BIOGRAPHY

Scott Rowan provides estate planning services for families who want to guarantee that the correct people have the legal power to aid with matters involving finances or health care, when necessary. These objectives can be accomplished with Wills that designate a guardian in case minors are involved, as well as trusts to ensure possessions can be comfortably accessed by family members after a client passes away. Powers of attorney are used by Scott so clients may be helped in cases of sickness or disability, and beneficiary deeds are employed to sidestep the probate process when a customer decides not to make a trust.

Scott was raised in Merced, California, and has relatives living in Arizona. With a bachelor's degree in psychology and business management from Brigham Young University, he is well-equipped to recognize any matters concerning business that must be considered during an estate plan.

Scott achieved his Juris Doctor from the UCLA School of Law, whilst there he was named an editor of the Pacific Basin Law Journal, held a position at the Lanterman Special Education Law Clinic, and presided over the UCLA section of the J. Reuben Clark Law Society.

Scott offers his services mainly from the Sun City office, serving numerous customers from Sun City West, Peoria, Glendale, Arrowhead, Buckeye, Avondale and Goodyear. Depending on their locality, clients of the Phoenix, Scottsdale and East Valley areas can choose to go to either the Phoenix or Sun City office.
