

Monster Catchers™

Book 1

Monster Lock

Written By Sandy Cole
Illustrated By Toby Mikle

Tammy and Tim and Hector and Kate
have grown up together; their friendship's just great!
They walk home from school everyday, don't you see,
and enter their clubhouse up high in a tree.

They used to be fearful in their rooms alone,
for each one believed it a huge monster zone.

So they formed a club, Monster Catchers the name,
although none of them quite fight monsters the same.

Tammy and Tim and Hector and Kate
have all joined forces and offer first – rate

Monster protection, so you'll have no fear,
for they will assure you that your room is clear.

Whenever you need them, they'll be there for you;
you can count on their tools, you can count on them too.

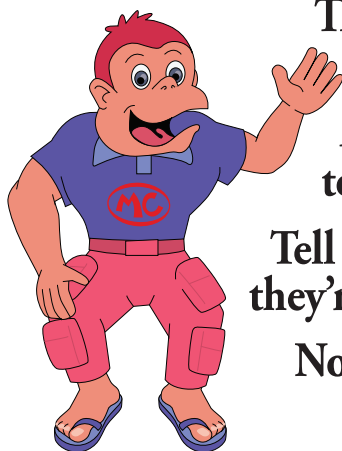

They'll do the job quickly – no need to worry –
for each single monster is gone in a hurry.

And after they help you, you too will belong to Club Monster Catchers, so join right along.

Tell all your friends who have monsters still lurking,
they're sharing their tools to stop them from smirking.

Now you'll sleep soundly clear through the night,
never a worry, never a fright.

Monsters will panic when they hear the name;
“Monster Catchers” have done it – come join in their fame.

my daddy said,

“Brush your teeth,
it’s time for bed.”

I begged him not
to make me go,
Because I was afraid
— you know.

