

Issue #9 - Friday 8th August 2025

Hello Simon,

Football fans, the wait is over, the football season's back! Chorley kick off their National League North campaign this Saturday away at Darlington, and on Sunday, it's the Premier League curtain-raiser as Liverpool face Crystal Palace in the Community Shield. Whether you'll be following the Magpies on the road or watching the Reds on the screen, there's a real buzz in the air again. Here's to the highs, heartbreaks, and last-minute goals that only football can deliver.

Red Arrows Fly-Past

The RAF aerobatic team will appear at the Blackpool Airshow on Saturday and Sunday.

Fans of the Red Arrows could catch a glimpse of the world-famous aerobatic team in the skies over Chorley this weekend. On Saturday, August 9th, the team will fly from North Wales across Lancashire. They will be visible south west of Eccleston at 1.54pm and a minute later spectators can catch them over Belmont at 1.55pm. On Sunday August 10th there's a second chance to spot the famous aerobatic team in the skies over Belmont. They are due to fly south west of Belmont at 4.55pm before they fly over Lancashire in time to arrive in Blackpool for their airshow appearance at 5pm.

Around Town

Domino's opened in Chorley on Wednesday - How would you like to get your hands on FREE pizza?

Who doesn't love pizza - especially when it is free!

This is exactly what the owners of Domino's Pizza are doing to celebrate the launch of their new Chorley store.

The new store is located at Unit 1 & 2 Flat Iron Parade, Market Walk Shopping Centre and will be serving up popular pizzas alongside chicken wings, dips and sweet treats.

Head down this Saturday, August 9th, as they'll be handing out free samples around the town and inviting the public in to see the store. Run don't walk!
