Program Requirements

Our programs are designed to offer personalized insights into your unique leadership style and capabilities. To ensure a meaningful experience, completing any assigned pre-program materials or assessments is both critical and mandatory for program enrollment. You will receive specific pre-program assignments well in advance of your attendance, allowing ample time for completion. Some materials may not be available until approximately 8 weeks before the program start date, as we strive to provide the most accurate and relevant information. These pre-course assignments are integral to your program experience, and their completion may directly affect your participation and enrollment status.

Transfers:

If you need to transfer your registration, you must specify the new date and/or program you wish to attend. Please note that tuition becomes fully non-refundable if you transfer more than twice or if you do not attend another program within 6 months of the original start date.

Refunds:

Any remaining balance from a canceled program can be applied toward another program at The Adversity Academy within 6 months of the original program date. After 6 months, any unused balance is non-refundable.

Exceptions:

For Assessment Certification and The Adversity Academy UN-Leadership™ for New Leaders, the following special conditions apply:

No Substitutions After Login Issued: Once login credentials have been issued, enrollment and name changes are not permitted. A substitution request may be considered only if the course login has not been accessed. Please contact us to submit a request.

Refunds: No refunds will be issued after logging into the Assessment Certification Course or The Adversity Academy UN-Leadership™ for New Leaders and accessing The Adversity Academy’s intellectual property.
