BIOGRAPHY

Stephanie L. Chilton has been an attorney for over 30 years, spending a significant portion of her career representing the insurance industry and its policy holders in complex litigation matters. She is known for being respectful of all involved parties on both sides of a case throughout the process, and is focused on the end goal of delivering the highest quality representation required to prevail in complex legal matters.

Peer rated by Martindale Hubbell as an AV Preeminent lawyer and recognized in 2024 Best Lawyers, Ms. Chilton has extensive experience defending large corporations in complex matters in state and federal courts, including insurance litigation and product liability in the areas of automotive, medical device, and industrial equipment. Her corporate clients extend across industries, with cases focused on complex business litigation, managing multi-million-dollar exposure cases, resulting in defense verdicts. She manages all phases of coverage and litigation, including providing proactive legal advice to clients to reduce litigation fees and expenses, developing and executing legal strategies, discovery, complex motion practice, oral arguments, depositions, expert retention, settlement negotiations, mediations, arbitrations, trial preparation and trial.

Ms. Chilton volunteers in her community and in her spare time is very involved in the sport of pure-bred dogs, competing in both conformation and performance events. She currently serves on the Board of Directors of the French Bulldog Club of American and as a member of its Health & Genetics Committee.
