiment, which the San Bush People call THE BIG LOVE. This is Darren's humble aim in his sessions, to take people into empowering and liberating self-expression where they feel the potential life-changing ecstatic experience of such BIG LOVE.

Darren co-founded THE BIG LOVE Ecstatic Dance with his soul brother, Jesse Buck, and it was one of the biggest ecstatic dances in Toronto, Canada for many years, often hosting hundreds of participants per month. Now Darren takes his new edition, Temple of the Wild, on the road internationally, sharing it at festivals and other spaces. # KINGS OF THE HEART

Darren has been leading and facilitating Men's Work programming for over a decade. He began by starting to host Men's Circles in his birthplace of Toronto, Ontario and teaching workshops as masculine archetypal psychology. This eventually became his KINGS OF THE HEART program which he teaches in-person and online.

KINGS OF THE HEART is a dynamic 6-week evolutionary journey through the powerful transformational inner-technology of archetypal psychological work. Archetypal Psychology is a profound tool to awaken the best parts of ourselves, what visionary psychiatrist, Carl Jung, called the 'Great Self'. The archetypes represent a deep map of the psyche or soul, illuminating our inner-world with clarity, showing us the depths of our 'shadows' or where we are unconscious and fragmented in our wounding. Concurrently, the archetypes also illuminate and point us toward the inspiration to express ourselves more fully and consciously. This is a positive and heroic process of awakening our innate genius, strengths and gifts.

Darren also hosts and co-creates Men's Retreats and is available to teach one-off workshops and longer programming.
