Tens of thousands of people—including celebrities, entrepreneurs, and high-net-worth individuals—turn to Rondi as the trusted authority on credit optimization, tax strategy, and asset protection. With a deep understanding of financial structuring, he helps business owners and investors implement strategies that protect their assets, minimize taxes, and create generational

While serving in the military, Rondi dedicated his life to protecting others—both on the battlefield and in his community. He spent 15 years as a firefighter, earning the title of Firefighter of the Year in Littleton in 1998. In 1999, he was among the first responders to the Columbine High School tragedy, demonstrating his unwavering commitment to helping others in times of crisis.

Today, Rondi is a leading expert in tax strategy, asset protection, and financial structuring for high-net-worth individuals. He has built a white-glove concierge service designed to help entrepreneurs and investors keep more of their wealth, protect their assets, and create lasting legacies.

What started as a mission to help families escape financial hardship has evolved into an elite-level service that ensures the wealthy stay wealthy —legally, ethically, and strategically.

Whether you're looking to optimize your tax strategy, safeguard your assets, or scale your wealth, Rondi's expertise puts you in control of your financial future.

MASTERING THE SYSTEM: FROM CREDIT TO CORPORATE STRUCTURING

Determined to create solutions, Rondi founded Fortress Credit Pro in 2007, a firm that has since helped thousands of clients eliminate negative items from their credit reports and reclaim financial stability. Through his expertise, non-qualifying applicants became mortgage-ready in as little as 90 days, and Fortress has helped eliminate over $50 million in consumer and tax debt.

But he didn't stop there. As he worked with business owners and entrepreneurs, Rondi saw a deeper issue—wealthy individuals were losing millions due to improper tax strategies, corporate structuring, and asset protection. He immersed himself in elite tax planning, corporate structuring, and wealth protection strategies, learning how the ultra-wealthy legally minimize taxes and shield their assets.
