BIOGRAPHY

In 2021, Andrea became a part of the firm following her work as a law clerk for them during her tenure in law school. She graduated from Michigan State University College of Law, taking part in moot court and Change at Childhood Clinic while serving as a teaching assistant for advocacy. Consequently, Andrea was recognized with the Jurisprudence Award in advocacy, constitutional law, business establishments and corporate income tax. Her bachelor's degree in accountancy with an accompanying minor in economics is from Arizona State University.