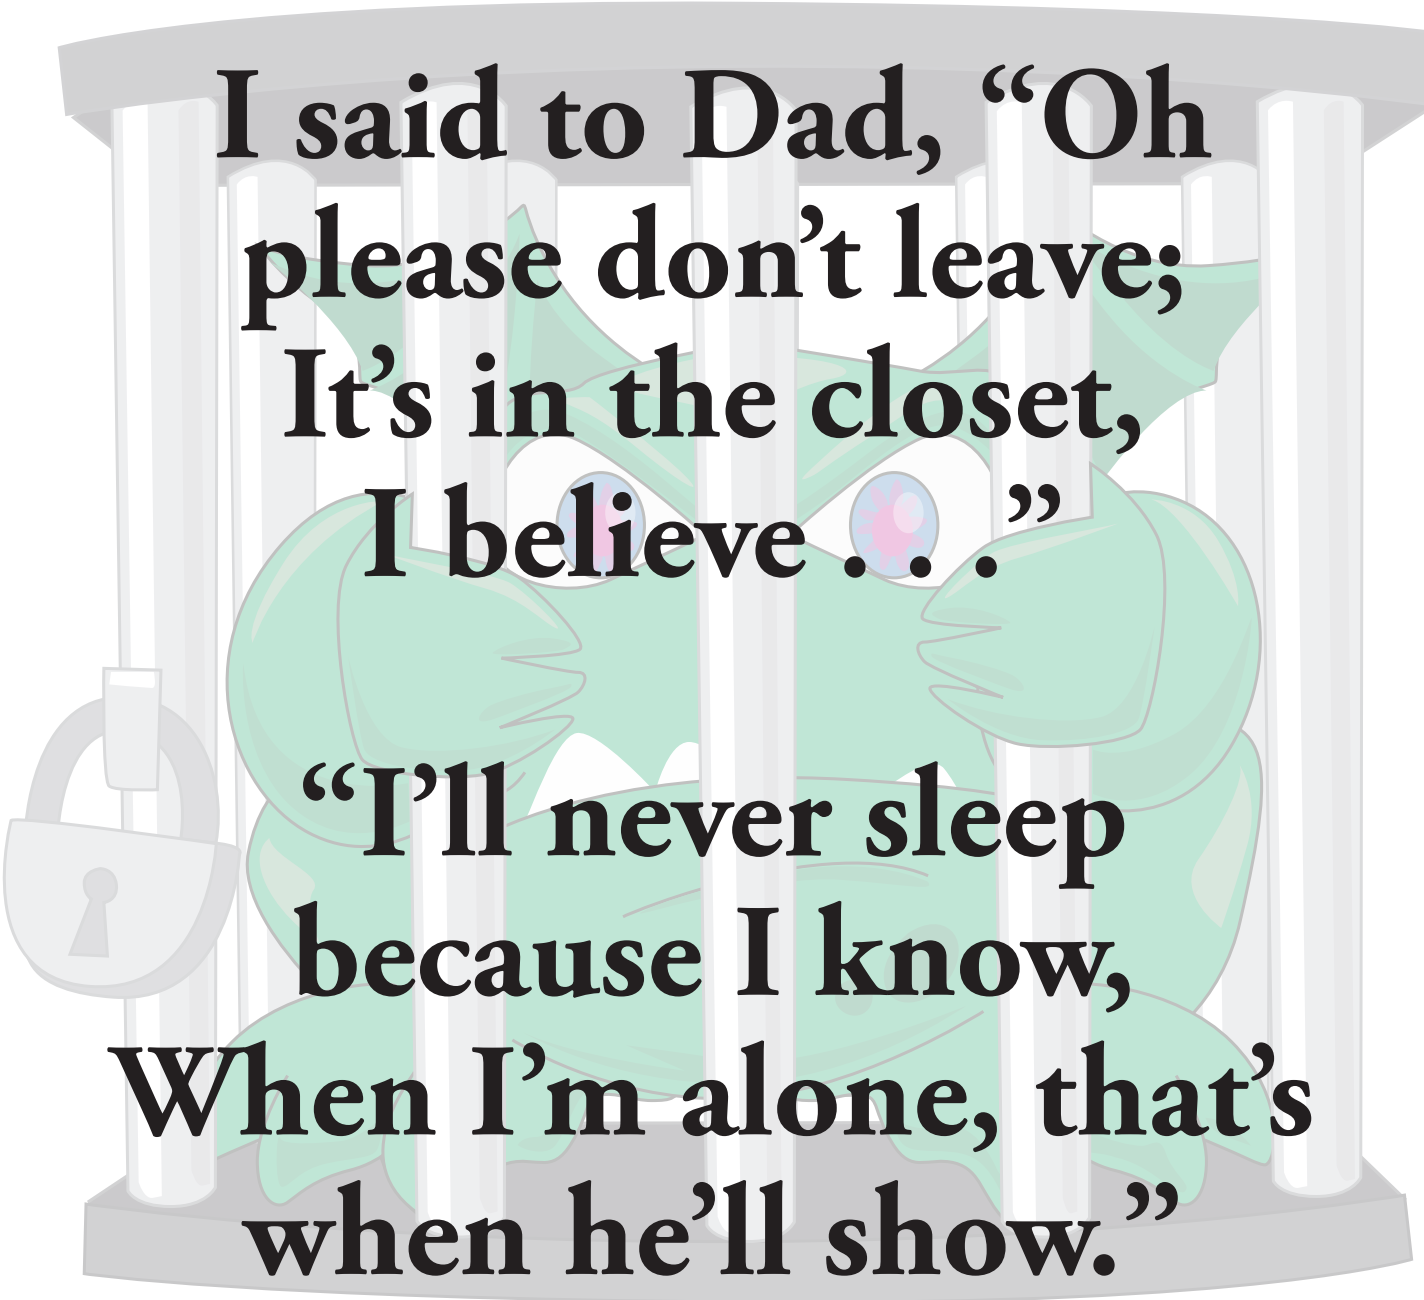

“Afraid,” Dad said,
“why would that be?
I’ll go with you
and we will see.”

So in my room and
tucked in tight,
Dad wanted to
turn off the light.

Then right before
he closed the door,
I thought I heard
a monster roar!

I said to Dad, “Oh
please don’t leave;
It’s in the closet,
I believe . . .”

“I’ll never sleep
because I know,
When I’m alone, that’s
when he’ll show.”

“The closet monster
appears at night

When lights are off
and doors shut tight.”

“So please don’t leave
me here alone;

This room of mine’s a MONSTER ZONE!”

“Oh now I see,”
my Daddy said,
“We’ll make sure
you can go to bed.”

“Call Monster Catchers
and you’ll see,
How safe from harm
your room can be!”

In just a flash there
came a knock,

And Tammy brought
the Monster Lock.

Tammy said, “Let’s take a look.”
She checked each corner,
shelf, and hook.

“I can’t find anything,” she said.
“Rest assured, you’re safe in bed.”

“Clothes and toys
are all I see –

Just grab the lock
and follow me.”

She latched it
to my closet door;
I felt secure,
afraid no more.

No need to fret
or look about,
No monsters in –
no monsters out.

But to be sure Tammy called Hector,

And over he flew with
the Monster Detector.

Oh what a tool
he gave to me;

Just press the button
and you'll see.

If monsters lurk
about you'll know,
Monster Detector's
lights will show

Just where they are,
so you can see
Where they all hide –
how can that be?

With Monster Lock on
your closet door,

You don't need to
be afraid anymore.

And to be sure the lock's
working fine,
The Monster Detector
gives off a sign

That all of the monsters are gone – do not worry –
The Monster Lock
did its job in a hurry.

The Monster Lock
made all things right;

Now I sleep soundly
every night.
