EU CE

Marking Training

The word “CE” is the abbreviation of French phrase “Conformité Européene” which literally means “European Conformity”. CE involves a statement issued by the manufacturer, stating that the product complies with the basic criteria of the European Union for example the EMC Directive with respect to safety, the environment, and the user’s health. This statement is visibly represented on the product by the CE symbol.

Depending on the risks, for some product groups the manufacturer’s statement must be confirmed by means of testing by an independent third party, a so-called Notified Body. If there is compliance with all the applicable criteria stipulated in the European standard for the relevant product, then there is a legal “assumption of conformity to the requirement originating from the directive.” Gitchia provides training opportunities on EU CE Marking to build yourself according to industry level.
